Ring, uncommon (requires attunement)

MUTTER RING

Crafted by the ancient artificer Halofon, this ring is part of a larger set of rings known as the Rings of Five Influences, which have been scattered across the realm centuries ago.

You notice this ring is set with a p-p-peridot. Wait a minute...

Muttering Foes. While wearing this ring, you can magically impair a creature's ability to speak. As an action, you can force one creature of your choice you can see within 30 feet of you to make a DC 13 Intelligence saving throw. On a failed save, it can only speak falteringly for the next minute, and is unable to provide verbal components for spells. It can repeat the save at the end of its turns, ending the effect on a success.

Once a creature succeeds on this save, it is immune to this ability for the next 24 hours. You can affect only one creature at a time with this ability.
