

The Bimbo Makeover

(A woman enters a new salon to schedule an appointment, but the beautiful employee encourages her to start her makeover right away and slowly molds her customer into a giggly, bubbly bimbo)

(Fade in, interior. Door bell jingle, in walks a woman, long overdue for a hair appointment.)

C: ...Hello?

A: Hello! Welcome! I'll be right there~! (Bubbly and excited)

(Heeled footsteps approach the customer)

C: Hi, I was hoping to make an appointment for later on today when you have any available slots?

A: Perfect! I'm actually free right now. Would that work?

C: Oh! Uhm, yes! That'll be great!

(Filler sfx of getting sat in the chair.)

C: You have some pretty crazy stuff here. I figured you'd be scheduled out for weeks, being a new salon and all.

A: It has been pretty slow, hasn't it? Well, it's just me here and most people are still cooped up at home, I guess. Lean your head back for me here.

C: I'm sorry, I own my own business too and understand how stressful it can be.

A: Oh, you're so sweet! But, it's okay, because I'm just happy to give you the goddess treatment!

C: goddess treatment? I just need a haircut.... What is this thing?

A: This is the Spa-tronic 5000, it's going to help me work my magic! Just sit back and relax... this baby is gonna make all that stress melt away!

(Powering up sfx)

C: I'm not so sure about thi-

(Zap sfx)

A: Alrighty... how are you feeling there, miss?

C: I... I feel really good! All the colors in here are brighter and I'm buzzing with energy... I... hm, I taste cherry, is that lip gloss?

A: Sure is! The machine kinda zonks you out for a bit while I get you ready, your hair is already done and so is your face!

C: My face? Oh, oh my gawd!

A: I know right? I'm a wizard with a blending sponge.

C: No, I mean yeah, but... my face, my lips! They're bigger and mmph they're tingly... and my hair is so shiny and perfect, I've never had this healthy looking hair!

A: You look awesome, very hot. The boys will be all over you.

C: I- I will?

A: hell yeah, girl! Just wait until you see yourself after the next zap!

(Powering up sfx)

C: Wait, the next one?

(Zap sfx)

A: wakey wakey sleepy head, you must be really relaxed ! giggle

C: Mmph... I fell asleep? How silly of me, sorry!

A: It's nothing! I went ahead and finished up your hair removal, skin treatment, fillers, teeth whitening, bronzing, and of course your waist contouring treatment- gotta zap away that muffin top!

C: h-how did you do all that, it feels like I wasn't asleep for very long. Gawd, my head feels all fuzzy...

A: it'll wear off in a bit, in the meantime, check yourself out!

C: Oh. My. God. I- I look like a totally different person! I look like a total bimbo!

A: Almost, just got a few more adjustments to make and you're good to go! This will be a lower dose, so you shouldn't fall asleep.

(Powering up)

C: More? What else could you possibly-

(Zap sfx)

C: Wow, that tickles giggle and it's so warm through my whole body~. What's it doing? I feel something...

A: It's using nanotechnology or whatever, it's science!

C: Oh ok, cool... whoa... it's in my chest- ohhh its hot... my, my boobies, they're- oh mmph~ they're getting bigger! It feels so good, pumping up... so big and tight, they look so fake omg!

A: Yay! I knew you'd love it, don't you feel just like, the best!

C: I do! Oh, everything is tingling and buzzing so warm and, I really do need to find a boy, like right now!... giggle

A: First session is always on the house, you gotta come back every two weeks so I can fix you up really good!

C: Oh! Definitely, but I need to go get some clothes cuz I dont have anything sexy enough to wear anymore. It's all frumpy uptight pant-suits for work and comfy pjs at home.

A: There's a clothing place next door my sister owns that I think you're gonna love!

C: Perfect! Omg I can't wait to try on everything! Thanks again!

A: See you in a week! mischievous giggle after door shuts
