

Your hypnotist slipped the dildo into your mouth, just the tip of it for now, but already you could feel the effect. The pressure of it in your mind. The way your thoughts began to stumble and jumble up. "How does it feel?" They asked, a teasing note to their voice.

"Itf... mmm... hrf to fink now." You managed to say, around the dildo. They laughed.

"Well done for answering. Now... Let's see what happens when we go to half way." They pushed the dildo deeper, passed your teeth. Now it was holding your tongue down.

The pressure in your mind had increased. Your thoughts were so disorganised now. Your mind was being penetrated and it felt so good. "That's it, toy. Just sink deeper. You know the deeper the dildo goes in your mouth, the less you can think. Such a good toy for me."

They smirked. "It's a waste of your mouth, I know. You could be using your mouth on me, but... I don't want you getting too excited. This is about brainwashing you, not just satisfying your desire to give me pleasure." Those words caused you to let out a small moan.

"Awh, did that thought make you excited? We'll get to that later. For now, just keep sucking your brain away." You felt your thoughts being pushed out of your mind, as the dildo slid deeper, to the base, and your mind switched off. "All the way in. No thoughts. Just the dildo."

It was a bizarre sensation, the feeling of fullness in your mouth echoing the fullness in your brain. Like there were two dildos entering your head, rather than just one. "You look so good like this. Mouth full, brain switched off. It's like I'm short circuiting you."
