

The image depicts two anime-style characters, girls with short pink hair and large blue eyes, standing in a park at night. They are both wearing black long-sleeved tops with white chest panels and a red bow at the collar. The girl on the left has a slightly annoyed or determined expression, while the girl on the right looks more surprised or excited. They are surrounded by dark green trees and a paved path. A speech bubble with three exclamation marks is positioned above the girl on the left.
