WE'VE STUMBLED 'PON A CAVE...

ARR, 'TIS TOO DARK TO PASS THROUGH...

PUDDLES KNOWS EXACTLY WHAT TO DO!

IT'S IN HERE SOMEWHERE...

QUACK!

the GRANDIOSE TALES of CPT. STUFFY

THANK YOU

Because of you, this wonderful story could be told. What started as a small side project has blossomed into its own proper title with very lovable and memorable characters full of charm, wit, and wholesomeness.

Without your dedication, passion, and talent, Cpt. Stuffy would have never met Puddles or set sail on their first-ever adventure. Where they go next is anyone's guess, but we are all incredibly grateful for you and all that you've done to make this possible.

We hope you'll enjoy this special copy of The Grandiose Tales of Cpt. Stuffy and will keep it to remember your experience in bringing these characters to life over the years.

With love,
Trixel Creative
