

INT. DAY- BEDROOM

Two guys are sat on the bed. - will looks to chez

WILL

I'm not sure sleep overs are quite as fun as I remember them, you know?

Wide shot of them sat on the bed.

^{actually}
CHEZ

What did we used to do?

WILL

Pillow fight?

CHEZ

I don't think we've ever had a-

A pillow slaps Chez across the face.

He pauses then starts grinning insanely.

CHEZ (CONT'D)

(laughing)

Right you're in for it now!] - cut

Close up of him grabbing pillow.

Swing at each other a few times.

Close up on each of their faces as they swing the pillows and laugh insanely.

Chez hits Will in the face and he looks stunned.

CHEZ (CONT'D), giggling

Woah dude I'm sorry-

CRUNCH

Chez gets whacked in the face and recoils.

He touches his lip and reveals blood.

CHEZ (CONT'D)

Dude did you put something in your pillow?!

WILL Noooo...

Something falls out of will's case to the ground.

Close up on a battery lying on the floor between Will's feet.

CHEZ

A battery!?

Will is staring @ toes
chez looks @ will then flops on bed

pillow

WILL Noooo...?

Loads more batteries fall out of the pillow to the ground.

Will is stood awkwardly.

Pause.

One final battery falls.

Shot of all the assortment of different kinds of batteries lying on the ground.

CHEZ (angry)
Right! You're in for it now!

He raises his pillow in slow motion.

WILL Buddy?

Still raising it.

WILL (CONT'D)
Buddy?

Still raising.

WILL (CONT'D)
Look I'm sorry.

* The pillow suddenly collides with Will's knee and snaps his leg backwards in the wrong direction with a CRUNCH.

Will screams.

✓ Will raises his pillow as a shield and a longer pillow as a sword with a SCHWING sound.

✓ Chez draws his sword also.

They sword fight. Clash shields. Swords hit shields. The sound effects are realistic.

Chez shield barges Will in the face. He falls backwards and stands up again the same shot now brandishing the pillow as a gun.

Chez raises an eyebrow.

✓ Will pumps the pillow with a pump action shotgun sound effect.

✓ Chez raises his pillow to his chest.

Will fires his pillow gun. A spurt of feathers and a muzzle flash erupt from the end of the pillow.

Chester's pillow bursts open with a shower of feathers.

Chez falls to the ground.

He spits out feathers and pulls out a small pillow.

He pulls a pin out of the pillow and smiles. He throws it to Will.

It lands behind Will. He looks down then dives out of the way.

A huge eruption of feathers explodes behind him.

Hand held slow motion shots of Will lying on the floor as feathers fall around his face.

He pulls himself up to see Chez has drawn a long thin pillow sword with a black hilt. The hilt is glowing red. It is a lightsaber pillow.

Mid range shot on Will as he raises his blue lightsaber pillow vertically.

They swing the swords at each other, each time they clash they release glowing feather shaped sparks.

Will blocks horizontally as Chez drives down on him from above. Will uses his spare hand to force push chez away. Chez flies backwards. - chez force throws a pillow @ him that he slices in two?

Will stands. He suddenly looks scared.

The camera pans up so it is taller and looking down on Will. We hear robotic noises.

Chez is in a pillow iron man outfit with drawn on face and glowing chest.

CHEZ
(robotic)
Pillow fight! (or a pillow pun if i can think of one)

"pillow talk's over!"

He chest fires a bolt of laser at Will who directs it back at him with the pillow saber.

It slices across chester's chest. He falls to the ground.

Will realises what he's done and drops the saber and rushes to chez in slomo.

Chez is lying on the floor with his helmet off. Red feathers are hanging out of his chest pillow.

bang of red feathers

WILL

Buddy? I'm so sorry.

Chester coughs up red feathers.

Will looks at his hands which are covered in red feathers.

WILL (CONT'D)

(crying)

No. You'll be fine. You'll be fine.

He cradles chez.

Chez begins to laugh.

Will slowly sits up.

Chester is laughing maniacally now.

Chez pulls a panel of pillow away from the pillow suit attached to his arm.

It reveals a predator style timer which appears to be counting down.

Will looks horrified at Chez who continues to laugh like a madman.

Shot from behind Will as an explosion and blinding white light emanates from chez. Feathers fly towards the screen.

[Shot from outside at ground level as the barn explodes and shock wave of dust and feathers fly at the screen.

Drone shot from above the barn as we see a mini nuclear explosion with feathers raining down.
