

Transforma Park Prompt Requests

Writing Prompt 701

Prompt: Samantha and the rest of an all-girls swim team find a giant pool at the corner of the park. Quickly jumping in, their patches activate, turning the swimmers' slim bodies into chubby, bottom heavy anthro hippos.

Still staring at the grey patch on her shoulder, Samatha didn't realize that the rest of the girls from her college swim team had run ahead. As they took turns jumping into the water, she tried to remind herself that she had willingly come to Transforma Park to have this bonding experience. Taking a deep breath and telling herself it was for the sake of the team, she took the leap into the water to activate the patch.

As Samantha slowly rose to the surface, she could feel her lithe body start to grow. The one-piece swimsuit she had worn didn't last long under the force her engorging breast and belly. The last few shreds were torn asunder as the adding weight put most of its focus on her hips and thighs. Breaching the water with the peak of her doughy rear left just above the surface, she felt the small tail sticking out from her lower back flick around.

Opening her eyes, the swimmer blinked a few times to properly register the large, grey snout that was now a part of her face. Holding up a blubbery arm, she saw the ivory digits that had taken over her fingers. Stomping along with her flat feet, the newly created hippo woman sought out a way to deal with her new figure.

Samantha was given some much needed stability by familiar, yet huskier voices calling her name. Turing towards the source, she saw other hippo women like herself. Recognizing them by the hair still hanging on their wide heads, she shared a toothy grin with them. Diving into water, she paddled over to them to begin their unique swimming session.

Writing Prompt 702

Prompt: TF into a shortstack Goblin with an incredible hunger for gold and cum. Maybe even a hyperspace anus to stuff all the booty she can find in her booty.

Arriving at the gates of the attraction known as “Goblin Treasure Horde” Evie found herself shaking with joy. Discarding her clothes, she slapped the Transforma patch on her backside to begin the process. Her view of the sign became distorted as her body became shorter and wider. The increased girth of her breasts and buttocks came alongside her ears becoming longer to match her more pointed nose. As much as she would have liked to spend her time properly groping her green flesh, she knew that something more entertaining was waiting for her beyond the gates.

Running as fast as her short legs would carry her, Evie joined the other people that had been turned into goblins in raiding the imaginary treasure hoard. In an instant she could pick out who was new based on how poorly they were carrying their loot. It was obvious to her that they had no idea the extra pocket that their transformed figures allotted them.

Running over to a pile of fake gold, Evie made a show of taking handfuls of coins and stuffing them in her anus. Just as before, her enhanced body provided ample space to fit her loot inside of her. The added benefit of the waves of pleasure she felt as she loaded herself down with more treasure helped to push her on. This strange euphoria also made her ignore the other goblins quickly make for the exit.

Evie came out of her loot obsessed pleasure when the heavy footsteps surrounded her on all sides. Looking up from her treasure hoard, she saw a group of orc men leering down at her.

They gave her a simple offer: either give up her gold or face the “consequences”. With a sly grin, she eagerly accepted her rightful punishment.

Grasped by the strong hands, the goblin’s already stuffed anus was further filled by one of their cocks. After a rough session of using her shortstack figure like a sexy toy, her insides were fit to burst with both gold and cum. Sliding off of the cock and landing on her protruding belly, all she could do was laugh. Hoisting herself back up, she spread out her ass cheeks and invited the others to come and give a naughty goblin girl more “punishment.”

Writing Prompt 703

Prompt: A trio of friends get frozen yogurt at the snack stand, which each flavor promising an expansive transformation. While one woman decides to go for the classic blueberry, the other two go for more adventurous fruits: plantain and dragon fruit.

With the fruit-embossed Transforma patches stuck to their chests and the orders made, the three women took their spots around the table. As each of them were handed their cups of frozen yogurt, they shook with anticipation. Waiting until they had all been served, they raised up their treats for a toast before diving in.

Belinda was the first to finish her cup, as well as the first to go through the transformation. Her slender form blew up into a sphere as her skin took on a deep shade of blue. With her clothes torn apart by her expansion, everyone was able to see her spherical breasts as well as the juice leaking from her nipples. While she garnered attention with her blueberry body, she realized that she wouldn't hold the spotlight for long.

Draca was the next to complete her yogurt cup and begin changing. At first, she resembled Belinda with how her body grew into an orb. However, she stood out thanks to the bright pink coloring along her bloated form, along with the green leaves hanging off of it. As her own engorged bosom began to leak white juice, her status as a dragon fruit woman was made known by the numerous seeds that fell into the puddle around her sunken in feet.

Too engrossed by her companions' transformations, Paula ended up being the last one to empty out her cup. As her own body began to engorge and become bright yellow, it defied the spherical shape of her friends. Her stretched out, cylindrical form became further distorted as she curved in the middle and her breasts grew to resemble a pair of beachball-sized hills. Seeing Paula's form stabilize, her friends incorrectly called her a banana woman.

While the comment made Paula laugh, she did have to correct her companions. Rather than explain the difference between bananas and plantains, she merely offered up her leaking breasts to them. Waddling over to Paula, Belinda and Draca latched their mouths onto the teats to sample the bright yellow juice. Reveling in the way the hungry mouths drank up her fluid, the plantain woman couldn't help looking towards the other girls' bosoms. Licking her lips, she looked forward to getting her turn to sample the flavors of her equally fruity friends.

Writing Prompt 704

Prompt: A woman takes on a ‘Chubby Bunny Challenge’ not realizing that she’s about to be turned into a fat anthropomorphic rabbit girl.

“You may begin the Chubby Bunny Challenge...now!”

Upon the shout of the referee, Kira began to relentlessly stuff marshmallows into her mouth. Looking up from her platter revealed a gathering of fellow park goers who had gathered to watch the contest. Still relatively new to the bizarre theme park, she wasn’t aware of the true nature of the competition. Nor did she think much at first about the Transforma patch adorned with a rabbit icon that had been stuck to her lower back.

Kira’s single-minded focus on winning left her ignorant to the light layer of white fuzz that crept along her skin with each bite. This fur began to stretch to better accommodate the extra bits of blubber that began to hang off of her form. While she didn’t notice doughy gut and widening hips, the appearance of her ears becoming long and floppy was not lost on the audience.

The constant cheering from the crowd was enough to get Kira to miss her paw-like fingers as she used them to continue stuffing her face. Even as her shorts ripped apart to reveal to the crowd her fuzzy, cotton tail hanging above her chunky rear, she just kept stuffing herself. She only came to a halt once one of the last marshmallows on her plate became stuck. Moving her tongue to dislodge the sweet treat, her black, glossy eyes went wide at the feeling of her elongated, buck teeth.

Leaping out of her seat with the help of her thick, long legs, Kira finally got a feel for her chubby body. Moving around her thick neck, she tried to take in the sight of the bright, marshmallow-like fur that had covered her flabby belly and luscious breasts. Wiggling her pink nose and whiskers as she took in her current body, she nearly missed the announcement that she had won. Caught up in the roar of the crowd, she showed off her buckteeth in a wide grin as she claimed her title as the Chubby Bunny Champion for the day.

Writing Prompt 705

Prompt: A nihilistic goth chick is dragged to a magic show by her friend. As a sick joke, the magician turns her into a belly heavy clown girl with a bimbo/slutty attitude.

More than a little bummed out that the park had run out of succubus patches, Nadine couldn't do much as her friend dragged her into a tent to see a show. The goth woman with her brooding eyes and black attire was typically in a bad mood on a normal day. Being surrounded by cheery people excited to watch a magic show seemed to be a poor fit for her. Just as she let out a sigh and thought about sneaking off to grab a smoke, she was caught by surprise as a spotlight shined down on her.

Left momentarily blinded, there was little the goth woman could do as she was pushed towards the front. Regaining her vision as she was hoisted onto the stage, she gave a sneer towards the smiling magician who greeted her. Holding out his gloved hand, he used a flick of the wrist to make appear a golden Transforma patch with a bright, red circle in the middle. While the overly ecstatic nature of the showman pissed her off, she did begrudgingly allow him to place the sticker on her forehead. She was going to at least try to salvage her visit to the park.

Nadine's urge to knock smiling man's teeth out of his face, was undone by a wave of energy emanating out of the patch. The tingling sensation showed its effects as her black hair turned into bright, strawberry blonde and became much poofier to match the rounded nature of her rubber nose. Her already pale skin became even brighter as her entire body was covered in a white makeup. This change in tone was shown perfectly through the set of oversized overalls that replaced her leather top. While the outfit sagged around her wide hips, a hole had been purposefully left open in the middle to allow her doughy belly to be shown off. In the past, she had been reluctant to show off her chubby figure. However, that wasn't a problem at the moment thanks to the altered mindset that had taken over her thoughts.

With an uncharacteristically high-pitched giggle, the goth turned bimbo clown pranced around the stage upon her squeaky, red shoes. As she moved around, she made sure to exaggerate each step to ensure the audience could witness the way her breasts and belly shook around. Finding glee in the simple act of so many people looking over her obese figure, she continued to indulge herself with another bout of giggles. Giving a hearty slap to her bubble butt to answer the roaring applause, she turned around and used her gloved hands to pick out several audience members for her own "tricks" backstage.

Writing Prompt 706

Prompt: A shy girl looking for a way to break out of her shell heads to the Transforma Park Rage Room. She puts on a patch that turn her into an explosive, but non-lethal, monobutt bomb girl, with an equally fitting personality.

Sheepishly making her way through the entrance Quin shuddered as she watched her friends go to town smashing things. The rage room was supposed to be a way to unleash her anger, but she couldn't break her typically meek behavior. Taking a deep breath, she reached into her bag to retrieve the Transorma patch she had been provided for this exact reason. Ensuring that she had read over the details that assured her that the patch was safe, she placed the black sticker on the middle of her butt.

Quin took on a wide grin as the first shudder of energy began to swell up her rear. As her hips and waist were engorged to go alongside enlarging rear, her skin took on a bright grey color. Her growing size came at the cost of her butt cheeks merging together into single, bulbous orb that left her panties and pants in shreds. Undisturbed by the creation of her massive monobutt, she whipped around her wick-like hair as charged towards the piles in junk before her.

With a maniacal laugh, the newly created bomb girl proceeded to mercilessly smash through anything in her way with sways of her expanded rear. While her friends were eager to cheer her on, they gradually became aware of the spark slowly traveling up her hair and towards her scalp. The constant HISSSSSS that filled the air as the embers drew towards their end was enough to convince the women to make their escape. For Quinn, she was too caught up in the thrill of smashing things to notice the fuse becoming shorter and shorter.

A loud BOOOOOM echoed out of the room and shook its walls. Peeking their heads back into the room, the women spotted Quinn laying on the floor. Picking herself up on shaky arms, the bomb girl gave an appreciative slap to her still shaking rear. Heaving the monobutt up off the ground, she whipped around her regrown fuse as she called out for the staff to bring more things for her to break.

Writing Prompt 707

Prompt: A guy from the audience gets pulled into a magical girl stage show as a volunteer and turns into a curvy magical girl in a big frilly dress to help defeat the villain.

Getting lost on his way to find the food court, Mack ended up getting pulled into one of the park's stage shows. Stumbling backstage, his questions were left unanswered as he was handed a blindingly pink Transforma patch. Getting caught up in the rush of not wanting to be late for showtime, he gave a shrug of his shoulders and placed the sticker on his neck.

A tingling sensation speeding out from the patch changed it into a bright, pink bow that wrapped itself around him like a collar. The new accessory's appearance took a backseat as he developed a pair of luscious breasts that bulged out of his shirt. The feminine squeal that came from his puffy, pink lips was heard again and his buttocks became just as shapely. As his mid-section thinned to create an hourglass figure, his hair proofed up into a pair of bright puffs that resemble a set of pom poms.

Staggering around on more slender legs, Mack could feel that a certain something had gone missing from between his legs. Thin fingers shaking at his impending realization, he reached out for something to ground him in reality. What he ended up grabbing was a mess of pink frills hanging from a clothing rack. Staring at the outfit accompanying tiara and staff, made something clicked in his head. Feeling like he had found a missing part of himself, he eagerly hurried to get dressed.

In a flash of light, the newest incarnation of Transforma Girl leapt onto the stage. Wowing the audience with her beautiful figure and bright pink dress, she vowed to protect them from all evil. Right on cue, another recently created villainess clad in dark leather strode out to challenge the magical woman. Hearing the cheers from the audience power up her abilities, Transforma Girl wielded her staff as she dove in to protect justice and friendship at all costs.

Writing Prompt 708

Prompt: Svelte young woman gets a patch but gets distracted by a nut stand selling free nuts. The more she eats, the more she transforms into a fat, gruff old elephant man with a massive set of junk.

“Free nuts to try out a new Tranforma patch!”

The cry for the word free was more than enough to get Pamela to approach the cart. Allowing the employee to place the grey patch across her nose, she eagerly accepted the bag of peanuts. As she chewed through the salty snack, she began to wonder why no one else was taking the free sample.

As Pamela mindlessly chewed on the nuts, she failed to notice the way her body was rapidly putting on bulk. Growing a sizable potbelly lifted up her shirt to reveal the grey skin underneath. The rest of her top was popped off thanks to her bosom increasing in girth at the cost of their shapeliness. The sudden exposure of her dark grey nipples meant little to her as she flapped her wide ears and stared picking out nuts from the bag with her elongated trunk.

Around the time Pamela surpassed eight feet in height, her shorts finally hit their breaking point. From a combination of her wide hips and tail, the fabric was easily torn apart. While her panties remained to be strained by the stomps of her flat feet, their true trial came in the form of the bulge growing out from her crotch. Once her undergarments were fully ripped apart, the sound managed to draw the attention of one of the other park goers.

"Woah, dude," he said, unable to stop himself from gawking at the obese elephant man's impressive cock and swollen testicles. "Those are some pretty nice nuts."

"I know right?" Pamela replied, ignoring her gruffer, deep voice in favor of eating another handful of nuts. "You want some?"

Writing Prompt 709

Prompt: A rather rude woman makes some remarks about a clown as she walks through an amazement park. The clown does not take these remarks well, causing him to make the woman's body inflate until she's a giant, round balloon.

At any other park, the presence of a visitor like Karissa would be met with groans and hushed whispers. However, the sound of the woman loudly complaining about how much she despised clowns, earned his undivided attention. When she inevitably approached to file a complaint in an effort to get him fired, he took his chance.

The park was once more blessed with sweets silence at the bright red Transforma Patch was placed over Karissa's mouth. With her rage hitting a peak, the blonde pulled and tugged at the sticker to try and get it off. Over her muffled insults she failed to notice the hissing noise coming from nearby. Nor did she realize her designer top was rising up under the influence of her swelling belly.

Karissa's constant attempts halted as her arms began to sink into her swelling from. As more of her body was inflated, her tight flesh shifted into a rubbery material to better accommodate her growth. Waddling around as her clothes were ripped off by her expanding breasts and buttocks, she waddled towards the clown to force out an apology.

A scream muffled up against the rude woman's patch as her sunken in feet lifted up from the ground. With the toss of a rope, the clown managed to catch her hand and keep her from flying off. Grinning at the newly made balloon woman, he skipped down the main street to show off to the entire park what became of poorly behaved guests.

Writing Prompt 710

Prompt: While exploring a section of the park called gummy bear grove, two women find themselves transformed into big fat gummy bears.

Getting caught up in the overall eagerness of their fellow guests, Olivia and Hari pranced through the Sweets Sanctuary section of Transforma Park. While everyone else was busying gorging themselves on the chocolate rivers or getting stretched like taffy, the couple women had another location in mind. Tightly clasping their hands together to keep their anxiety in check, they strode proudly forth into Gummy Bear Grove.

As their eyes went wide at the varied selection of sweet, ursine-shaped treats around them, the pair were faced with the dilemma of which ones to choose. Olivia was the first to act, snatching up a red gummy before sticking the Transforma Patch on her belly to lock in her choice. Not wanting to be left behind, Hari copied her girlfriend's actions, this time taking a golden bear for herself. As they chewed on their choice of sweets, they kept their gazes locked one another until they saw their ears begin to shift toward the tops of their heads.

The sigh of their ears becoming rounder and squishier was only given a moment of attention before they looked towards their extending snouts. Their altered faces were nothing compared to the abundance of gelatinous, blubbery sweetness that enveloped their forms in the color of their chosen candy. Awkwardly ripping through their clothes with their paw-like hands, they were able to fully unveil their bulbous bellies to one another. Aside from their engorged breasts and buttocks, they had become just like the gummy bears surrounding them. And just like the candies, they were eager to have a taste.

Crashing into one another with the sound of a loud smack, Olivia and Hari wasted little time giving playful nibbles to each other's bodies. Rubbing against them with the flavors of cherry and pineapple treating them at every turn, they didn't care who would come across their squishy bodies slapping against one another. The pair of plump gummy bear women wouldn't mind adding some extra flavors to their indulgence.

Writing Prompt 711

Prompt: A young woman was in a prehistoric theme attraction admiring the tribal primitive exhibits. Stumbling upon a caveman wall drawing, her patch turns her into a huge dumb nude primitive cave woman with thick natural pubic and butt-crack hair on display.

Stepping through the massive gates, Ethel saw that Prehistoric Paradise was living up to its name. All around her she could see other parkgoers enjoying the benefits of transforming into various dinosaurs and other long-extinct creatures. As appealing as becoming a massive beast was, Ethel had tried it before. Now, she wanted to experience something that far fewer guests had attempted.

Ethel found what she was looking for as she stumbled upon an out of the way cave. Following paths of crude drawings along the stone walls, she saw a shelf holding out a collection of Tranforma patches. Taking the sticker in hand and confirming the humanoid shape on it, she steeled her resolve slapped it on her forehead.

The patch's durability was immediately tested as her forehead widened to match her jutting chin. The added mass on her face sent her IQ spiraling downwards until she was left with only base instincts. This lowered intelligence was made up for as her body swelling with hulking muscles that tore apart her clothes. Growing twice as wide and just as tall, she didn't have any hope of obscuring the thick trail of black pubic hair that reached down her impressive chest towards her nether region. However, she couldn't care less.

Mindlessly scratching at her crotch with her meaty fingers, the cavewoman stomped her way out of the cave. Stepping out into the public, she gave little worry to whoever saw the thick patches of hair covering her thick rear and up her bulky back. All she could focus on was a man who looked very interested in her current state. With a simplistic grin, she loomed over him and spoke, “me want fuck. You join in cave.”

Seeing an eager nod in response, Ethel easily grabbed the man by his torso to carry him off. Hoisting her partner on top of her broadened shoulders allowed her to use her knuckles to properly return to her cave. Eager to get her tribe up and running, the cave woman continued on to find the perfect spot for mating.

Writing Prompt 712

Prompt: A group of men and women put on their patches to participate in an anthro bovine orgy, but they put on the wrong ones. The men become fat milky cows and the women become hung muscular bulls.

Upon realizing his dire mistake, Tony sprinted as fast as his legs would carry him towards one of Tranforma Park's privately reserved areas. While it was easy to find the barn, the door had already been locked from the inside. Unsure if anyone could hear him over the ruckus, he quickly climbed a ladder to access the second floor.

Tumbling through the window to get on the upper level, Tony felt his heart sink as he watched the park guests place the Transforma patches on their bodies. To the men and women below, they thought of the stickers as little more than a way to enhance their upcoming orgy. As the patches were passed out and placed, Tony realized it was too late to call out his fatal mistake of mislabeling the patches.

A cacophony of MOOs echoed throughout the structure as the guests began to change. They all shared common traits such as hooves feet to go along with their newly grown tails. As they developed bovine snouts, they eagerly waited the accountants to show. Unfortunately for Tony, that didn't take very long.

The men who had been expecting to see their abs turn into tight six packs were left awestruck as they were instead burdened with doughy belly to go along with their heavy udders. The missing muscles were found swelling up the size of the women to go along with their curved horns and sizable cocks. While they all were given enhanced chests, the males were given heaving bosoms while the females developed swelled up pecs. As everyone took on varying shades of thin fur, the final result was the wrong people being turned into overly plump cow women and muscular bull men.

Unable to look too long at the confused faces below, Tony tucked his head between his knees as he tried to think of what his boss would say. His worst fears were interrupted moments later by a cacophony of moans and MOOs. Looking back towards the floor level, he witnessed the orgy proceeding as planned, regardless of the swapped genders. Seeing the mix of bovine people fully enjoying their new bodies, he hazarded to entertain the idea of getting a raise for coming up with a new kind of experience for the park.
