ABOUT IT"

Okay so I have to type kind of a lot of text to make this look believable. Tell me in the comments if you read this part. Mention something about cabbage prices so I know you saw this. Just to confuse the other people who read the comments but don't bother to read the stupid little text like this. I have no idea if this is even legible at this stage lmao. Anyways, my favorite superhero is The Flash. It bums me out that nobody writes him correctly anymore. He's supposed to be a smart guy whose head is in the place of his heart. His passions drive his motives, but his mind keeps his emotions in check. He's a font of information and a great improviser. He needs to be when he has to deal with sentient tidal waves coming off a Great Lake or a psychic gorilla who hates humans. Unfortunately nobody wants to write stories about that guy anymore. Now he's just a goofy jokester because his kid sidekick got as popular as he was. He's been flanderized and it's sad to see. Anyways, just wanted to get that off my chest. I hope you have a lovely rest of your day.
