

Nick and Beth Get Big

By Joyce Julep

Part 1

Nick and Beth both loved each other, and they had been together for 4 long, happy years. They were thrilled that they had managed to find each other and start a wonderful relationship, but the two of them had a problem...a problem that didn't seem so big at first, but that gradually increased until neither of them could stand it anymore. Both of them were incredibly short. Nick stood at a measly 4'11, with blond hair and average body size to go along with his way-shorter-than-average stature. For her part, Beth was actually one inch shorter — she only stood at 4'10, but unlike Nick, her body was not average size by any means. She sported incredibly buxom f-cup breasts that bounced and jiggled mightily at the slightest motion.

Nick loved Beth's huge breasts, and Beth was proud of them, but this was small consolation to the two lovers. They were far too short to feel like they had any clout around their friends, Tyler and Ashley. Just as Nick and Beth were way shorter than average, so too were Tyler and Ashley much, much taller than average. Tyler stood at an imposing 6'6, with dark hair, and a good athletic build, fit for a basketball player. He was in a relationship with Ashley, the lead cheerleader at school. Ashley stood at a statuesque 6'3, an entire 17 inches taller than the comparatively diminutive Beth, and to top it off, Ashley had big, busty breasts herself, sporting impressive d-cup mammaries. Ashley's voluptuousness applied to her entire body in general, since she had a strong, curvy athletic build, bigger than average for a cheerleader, and especially the head cheerleader.

Nick and Beth were friends with Tyler and Ashley, and the four of them would often hang out together. During their hang-outs, it was normal for Tyler and Ashley to pick on Nick and Beth, comparing their heights with theirs and mocking their tiny limbs in comparison with their own. In the past, both Nick and Beth had been able to just laugh off these mild teases and insults as the playful chidings of friends. However, recently, Tyler and Ashley's insults had become more pointed and mean, and both Nick and Beth found themselves actually feeling belittled and bullied by their two enormous friends. One day, as Tyler and Nick had been talking, Tyler had interrupted Nick in the middle of his sentence and laughed down at him:

"Haha, oh my god Nick, I can't believe how short you are compared to me! How's the weather down there, haha?"

Nick had attempted to make a reply, but he hadn't really been able to manage anything, and had simply hung his head in shame, stung by Tyler's insult. It was especially hard for Nick because there wasn't anything he could really say to counter Tyler's observation — he really was that short!

On the same token, when Beth and Ashley had been talking nearby, and had both stood up to rejoin their boyfriends, Beth had accidentally bumped into Ashley's enormous butt — Ashley was so tall that her ass was actually bumping straight into Beth's enormous f-cup rack. But Ashley was so much bigger and taller than Beth that even this simple contact made Beth stumble backwards. Ashley had turned around, and looked down at Beth, cracking a grin as she spoke in a mocking voice:

“Woah! Watch out there, short stuff, haha!”

Just like Nick had been with Tyler, Beth opened her mouth to reply, but found that there was nothing that she could really say to counter Ashley’s put-down. The evidence was plain to see, and if to underline the point further, Ashley put her hands on her hips as she stared down at her tiny friend, looming over her like a cloud as she continued to smile down on her derisively.

“Haha, no reply, huh?” Ashley said, continuing in her mocking tone. “Wow, yeah, I don’t know what I would do if I was as short as you! I mean, haha, look at you! When we’re both standing up next to each other, your head barely even comes up to my breasts! You’re a shrimp!”

Beth had bowed her head in shame, just like Nick was doing at the same time. The girls rejoined their boyfriends, and Ashley was the first to point out how the two short lovers were out of her and Tyler’s league.

“Haha, you know Tyler,” she giggled, going over to him and throwing her long arms around his strong, chiseled neck, “I never really realized how tiny our two little friends are here. Haha, other people probably think that little Nick and tiny Beth here are our children or something!”

“Ha! You’ve got that right, babe,” laughed Tyler, leaning over and slightly down to kiss his massive girlfriend on her cheek. “I mean, look at this, Ashley! Look at what happens when I flex next to weak little Nick over here!”

“P-please don’t, Tyler,” Nick started to plead, but Tyler didn’t pay him any heed. He walked over to his short friend and struck a muscular pose, flexing his bulging biceps as he stood next to Nick, laughing at the ridiculous size comparison.

“Haha, oh my god!” cried Ashley, laughing loudly. “It’s like a god standing next to a mere mortal! Haha, wow, Nick, it’s difficult to imagine that you two are actually the same species!” She turned to look down at Beth. “Don’t you agree, Beth? Doesn’t my boyfriend look so much bigger and stronger, so much hotter, so much better than yours?”

Beth didn’t answer and just hung her head, once again unable to utter a response. Ashley straightened up and laughed again, holding her stomach.

“Haha, it figures! The tiny, weak girl belongs with the tiny, weak boy, and the big, tall, strong, handsome man belongs with the tall, hot, blond, busty cheerleader! Hahahaha!”

Both Tyler and Ashley continued to mock the small couple mercilessly for the rest of the day, and by the end of it all, Nick and Beth had had enough. They had to do something.

Being a book nerd, Beth went to the library the next day, in order to research ways that she and Nick could grow and get back at Tyler and Ashley. They both wanted to grow so much bigger than them both, and mock and tease them in the same way, just to get back at them, just to show them how it felt to be the small ones for a change. During her library visit, Beth actually managed to stumble on a book called the “Malleus Maleficarum,” an old handbook on witchcraft, that contained a spell to make someone bigger. Her heart had jumped into her mouth when she saw the spell, which was simple enough to utter. Here it was at last! A solution to their suffering!

But very quickly, Beth drew back, feeling a dark cloud pass over her mind. What was she thinking!? This was a magic spell that she was talking about — magic wasn't real, surely! Right!? And besides, even if it was real, there was no way that growing bigger could be anywhere near as simple as just saying a spell and hoping for the best. What if the magic went wrong somehow? What if it caused people to grow uncontrollably? Beth didn't really know the answers to any of these questions, but all she did know was that she was so desperate for some way out of the constant teasing, some way out of her and Nick's awful height curse, that she was ready to try just about anything...even if it was some old spell in some dusty book that she had found sitting idle on the library shelves.

Beth checked the book out and brought it back to her house, where Nick lived too.

"Honey, I found a special book at the library!" she called out when she came in through the front door.

"Oh?" asked Nick, his interest piqued.

"Yes! It's an old book that contains a growth spell!" said Beth excitedly. "It's easy to perform and we don't have to worry about getting any special materials or anything — all we have to do is say the spell."

"A spell, huh?" asked Nick, stroking his chin. "Hmmm, I don't know, Beth. I don't know if I believe in all that magic stuff."

"Well I don't know if I believe it either," said Beth, putting her things down and taking the book out of her purse. "But, I mean, what choice do we have now, Nick? We're grasping at straws now — we're at the end of our rope. We need to try and do something to stop them from teasing us!"

"I know!" agreed Nick, nodding his head. "But, like...what happens if it actually does work and something goes wrong? What then?"

"I was wondering the same thing," said Beth, opening the book to the page with the spell on it. "But again — I say we try it anyway. The alternative is that we just accept that we're gonna be weak little shorties our whole lives, and totally at the mercy of our huge, superior friends who will just keep teasing us and teasing us until they've lost all respect for who we are as people."

"Well, I don't know," sighed Nick, shaking his head. "It kinda freaks me out, all the magic stuff. I appreciate the effort, Beth, but I'm just too worried about stuff going wrong."

He moved toward the front door, as if to leave.

"W-where are you going?" asked Beth, crestfallen that her boyfriend wasn't on board with her.

"Aww, babe, don't worry!" said Nick, realizing how sad Beth looked. "It's gonna be ok — we'll think of something, I promise! And I have to head out for a few minutes to run a quick errand. But don't worry — I'll be back in a few minutes!"

He went out and closed the door, and Beth was left alone with her book. She huffed to herself in exasperation and impatience, and hated that she could begin to feel the pangs of tears behind her eyes.

“Try it now!” said a voice in Beth’s head. Should she? She looked down at the book. The spell was just sitting out right there, as plain as day, waiting to be spoken. And, right then and there, at the height of her desperation, Beth decided to perform the spell. Her heart was beating fast in her chest as she prepared to read the spell out loud.

“Ready?” she said to herself out loud. She was nervous and scared, and wished that she wasn’t doing this alone, but her desperation to grow bigger overcame everything else.

“Ego deos rogabis, et humilem corde et pura mente, ad crescere maior, maior, maior!”

Beth said the ancient Latin spell loudly and clearly, and her voice echoed against the 12-foot high ceiling of their home. She stood there stock-still for a few moments, her skin tingling with anticipation at the promise of getting bigger. But nothing happened. An entire minute went by, and there was absolutely no change to speak of whatsoever.

“Crap, I don’t think it worked,” said Beth to herself sadly, hanging her head. She stood there silently for a few awful moments, feeling the negativity pool inside her.

“But...but something has to work!” said Beth angrily, feeling hot tears start to pool in the corners of her eyes. Her desperation was now boiling over. With a fiery, red-hot, and passionate burst of energy, she suddenly chanted out the spell again, this time louder, bolder, with more anger, force, and feeling in her voice:

“Ego deos rogabis, et humilem corde et pura mente, ad crescere maior, maior, maior!!!!!!”

Almost immediately, Beth gave a little shout because she was starting to actually feel something! It started as a tingling in the middle of her bones that spread all throughout her skeleton, and then seemingly flowed into her muscles and her skin. It was not at all an unpleasant sensation, and Beth uttered a high-pitched and excited squeal when she realized that the table that the book was on, formerly level with her chest, was starting to get lower and lower on her body. She was growing!!

She looked up in thrilled joy, her mouth hanging completely open in shocked surprise.

Beth's entire body was lengthening and swelling in size, and all throughout her limbs, neck, torso, and every other part of her body, she could feel the warm tingling sensations of the steady growth. She could feel the bones in her arms and legs lengthening, and she looked down in excitement to see that, as her limbs got longer, they got fleshier too. She wasn’t just growing taller — she was getting curvier too! Beth let out another whoop of pleasure as she threw her head back, delighting in the feeling of her spine and neck getting longer and longer. She looked back down and held up her hands to her face, and she saw that they too were growing bigger, wider, and longer. She could even see her fingers getting longer and thicker in real time — it was quite extraordinary!

Beth was growing so steadily that, before she had even realized it, she had shot up past 6 feet tall, all the way to 7 feet! By now, she was a whole 9 inches taller than Ashley! Beth would have been happy if the growth had stopped here, but it didn't! She just kept growing up and up and up, getting bigger and bigger all around with each passing moment. Her hips and breasts, which had already been larger than average to begin with, got bigger still, and her breasts expanded to such a size that Beth could not have believed possible. But through the growth process, her body remained proportional. Everything about her, even her feet and toes, were growing at the same rate, and getting larger and larger as the seconds went by. She grew up to 8 feet, then 9, and then 10! And still, she did not stop growing! And even though Beth was transported by the thrill of the spell actually working, she began to worry that she would grow too big for her house. She made a move to go walk out the front door, just in case she grew so much that she busted through the ceiling.

However, right then, right when the top of her head began to graze the ceiling, Beth stopped growing. She stood there for a few moments, feeling breathless. Yes...it was true — she had stopped growing, seemingly at the perfect height for her house, too! She stood up straight to get a good idea of how she measured up compared to her ceiling, and was elated to discover that the very top of her head was indeed grazing the ceiling. That meant that she had grown, from a tiny, minuscule 4'10, all the way up to a whopping, amazonian 12 feet tall!! Beth's body was still warm and tingling with the pleasant after-effects of the growth.

The sound of the front door knob being turned startled her out of her blissful growth reverie. Nick was coming back home from running his errand. The whole growth process had only taken a few minutes — he had no idea what had happened! Beth immediately ran into a different room, trying in vain to think of places that she could hide. She wanted to surprise Nick with her new stature, but, at a gigantic 12 feet tall, her options for hiding places were limited.

"I'm back, honey!" called Nick as he closed the front door behind him.

"Oh...ok!" called Beth from the other room. Her voice was still the same — Nick wouldn't be able to tell from her speech that anything had changed.

"I've gotta use the restroom real quick," said Nick, and he promptly went into their bedroom to use the bathroom in the master suite. Beth smiled to herself.

'Perfect!' she thought. 'I can sneak up on him now!' Taking special care not to creak the floorboards too hard, she snuck into their bedroom and up to the closed bathroom door. Even though she was trying not to make too much noise, Beth couldn't help but make the floorboards groan and screech with her newly-acquired hulking weight.

"Uh, honey, what's that sound?" came Nick's voice from behind the closed door.

"Huh?" Beth asked, feigning ignorance. "What sound?"

"Uh...that sound just now...it sounded like the floorboards were creaking really loudly," said Nick.

"Hmmm...I didn't hear anything," lied Beth, standing close to the bathroom door.

“Strange,” said Nick. “Maybe I’m imagining things...oh well.” A minute later, he opened the door and gasped. Standing there with her hands on her hips, staring down at him sexily with a broad smile, was the giant form of his girlfriend.

“B-b-beth!!” he cried, his body frozen in place as his mouth hung wide open. “Y-you’re...you’re gigantic!”

“Haha, yep!” she laughed, thrusting her hips forward proudly. Standing like this, the top of Nick’s head only came up to Beth’s knees. She was absolutely gargantuan, and dwarfed him in every possible way.

“S-so...so the spell worked, then!?” he managed to say.

“It sure did!” said Beth happily. “I chanted it a couple times, just to try it, when you were out, and lo and behold, it actually worked!!”

“That’s...this...this is just so amazing!” Nick sputtered. “I can’t believe it, Beth! You’re like an actual giantess now!”

“Well, a mini-giantess, anyway!” she laughed. “Here, let me do the spell again — now that we know it works, I want to do it to you too!”

Beth chanted the same spell again, in the same loud, fiery, and passionate voice that she had said it in the second time, and it started working again! Now Nick was the one who was growing! Within a couple minutes, he had reached Beth’s height of 12 feet! And, in the same way that Beth had become an incredibly buxom, curvaceous, and voluptuous mini-giantess, Ben was now an awesomely-muscled hunk, a total specimen of mini-giant masculinity. His muscles rippled impressively, and he gave a great shout of pleasure as he reached up and flexed his arms for his giantess girlfriend.

“Woowwww, look at you!” said Beth sexily, making no secret of her intense attraction to this new and improved version of her boyfriend. “You’re such a stud now, Nick! You’re like a Greek god or something, haha!”

“Haha, look at you!” he replied in kind. “You look like a total goddess, babe!”

“Welllll,” Beth said sultrily, creaking the floorboards as she walked up to her massive boyfriend, “Why don’t we re-consummate our relationship? Let’s fuck like only gods and goddesses can, haha!”

“You don’t have to twist my arm about that!” said Nick excitedly. Without further ado, the enormous duo proceeded to have the most intense, vehement, and passionate sex of their lives. Within seconds they had torn off each other’s clothes and had fallen onto their bed, which struggled to bear the weight of their two titanic bodies. Beth’s pussy was already dripping with arousal, and it was so big now that she could actually see it steaming — that’s how aroused she was! For his part, Nick’s cock had become so engorged and rock-hard from seeing his hot giantess girlfriend that he was now at full mast. Being a 12-foot tall giant now, his cock was totally erect at a full 20 inches! But Beth was not intimidated in the least by his length. Growling with pleasure, she immediately wrapped her hands around his giant cock and started to jack it off quickly, teasing the tip of it with her tongue.

“Ooooh shit!” moaned Nick passionately, twisting his head from side to side in pleasure. In doing so, he accidentally knocked over both lamps on both sides of the bed, but neither of them cared. They were too busy giving into their primal lust and pleasure.

“Oh, you like that, huh?” said Beth, her eyebrows going up and down seductively. “Well, how about this?” She suddenly took hold of the base of Nick’s massive cock and proceeded to shove it down her throat. Nick cried out in pleasure as Beth took his length into her throat, inch by inch. She had shoved a full 10 inches down, now 12, now 15! It was incredible! But she didn’t stop there — in her dizzying lust, Beth was determined to take the whole thing. She took a deep breath in through her nose, stared intensely into her lover’s eyes, and went for it. Her neck veins bulged as her head shook from the effort...17, 18, 19....and 20! Beth moaned loudly in pleasure and accomplishment as her nose and lips pressed into Nick’s stomach — she had taken his entire length down her throat! Nick could hardly believe it, and would have cum right then and there if he too wasn’t determined to give his partner the same kind of pleasure.

After Beth impaled herself a few more times down on Nick’s engorged shaft, he was ready to take her. He sat up abruptly in the bed and pivoted himself behind his huge girlfriend, encouraging her to get on her hands and knees. Nick proceeded to penetrate her steaming snatch from behind, thrusting into her forcefully again and again, as she screamed out loudly in pleasure. Their house was filled with the loud sounds of their flesh smacking together, and the persistent, impassioned exclamations of pleasure that accompanied each lusty thrust. For hours, they made love, trying every imaginable sexual position, and, after it was all over, they had each cum more times than they could count. They lay next to each other on the ruined pieces of their bed, which they had long since broken in the passion of their lovemaking. Their incredible bodies were each shining with sweat, and they were both breathing hard, exhausted but happy. They turned to look at each other, and they didn’t have to speak any words to know exactly what they were thinking: this was exactly what they had both been waiting for, for a long, long time.

The next day, both Beth and Nick were out to get revenge on Tyler and Ashley...the former bigger couple. Beth made sure to arrive at her usual meeting place with Ashley a little later than usual, so that Ashley wouldn’t see them coming. As Beth walked down the street, she felt absolutely wonderful. The sun was shining, the birds were singing, and people were gawking at her huge form, pausing in their daily routines to turn open-mouthed and gape at the stunning mini-giantess. Beth stood up to her full height proudly, thrusting her shoulders back as she soaked up the attention.

‘Huh...wonder where shorty is?’ asked Ashley to herself a few minutes later. “Beth said she’d meet me at the park at 10. She’s usually on time.” She pondered quietly for a few moments.

‘Haha, well maybe it takes longer for her to get ready,’ she suddenly laughed to herself. ‘You know...with everything hard to reach and all? Still, though, Beth sounded pretty happy on the phone this morning. I wonder what’s got her in such a good mood?’ Ashley suddenly heard a cough behind her. She turned to look, and uttered a small scream, jumping back in shock. Standing before her was Beth in her 12-foot tall glory. Ashley’s mouth went totally dry, and she lost the ability to speak. She couldn’t believe that her once-tiny and petite friend had now grown into a mini-giantess, in the span of a single day! Of course, Ashley didn't know that Beth's growth had actually happened much quicker, but she didn't need to know that — all that was important right now was that, even though she was still 6'3, Ashley was now the short one...by a long shot. The top of her head didn't even come up to Beth's pussy! Ashley started shaking a little in fear, realizing that a single one of Beth's legs was bigger than her entire body.

"How's the weather down there, short stuff?" chuckled Beth, putting her hands on her hips as she cocked them to the side.

"B-b-beth..." choked Ashley, unable to say anything more.

"Huh?" came Beth's mocking voice as she put her hand to her ear. "What was that? You're so far down there that I can't hear you!"

"Y-you're...you're..." panted Ashley. "You're a giantess, Beth!"

"Haha, yes I am!" said Beth proudly, thrusting out her prodigious chest. "And you, Ashley, are an absolute midget now compared to me!" Beth made to walk past Ashley, but she accidentally ran into her softly. But even this soft contact was enough to send the 6'3 amazon wheeling backward, and she almost fell flat on her back.

"Ooops!" giggled Beth, craning her head to look over the massive rack of her boobs. "I couldn't see you down there, shorty! My boobs are too big! Haha, wow! It's amazing that you're actually standing right next to me, and I can't even see you! That's how small you are now, and how big I am, hahaha!" Beth proceeded to continue to tease Ashley mercilessly, and Ashley had absolutely no response.

Elsewhere, at the gym, the 6'6 Tyler was just finishing up a workout with a few of his similarly tall and ripped friends. Tyler was the tallest of them all, though, and the most muscular. He was the quintessential alpha male. Today, though, he was in store for a nasty shock.

"And, really, I don't know why Ashley and I even bother hanging out with the two of them," Tyler was telling his friends. "They're so short and small that it feels like we're talking to our inferiors. We should spend more time with you guys, you know? People who are actually adult-sized."

"Ummm....T-tyler!?" said one of his friends, with fear in his voice, pointing behind him.

"What?" asked Tyler. Turning around, he got his answer. Standing there before him, in all of his 12-foot-tall ripped, muscled grandeur, was none other than Nick. Tyler felt his mind go blank — this wasn't possible! How...how on earth could Nick have grown into a giant in one day!?

"Having some trouble speaking there, shorty?" chuckled Nick down at his former superior in height.

"I...I...I c-can't...I...I d-don't...how?" was all Tyler could manage to say.

"Haha, yeah, you seem to be having some trouble forming your words right now," laughed Nick. "And why shouldn't you? I mean, you're standing in front of someone who dwarfs you in every possible way!" To prove his point, Nick stood up as tall as he could and thrust out his heavily-muscled chest, flexing his thighs in the process. Tyler and his friends could only gape and gawk at the incredibly huge and muscled body before them — Nick looked godlike; there was no other way to describe him.

“Yeah, you may work out all the time, short stuff,” mocked Nick down at Tyler, “but you’re still smaller than one of my legs, haha!” He walked over and stood next to Tyler, showing his friends how the top of his head didn’t even reach the top of Nick’s chiseled thigh.

“Why don’t you flex your big bicep there for me, huh?” asked Nick. Not knowing what else to do, Tyler did as he was told. Nick laughed and bent down, flexing his own arm next to Tyler’s. The comparison was ridiculous — Tyler’s arm looked like an infant’s compared to Nick’s.

“Haha, look at that!” laughed Nick to Tyler’s friends. “Not so high and mighty now, is he? Compared to me, he’s totally puny!”

Seeing how his muscles now compared with Nick’s, Tyler was forced to admit that his former short friend was right. Compared to Nick now, he was small and puny. Tyler hung his head, totally humiliated, as Nick continued to tease and taunt him in front of his friends.

A little while later, Nick was walking home on the sidewalk, feeling like this had been the best day of his life. He couldn’t wait to get home and relate to Beth how he had put Tyler in his place, and to hear how she had put Ashley in hers. He smiled to himself as he walked up the path to their front door, and he paused a moment before going inside.

‘Wow,’ he thought to himself happily, ‘I’m actually not a shrimp anymore! I’m actually the opposite of a shrimp now, haha! Compared to everyone else, I’m absolutely gigantic! No one is ever gonna call me short again!’

The sound of someone clearing their throat suddenly issued behind him...except...it seemed to be coming from somewhere far above his head.

“Excuse me short stuff, could you please get out of the way — you’re blocking the door,” came a voice...Beth’s voice. Nick’s heart was hammering away in his chest as he turned around and... looked directly into his girlfriend’s pussy. Somehow, Beth had cast the spell on herself again and had grown even huger! Nick’s mouth immediately went dry and he looked up, trying to see his girlfriend’s face. All he could see, however, was the gigantic underside of her boobs, which cast a shadow completely over his body.

Beth chuckled amusedly from an unseen position far above him. “Haha!” she laughed, rippling the air with the sound of her voice. “It’s always good to be the big one! I might be a little nervous if I were you, shorty. All this extra growing has made me pretty horny — let’s see if you can handle me now!”

Part 2

Nick and Beth had grown so huge that they simply had to make some big changes in their lives. For one thing, they needed to buy a new house. The 12-foot roofs in their current house were just barely tall enough for the 12-foot tall Nick to fit, but for Beth, who now stood at an absolutely towering 24 feet, there was no way that she could possibly hope to fit into their house now. She didn't even bother trying — it was absurdly obvious that there was no fitting under her roof now! Some people would have been irritated or annoyed because they had been forced to change houses, but both Nick and Beth were far too happy that they had grown into massive giants and giantesses to care about their home predicament.

Fortunately, they also didn't mind too much, because both of them had been making good financial decisions for years, and had saved quite a large amount of money. It didn't take them long to find a huge new house, and Beth especially had fits of giggles as she looked down at the tiny real estate agent, a normal-size woman who could not believe that she was selling a house to a couple of actual giants. But they had the money, and the real estate agent was certainly not going to stand in their way, so, in a matter of days, Nick and Beth were happily settled in their new home, which had absolutely enormous ceilings that reached 30 feet tall.

Now that they were settled in their new home, both Nick and Beth were able to relax a little bit and enjoy each others' sizes. Nick positively loved being shorter than Beth, and he wasn't just "a little bit shorter" — even though he was a 12-foot giant, he was a full 12 feet shorter than his girlfriend, who loomed hugely over him. The top of Nick's head didn't even reach Beth's hips, and he had to stand on a step stool to even stand face to face with her pussy! Other men might have hated being so much smaller than their girlfriends, but Nick truly loved it. He couldn't get enough of watching Beth's huge ass bob and sway behind her as she walked around, how her thick, voluptuous hips shimmied and weaved sexily every step she took, and how her gigantic boobs bounced and weaved like massive orbs whenever she moved. He was mesmerized.

"Haha, like what you're seeing, short stuff?" chuckled Beth down to her boyfriend.

"Ohhhh yes," he said, smiling at her gentle chiding.

"Well come on, little guy," said Beth sexily as she lay down on their specially-made gigantic bed. "Why don't you show me what true appreciation looks like."

Nick wasted no time in joining Beth in the bed, and in about thirty seconds both of them were totally naked and making out. The loud sounds of their huge smacking lips filled the bedroom. Nick found himself overpowered by Beth's enormous mouth, lips, and tongue. He was huge in every way, but she was far huger, and she controlled his mouth with ease.

"Mmmm yeaahhhh," she moaned loudly. "Why don't you fuck me, big boy? Show me what that giant cock of yours can do!"

Nick obliged without hesitation. Beth got on her hands and knees as Nick knelt behind her, penetrating her dripping pussy from behind with his colossal cock. But even though Nick's bulging dick measured in at an unbelievably huge 20 inches, he couldn't help but think that Beth was hardly able to feel him. His fears were realized as he heard his girlfriend laughing at him.

“Hahaha mmmm I can hardly feel you back there, Mr. Big Stuff!” laughed. She turned to look at him from her hands-and-knees position, giving him a sparkingly sexy look. Nick couldn’t believe it! His cock was huge and thick, a full 20 inches, and yet Beth was having trouble feeling him! That’s how massive her ass and pussy were! But Nick was not about to surrender — he grabbed two handfuls of Beth’s fleshy hips and proceeded to fuck her with an intense and passionate gusto, exaggerating each hearty thrust of his giant cock into her drooling snatch. He made sure that she felt him — from the appreciative sound of Beth’s lusty moans, it sounded like Nick was successfully able to overcome his size disadvantage. For the next hour straight, the two giants fucked each other silly, each cumming multiple times, until their titanic bodies were shining with sweat.

A little while later, they lay next to each other in the bed, panting. It had been an incredible session of sex, and they couldn’t wait until they mustered up the energy to do it again. They turned and looked deeply into each others’ eyes, both of them completely head-over-heels in love with the other. They knew each others’ thoughts, and they gave each other a crafty smile. They were looking forward to their next date with the “tiny” 6’6 Tyler and his “midget” girlfriend, the 6’3 Ashley. The tables had truly turned.

Elsewhere, Tyler and Ashley were having a completely miserable time of it. Ever since they had found out that the formerly-tiny Beth and Nick had now grown into giant behemoths, the “tall” had not known what to do. They had gotten so used to being the big ones, the tall ones, the ones that always teased and talked down to their shorter smaller friends, that they were both now going through a full-fledged identity crisis. How on earth could Nick and Beth have grown so huge!? And in such a short amount of time!? It just boggled their imaginations completely — it didn’t even make any sense! Both Tyler and Ashley wished beyond hope that somehow all of this would turn out to be a bad dream...but neither of them woke up. They had to accept it; this was their reality now: a living nightmare.

Ashley in particular was feeling low by all of these strange happenings. She thought back to earlier that day, when she had gotten an especially nasty shock of a realization: Beth had grown even bigger, to 24 feet! The last time that Ashley saw her, Beth had “only” been 12 feet tall. That was intimidating enough for Ashley to deal with, but nothing could have prepared her for what had happened earlier that day.

She had been talking to a friend outside when suddenly, she felt the ground begin to shake.

THUMP* *THUMP *THUMP

Ashley felt fear building up in her heart as she turned her head. She let out a little scream — she was shocked to see that Beth had grown even bigger! And not just in height...Beth’s entire body was so voluptuous and curvy, so appetizing and delicious-looking, that for a moment Ashley’s vision swam before her eyes. It couldn’t be...it just...it just couldn’t be real!!

Beth was standing there with her hands on her thick, wide hips, looking down at her friend, who only a few days before had completely dwarfed her in every way. But the script had been flipped; it didn’t matter that Ashley was still a relatively statuesque 6’3. Next to the 24-foot Beth, Ashley didn’t even come up to her knees. In fact, she was no longer than Beth’s shinbone! Beth had a knowing, confident smile on her face. Clearly, she was enjoying this whole size comparison thing with Ashley, and she made a point to exaggeratedly lower her upper body down, just so that she could see her tiny friend below her. That's how massive Beth's breasts were now — she actually had to lean her entire upper body forward to see her tiny friend, even though Ashley was standing directly in front of her. Ashley felt truly dwarfed, and totally insignificant next to this behemoth of a giantess.

"Don't forget, short stuff," laughed Beth down to the trembling Ashley, "Nick and I have a date with you and your teeny tiny Tyler tonight. And, I've just gotta tell you, we're looking forward to it."

Without any more words or ceremony, and with a resounding laugh that filled Ashley with dread, Beth turned on her heels and stomped away, shaking the ground like an earthquake with each step. Ashley stared after her with her eyes and mouth wide open. She turned to speak to her friend again, but her friend had long since run away, terrified by the giantess. Ashley didn't know what to do and, shoulders slumping, she set off walking down the sidewalk, her mind going to dark places. She was tired of being short compared to Beth...it hadn't even been a week and...and she was just so...so sick of it already. This wasn't what she, Ashley, was! She didn't get bullied by bigger people! She WAS ALWAYS the bigger person! And now Beth had found some kind of magic spell and just...just ruined everything.

Suddenly, Ashley stopped walking. The magic spell! She remembered that Beth had been looking for magical ways to get taller in the books of the local library. Clearly, she had found what she was looking for. Ashley stood up tall, taking a deep breath. The library was only a few blocks away...she felt herself hardening on the inside with fiery zeal and fierce determination. If Beth could do it, so could she! If Beth could find a magical growth spell in some old book, so could Ashley! She set her jaw tightly in determination and set off down the sidewalk, heading straight for the library.

Just a little while later, Ashley was practically skipping down the sidewalk, an old musty book under her arm. She had found it! She had found another spell! She was so proud of herself — Ashley was not generally a bookish type of person, but the drive to grow taller overcame any trepidation she had in going into the library and immersing herself in books. She was surprised that it hadn't taken long...how did more people not know about these spells?

'Well, whatever, it's their loss that they don't!' thought Ashley to herself as she skipped and bounced down the sidewalk excitedly on her toes. She couldn't wait to get back home and show Tyler what she had found. It was an old spell in some strange foreign language that was supposed to actually make the enchanter BIGGER than Nick and Beth! Ashley thought that she was reading the spell wrong, and that she had made a mistake, but the old text spelled it out clearly in English in the margins to the actual spell: it was supposed to make the magician as tall as 50 feet! That was over twice as tall as Beth! Ashley felt herself warming all over as she imagined Beth being smaller than her own shinbone, despite being 24 feet tall. She simply couldn't wait to get home and try it with Tyler.

But just like Nick had been when Beth had discovered the spell, Tyler was initially a little skeptical about what Ashley was saying.

"I mean...that's great and all, Ash," he said cautiously, after she had told him about finding the spell, "but how do we know it, like...works?"

“Well, it worked for Beth and Nick, didn’t it?” said Ashley immediately.

“Yeah, but...but what if it, uh...what if THIS spell somehow doesn’t work? Or, like, it works the opposite way?”

“Haha, don’t be silly, Tyler!” said Ashley. “Come on, it’ll work! It know it! I can feel it! But I don’t wanna do it without you! Come on! Don’t you wanna get some revenge on Nick and Beth for talking down to us? Doesn’t that sound nice to you?”

Tyler seemed lost in thought for a moment, but after a few seconds, a broad smile crept slowly across his face.

“Yeah,” he said, smiling as he nodded his head. “That DOES sound nice, Ashley. Those two have abused their privilege of being tall for far too long. WE’RE the real tall ones here!”

“That’s the spirit!” said Ashley enthusiastically.

“Well then, let’s do it!” said Tyler, clapping his hands. “Where should we try it out?”

“Ooooo, let’s do it now!” said Ashley. “And then we can get to the park first, before those two gigantic buffoons show up, just so we can really show them what a big couple REALLY looks like.”

“I love it,” laughed Tyler, nodding his head in assent.

“Ok, so, just to make sure we get it right, let’s practice reading the spell a few times to ourselves before we say it aloud,” said Ashley, opening the book to the page of the spell. They both leaned in and breathed in the old musty smell of the book as they read the words of the spell in Latin: Hoc enim carmen ita crescunt alta, sed est aliquid magni momenti ad recolendum gratissimam: Cogitationes cordis in malum non potes habere, aliud autem non sumus subtractionis filii tui, et avertet spell!

They chanted these words in their heads a few times before looking at each other with wide eyes, their breathing labored, as they geared themselves up for the big moment.

“Ok, stud,” said Ashley with a wide smile. “Ready to grow gigantic?”

“I’m ready, gorgeous,” said Tyler with a wide smile of his own. Together, they took a deep breath and uttered the words, loudly and clearly, making sure to pronounce each word as crisply and cleanly as they could. Their voices rang out in tandem as they spoke the ancient language: “Hoc enim carmen ita crescunt alta, sed est aliquid magni momenti ad recolendum gratissimam: Cogitationes cordis in malum non potes habere, aliud autem non sumus subtractionis filii tui, et avertet spell!”

They stopped chanting at exactly the same time, and both of them looked at each other with wide expectant eyes. In both of their minds, they pictured themselves getting huge, with Ashley envisioning herself as a buxom, voluptuous giantess with huge breasts, a huge butt, and wide, thick hips, many times wider and thicker than Beth’s. For his part, Tyler was imagining himself as a huge, hulking giant, with rippling, bulging muscles, that put Nick’s flexing to shame.

A few seconds later, however, it suddenly dawned on both of them that they were not growing at all. Even worse, their worst nightmare was coming true: both of them were shrinking! They had gotten greedy in their desire to humiliate their friends with their height that they had not even bothered to get a Latin-to-English dictionary to translate what the spell actually said. If they had known, then they would have never said the spell. For the Latin said: "This is a spell that will help you grow tall, but there is something important to recall: You cannot have bad thoughts in your heart, or else the spell will reverse and shrink you!"

But it was too late now. The damage had been done, and there was no going back. Tyler and Ashley looked at each other in horror as they continued to shrink, down, down, and down farther still, until Tyler stood at a measly 4'11 and Ashley stood an inch shorter, at 4'10. Both of them moaned in agony, putting their faces in their hands as they cried bitter tears. Now they were the same sizes that Nick and Beth had been before all of this growth and shrinking mess! Both of them couldn't believe what had just happened, and they could think of nothing more to do than to simply trudge sadly to the park to meet their giant friends. Anything would be better than hiding out in their home, where everything was now far too big for them. Besides, both Ashley and Tyler knew that if they were no-shows for their date, then their giant friends would just come find them and heap further scorn upon them. They walked sadly down the sidewalk towards their fate.

Tyler and Ashley got to the park first, and with difficulty, jumped up on the park benches to sit. As they sat there waiting for their giant friends, their legs swung freely below the bench — that's how short both of them had become!

Soon, the ground began to shake:

THUMP THUMP* THUMP THUMP

Both Tyler and Ashley had a wave of anxiety as they turned to see Nick approaching them. He looked like he had actually had another growth spurt!

"Hey there, it's the tiny little couple!" called out Nick loudly, filling the air with his mocking laughter. "It looks like I just had another BIG growth spurt! Haha, can you tell?"

Both Tyler and Ashley could definitely tell. Nick had grown, both in bulk and stature, from an already-massive 12 feet all the way up to a monstrous 25-foot-tall giant! His muscles looked as hard and huge as boulders as he flexed them over the terrified tiny couple on the bench.

"Haha, if you think THAT'S impressive, look at ME now!"

Ashley and Tyler didn't have to turn around to know whose voice that was.

THUMP THUMP THUMP THUMP

Beth's giant footsteps caused the entire earth to shake as she approached. Shaking in fear and intimidation, Tyler and Ashley both eventually turned around, and both of them screamed in shock. Beth was walking toward the tiny couple with huge, booming steps, and the tiny couple had to crane their heads straight up to even get a good look at the underside of Beth's boobs!

She had grown to an astoundingly gargantuan 50 feet!! And what's more, she was totally naked, showing off her mammoth breasts, immense ass, and mind-bogglingly-massive breasts in full daylight. Tyler and Ashley were frozen in fear, totally petrified, with their mouths hanging open.

Beth stopped stomping towards them when she had planted both of her feet, with one on either side of the shrunken couple on the bench. Beth stood there a moment silently, letting the tiny couple drink in just how huge she was compared to them. After a few long, silent moments, she suddenly reached down and grabbed ahold of the the small Ashley and Tyler, one in either hand, and whisked them high up into the air, depositing them each one by one on her massive breasts. Ashley could feel herself shaking even more. She simply could not believe that she was actually SITTING her entire body down on Beth's giant boob.

"So, short stuff," laughed Beth loudly down to the minuscule Ashley, "It looks like you got a lot smaller now, huh? Like, A LOT smaller. Not only did I get SO much BIGGER, but you two little shrimps just got a WHOLE lot smaller, hahaha!"

"I...I don't know what happened!" cried Ashley up to Beth. Ashley had totally abandoned any hope of defeating the gigantic Beth, and she was now in full-on pleading mode, trying to get Beth to sympathize with her.

"I just...I remembered that you were looking for growth spells in the library," continued Ashley desperately, "and...and I hated being shorter and smaller than you so I...I..."

"You went to try and go find one in the library too, huh?" chuckled Beth. Even though she was just chuckling, the sound of her voice was enough to rile every hair on Ashley's and Tyler's body, and hurt their ears.

"So," said Beth slowly and deliciously, clearly savoring every moment of this exchange, "this spell...it didn't happen to start with 'Hoc enim carmen,' did it?"

"Y-yes! Yes it did!" cried Ashley. For a moment, she felt something like hope rising up in her breast. Beth knew the spell! Maybe she knew how to reverse it! Maybe she could help them at least return to their normal sizes! Maybe...maybe...but Beth suddenly threw her huge head back and gave a mighty laugh. Ashley felt her hear sink. It didn't seem like Beth was in the mood to help.

"Hahaha!! Oh my god, you tiny little IDIOTS!" laughed Beth. She turned to Nick, smiling and laughing. "It was them! It was their spell that grew us!"

"Hahaha, oh my god, wow!" laughed Nick, his abdominal muscles rippling as he laughed.

"It...it did what!?" asked Ashley, totally confused.

"You little fools totally jinxed yourselves with that spell!" laughed Beth. "I bet you both were so greedy for power, and itching so hard to get back at me and Nick, that you didn't even bother to translate the Latin into English. You forget that bit, didn't you?"

Ashley and Tyler turned to give each other a blank look across the chasm of Beth's cleavage. They had absolutely forgotten that part.

“Hahaha, well, if you hadn’t been in such a rush to get back at us,” laughed Beth, “then you would’ve realized that if you say that spell with bad intentions in your heart, like revenge, for instance, then the spell’s power will actually reverberate back on you and shrink you instead of growing you! And what’s more, as a byproduct of your bad intentions, the spell actually caused me and Nick to grow this huge! Hahaha, it’s too perfect!”

The two giants spent the next several minutes berating the hapless and tiny Tyler and Ashley, calling them every small, demeaning name in the book. After teasing the shorter couple, however, Nick could tell that he was getting horny just from looking at his massive girlfriend. He was seized with a fervent desire to pleasure her, and so he simply walked over to her massive pussy, got up on his tip-toes, and started eating her out, right there in broad daylight, in the middle of the park.

“Oooooo!! Mmmmmm...ooooo Niicckkkkkk!” moaned Beth as she arched her massive back. She was so excited and horny from the mere touch of her lover’s tongue that she just lay down in the middle of the park, so that Nick could be free to insert his massive cock inside her dripping pussy. Tyler and Ashley were trapped between Beth’s massive breasts, and were trying to break free. But the tiny couple could tell that something was happening...something that filled them with even more fear and dread. As the giant and giantess loudly fucked each other right there in the park, they were both growing even bigger! Ashley and Tyler tried to cry out, but their cries were easily drowned out by the moans and ecstatic, orgiastic cries of the giantess and her giant boyfriend.

Soon, after both of them had climaxed multiple times, Nick and Beth both stood up. Ashley and Tyler came tumbling out of Beth’s chasm of a cleavage, and onto the ground. They looked up and couldn’t believe what they were seeing: both Beth AND Nick were now 300 feet tall now! Nick had grown into a godlike giant, and Beth was in turn a goddess-like giantess! Both the giant and the giantess looked down, to see if they could catch a glimpse of their tiny friends, but they were just too big to even see them now.

“Well, babe,” laughed Nick, turning to Beth, “It’s nice to be the same size as you.”

“Haha, well, to be honest, I already miss calling you “short stuff,”” chuckled Beth, caressing the underside of his chin with her finger. Both of them proceeded to stomp away from the tiny and terrified Ashley and Tyler...THUMP THUMP THUMP...Beth and Nick were looking forward to living out their lives as a new giant couple. But one thing was for certain: they had to move again! But they weren’t too worried about that. They were just happy to have each other. It didn’t matter that all the other tiny, ordinary people quaked with fear as they walked past them. Nick and Beth were totally in love with each other, and eager to save their energy up for another exhausting round of giant-and-giantess lovemaking.
