Discreen Vision

LESSON 1: Classic style

Let us draw a short character.

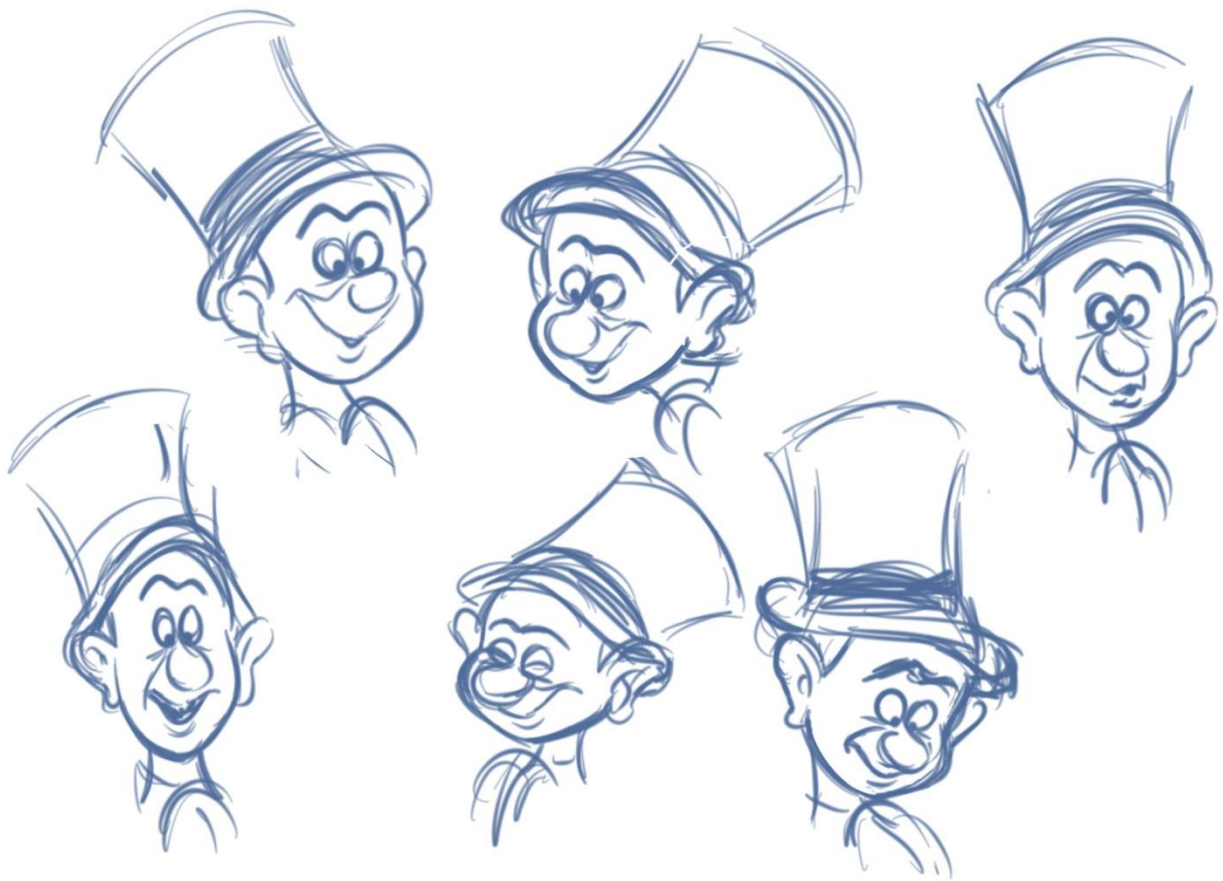

His name is Bobo.

Some people sketch on the computer, some sketch on paper. Some people use blue or red or black color for sketching.

You should choose the way you are comfortable with.

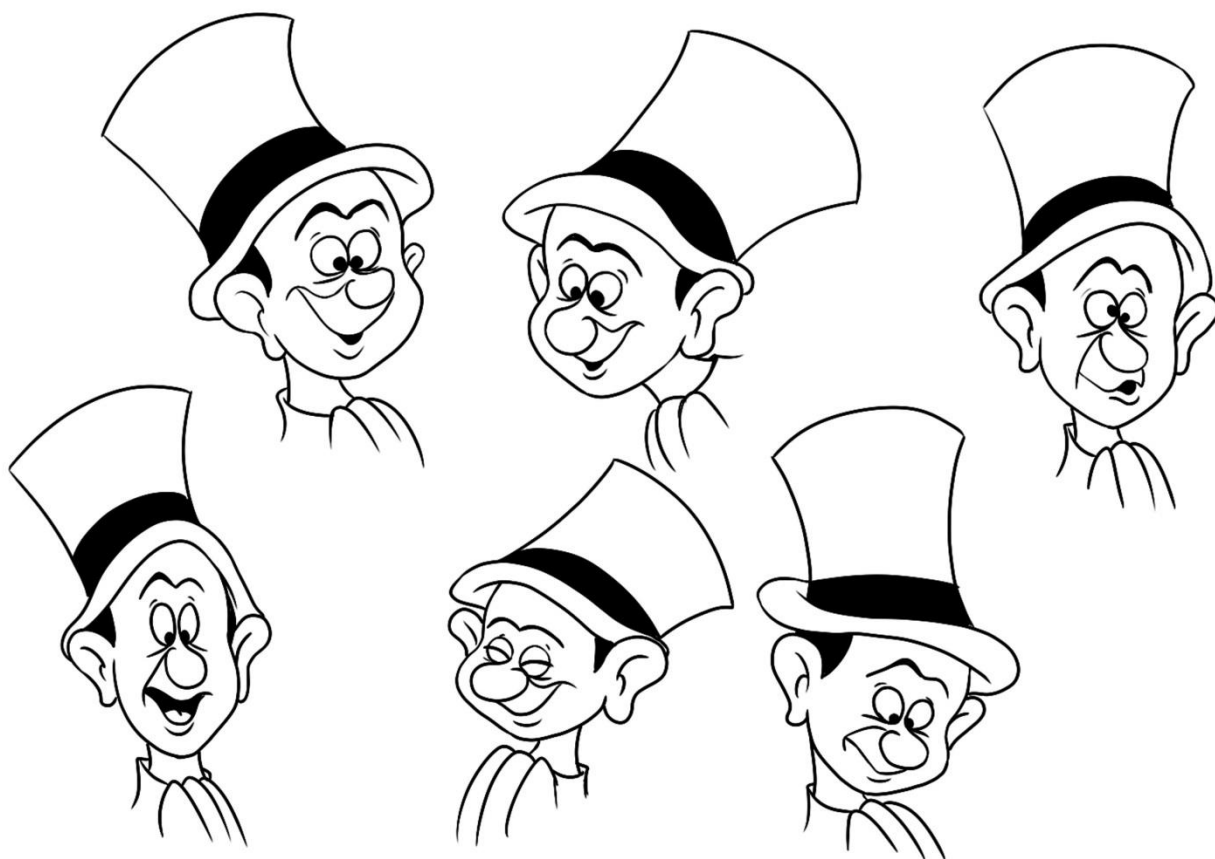

Discreen Vision

When I start on a new character, first I try to catch the feeling and personality of the „new creature“. I try to find the standard attitude of the character and figure out how he would react to different things. Sketching is just fun, a lot of lines appear and You really get the feeling of the character with those lazy lines.

Bobo is just a funny guy with an idiotic look on the face. But Bobo can be smart sometimes, he covers his feelings and his brain.

Discreen Vision

Making a lineart is not easy. You need to choose the way you draw lines for every single character. The sketches always look good, but making the lineart will make your characters really appear as he is.

Bobo has a big nose and big rounded eyes. His chin is not really pointy but we need to indicate it in different angles.

Discreen Vision

You might think coloring is an easy step, but be carefull!Choosing strange colors will ruin your character's personality!

Bobo has a green hat with a brown jacket. A red tissue is before his neck. He uses this tissue to clean stuff maybe and the hat never falls from his head.I think he has no much hair under the hat.

LESSON 2:

Drawing hentai
Storybook character:
Stepmother Ayumi

Discreen Vision

By sketching I think of Ayumi's personality.
She is calm and beautiful,
a bit sad.
But the most important thing is:
She has big boobs. She is a milf type stepmother.

She has small nipples,
pointy chin, small mouth
and sad eyes.

Discreen Vision

I really like the way anime
and manga characters are drawn.

You can make thick
and thin lines and indicate shadows as well with the same lines.

When Ayumi is angry, she is still calm and tells the
problem to the hero directly .

Discreen Vision

By finishing the drawing
i add colors and shadows to the milf and put bright lines in her hair but only on top!

I like the old
anime-manga style
the most.

Now open a new canvas or take a piece
of paper and start
drawing with your heart and brain!
