

00:00:16

Hey, Come here, you look so cute.

00:00:22

Come, Come, come.

00:00:57

That's much better.

00:01:09

I barely got to hold you this morning.

00:01:11

You woke up so late and I had this sucky day and I missed you.

00:01:23

I missed just being close to you.

00:01:30

Having you in my arms.

00:01:37

Honestly, this moment got me through today.

00:02:10

You know, sometimes if somebody was to ask me what my favorite part about being in a relationship is, is it's moment like this.

00:02:27

It's not fancy dates or anything like that.

00:02:32

It's just.

00:02:35

Just being close.

00:02:41

Me laying on you, you laying on me, holding your hand when we drift off to sleep, Things like that.

00:02:57

Just existing.

00:03:05

That's my favorite part.

00:03:12

I am.

00:03:15

Yes.

00:03:16

This is tired rambles.

00:03:17

But I just love you is what I wanted to say.

00:03:31

More than you, know.

00:03:45

I'm glad we're both like, equally.

00:03:49

I kind of want to say touch obsessed.

00:03:55

Well, that we both crave that.

00:03:58

That it's part of both of our love language.

00:04:20

You tracing my scar?

00:04:31

It's really old.

00:04:35

It's faded quite a bit, but.

00:04:39

Yeah, you can still feel it.

00:04:44

I think I was like 14, maybe, going on 15, and.

00:04:55

Well, you know, I had a horse back then.

00:04:58

Well, my family had a horse, and I was out with it one day and we were doing this thing it's called tömkörning.

00:05:12

Which is.

00:05:13

I don't know the English term for it, but is essentially when you have a harness on the horse and you walk behind it, it's kind of like in preparation for teaching it to eventually be able to pull something like a small carriage or something of that nature.

00:05:35

And we were walking by a road that, you know, has cyclists coming and pedestrians, but also on occasion, these.

00:05:48

These mopeds.

00:05:51

And one of the mopeds going by really frightened her, and she pulled away and I tried to stop her because we were close to a road and this.

00:06:14

This was not the first time we had done this, by the way.

00:06:18

But, yeah, she.

00:06:21

She dragged me for a little bit on the gravel, and then eventually I had to let go.

00:06:30

Yeah, it was really scary.

00:06:38

Luckily, everything went well.

00:06:40

Like, she found her way home and I wasn't like, seriously injured or anything.

00:06:46

Just.

00:06:48

Yeah, just a little scar.

00:06:52

Well, what I mean by that is I didn't break anything or.

00:06:55

Or, you know, anything like that.

00:06:59

I've actually never done that, which is amazing considering how many times I've fall off horses and.

00:07:06

Oh, so many times I've.

00:07:07

Even at one point when I was doing jumping, I.

00:07:12

Well, I was the one that jumped over the.

00:07:18

The jump, but the horse didn't.

00:07:19

Right.

00:07:21

And I fell, you know, on my stomach, on the.

00:07:28

Well, the jump thingies.

00:07:31

My English is not Englishing today.

00:07:35

Yeah.

00:07:36

Like, just boom.

00:07:37

And I was wearing a safety vest.

00:07:41

As you should when you're jumping.

00:07:42

It's very important.

00:07:44

And thank God.

00:07:45

Otherwise I would have for sure broken all my ribs.

00:07:48

Well, not all my ribs, but hopefully not at least.

00:07:52

But yeah, I think that was definitely the worst one.

00:07:57

And I was definitely shaking when I was getting up.

00:08:01

Luckily, I was not alone in the.

00:08:04

In the arena then, so I had someone help me and made sure that I was okay and that the horse was okay.

00:08:13

Yes.

00:08:14

This is tough sport.

00:08:19

What about you?

00:08:23

Injuries from the past.

00:08:27

I know one.

00:08:40

Is it the one there.

00:08:50

That hurt?

00:08:52

Even though it's old, I just want to make sure.

00:08:58

I don't think it is.

00:09:05

I don't think there are scars that are ugly.

00:09:08

I think they just.

00:09:11

They tell a story.

00:09:14

Right.

00:09:18

They're reminder of past events, of endurance and bravery.

00:09:28

You're perfect.

00:09:36

You would be with them and you would be without them.

00:09:41

It doesn't matter.

00:09:44

No.

00:09:53

Well, what matters is that you're these incredibly cuddly, affectionate, kind person, and one that I am just completely madly in love with.

00:10:19

I really am.

00:10:23

I can't say that I've ever felt like that before.

00:10:30

Yeah, sure.

00:10:33

But.

00:10:37

There's a difference, right?

00:10:42

I think sometimes, at least from my perspective, sometimes you want to feel something so badly that you create it for yourself instead of actually going by what you feel in your heart.

00:11:03

Like you're more in love with the idea of being in love than actually being in love.

00:11:16

Does that make sense?

00:11:21

A little.

00:11:21

Okay.

00:11:29

I think it's hard to truly be in love if you don't really genuinely know the person.

00:11:39

And I feel like I know you.

00:11:43

I feel like I can tell you anything.

00:11:50

I feel like you tell me what's in your heart, too.

00:11:53

And that's really special.

00:12:02

Yes.

00:12:17

My rambles making you sleepy?

00:12:27

Yeah.

00:12:27

Soothing voice?

00:12:28

Whatever.

00:12:33

You're cute.

00:12:37

Come here.

00:12:54

I love you.

00:13:05

Yeah, you bet.

00:13:08

Stay like this all night.

00:13:16

All night.

00:13:21

Forever.

00:13:25

Forever.

00:13:26

Sounds good to me, too.

00:13:32

It really does.

00:13:38

Yeah, I hear them.

00:13:42

Going crazy outside.

00:13:50

I don't know.

00:13:52

Playing some kind of game.

00:14:01

It reminds me when.

00:14:05

When I was younger, we lived in this.

00:14:11

I don't know, this neighborhood that had open backyards that you would share with the other people living in the same building.

00:14:27

And all the kids, we played together.

00:14:33

And we were all different ages, which is kind of surreal.

00:14:37

But we would play hide and seek.

00:14:41

We was definitely my favorite.

00:14:46

And there was so much open areas that there was barely, like, any place to hide whatsoever.

00:14:54

It was, like, a few trees, one kind of big bush, and there was this playhouse next to a sandbox that was, like, the most obvious place to hide because, yes, that was always the first place that you would go and look for somebody.

00:15:21

But we kind of cheated a lot because we never stayed in one hide.

00:15:27

Like, yeah, we would be on the lookout for the person who.

00:15:34

Who was running around and was supposed to define everybody.

00:15:38

And we never stayed in the same place when they moved out of.

00:15:42

Out of sight.

00:15:43

We would swap place.

00:15:54

I don't know why I'm reminded of all these.

00:15:56

All these things right now.

00:15:58

Like, all these past memories.

00:16:08

My favorite...

00:16:12

Oh, I have one.

00:16:14

When there was this cat that used to come by and sit on our porch.

00:16:24

And one day when I got home from school, my mom let me bring it, like, this plate with a little bit of milk.

00:16:33

And it was the cutest thing, just watching it drink because it was obviously hungry.

00:16:44

Yeah.

00:16:45

Oh, and there was this hedgehog that used to hide underneath our porch.

00:16:54

And one day, it had come out just a little bit one evening, like, enough that you could clearly see it and so that my.

00:17:08

My brother and I fed it cheese doodles.

00:17:11

Like, probably the worst thing in.

00:17:14

I mean, I don't know what hedgehogs eat.

00:17:15

They eat insects or something, maybe.

00:17:20

Definitely not Cheese doodles.

00:17:21

I don't think that's supposed to be on the menu, but it loved them.

00:17:26

Like, it was so excited, and they're like, oh, my God, Hedgehogs are so cute.

00:17:40

No, I don't think.

00:17:42

Well, there is some people who keep them as pets, I think, but I don't know if.

00:17:49

I don't really know anything about them.

00:17:53

I do like the memory.

00:17:57

Yeah, it was fine.

00:17:58

It was fine after cheese doodles.

00:17:59

I saw it several times after.

00:18:02

Yeah, Yeah.

00:18:17

Raccoon, That's.

00:18:20

That's less cute.

You think?

00:18:30

They don't quite compare to a hedgehog, but.

00:18:44

What did you try feeding it?

00:18:48

I'm not.

00:18:48

I'm not bored.

00:18:49

I'm just.

00:18:49

I'm getting tired, honey.

00:18:51

But tell me, tell me, did it like it?

00:18:59

Okay.

00:19:07

I didn't think they were very safe to interact with, but I don't know.

00:19:12

I never come across one.

00:19:20

Well, they're very shy.

00:19:34

Yeah.

00:19:39

You know, I want that, too.

00:19:42

Like, I don't want to live completely smack in the city, and I don't want to live too.

00:19:51

Too, like, middle of nowhere, a situation kind of just close enough to everything.

00:20:07

But yet where there is, like, peace and quiet and a little bit of land.

00:20:13

Because I definitely want all the animals.

00:20:20

Well, I want dogs and cats.

00:20:24

Horses.

00:20:27

Yes.

00:20:27

Plural.

00:20:30

Chickens.

00:20:33

And then more bunnies.

00:20:45

You gonna help?

00:20:49

That's good.

00:20:51

Of course they would have the best life.

00:20:53

Baby, we would give them the best life.

00:21:06

I mean, imagine getting up in the morning, opening the door, and you see just huge fields of grass, animals grazing out in the sunshine, and it's just dead quiet.

00:21:36

And you just would sit outside, a cup of coffee and watch the animals.

00:21:48

You and me, just sitting there talking and watching them.

00:21:58

Sounds pretty good, I think.

00:22:05

Me too.

00:22:23

I won't keep you up longer.

00:22:24

Okay.

00:22:28

Do you want to lay down on the bed, maybe?

00:22:34

I know, but just, you know, on an actual pillow.

00:22:44

I'm the best pillow?

00:22:45

Okay.

00:22:45

Okay.

00:22:48

Well, then you're the best blanket.

00:23:04

Nice.

00:23:08

I love you.

00:23:17

You stay exactly like this, then that would be perfect.

00:23:28

Yes, it would be.

00:23:31

It's perfect.
