

PARAGON

A human warrior grips the iron gate of a besieged fortress, and with a roar they rip it asunder, tearing it off its hinges, only to use it club down the defenders that rush to defend the breach. Each blow flings away the bodies of their foes and causes the ground to tremble. The might of one human siege weapon tilts the tide of war.

A blur of motion cuts across the battlefield as an elf weaves between friend and foe. Arrows streak through the air, but none find their mark, the fleeting figure already gone before the shafts land. In a flash, they disarm one opponent, rescue an ally, and strike another down. To those few who witness her, she moves with impossible speed, as if the wind itself had chosen to fight at their side. In the space of moments, victory begins to shift.

A giant's club slams into the ground with earth-shaking force, but when the dust clears, the dwarf is still standing. Shield raised, armor cracked, the sturdy hero does not yield an inch. Blow after blow rains down, each one a blow that would crush an army, but the stalwart warrior endures them all. Companions regroup behind their living bulwark, finding shelter where none should exist. Against the unstoppable strength of the foe, one Paragon proves unbreakable.

SUPERHUMAN ABILITIES

Paragons are heroes whose abilities rise far beyond mortal limits. Through training, destiny, or sheer willpower, they embody the pinnacle of physical potential, moving with speed no eye can follow, wielding strength that can turn the tide of a war, or standing firm against forces that would break any other. Where others falter, the Paragon prevails, becoming a symbol of defiance and hope. To friend and foe alike, their deeds seem larger than life, the kind of stories that echo in songs and legends.

Some paragons channel their gifts into unmatched athleticism, leaping across rooftops, racing the wind, or striking before enemies can react. Others become living bulwarks, bearing wounds without falling and holding the line when no one else can. Still others master raw might, lifting what should be immovable and wielding weapons like extensions of their own will. No matter their path, every Paragon is defined by the extraordinary, standing as proof that even in a world of monsters and magic, sometimes the greatest power comes from the hero themselves.

A UNIQUELY 'ACTIVE' MARTIAL

This class is an 'active martial class'. This means that it rarely uses the 'Attack' action on its turn, but instead has a suite of power-based abilities. This does not mean it is stronger than the Fighter class, as it gives up some of that consistent single target damage for a more dynamic ability to deal area of effect damage, inflict conditions, or provide itself or allies with opportunities.

This is not a class designed for 4e, but it could be considered an attempt to adapt a 4e martial to 5e, something that draws on similar themes and styles, but plays nice within the 5e system.

PLAYTEST CLASS

This is a preview, and should not be considered full balanced or edited at this point. Play at your own risk. Feel free to leave any comments or feedback on the KibblesTasty's Discord.

This class has been through quite a few rounds of testing at this point and is probably safe to play in most games, but I would say that it runs certain optimization risks (as in there may be combinations of things that are more powerful than intended). It is being actively playtested by at least dozens of folks to hammer those out.

Likewise, it has not been edited for grammar and spelling mistakes. You will almost certainly find some, if that is upsetting for you, please wait for the published version.

CREATING A PARAGON

When you build your Paragon, think about what sets you apart from ordinary mortals. Did you discover your gifts suddenly, in a moment of crisis when your strength, speed, or resilience carried you beyond your limits? Or did your power grow through relentless training, a lifetime of discipline that pushed you further than anyone else could go? Perhaps destiny or divine will marked you for greatness, making you a vessel of impossible potential.

Your Origin is important to your story. A Paragon is by definition exceptional at what they do, even if they don't think of themselves in those terms, and your Origin will tie into how you became the way you are.

QUICK BUILD

You can quickly make a Paragon by following these suggestions. Pick Strength as your primary ability score and then make Constitution your secondary ability score. Pick Pursuit of Strength, and pick Whirlwind Slash or Wild Charge as your active ability.

For your Origin, you can pick any of them, or select Prodigy if you don't have a particular Origin in mind.

Lastly, choose a background that emphasizes your chosen origin, training or heroics.

CLASS FEATURES

- Hit Dice: 1d10 per Paragon level
- Hit Points at 1st level: 10 + your Constitution modifier
- Hit Points at Higher Levels: 1d10 (or 6) + your Constitution modifier per Paragon level after 1st.

PROFICIENCIES

Armor: Light armor, medium armor, shields

Weapons: Simple Weapons

Saving Throws: Constitution and Charisma

Skills: Choose two Acrobatics, Athletics, Investigation, Intimidation, Perception, Persuasion,

EQUIPMENT

You start with the following equipment, in addition to the equipment granted by your background:

- (a) scale mail or (b) leather armor
- (a) any two simple weapons or (b) a simple weapon and a shield
- (a) a shortbow and 20 arrows or (b) 10 darts
- (a) a dungeoneer's pack or (b) an explorer's pack

Alternatively, you may start with 4d4 × 10 gp to buy your own equipment.

PURSUIT OF PERFECTION

Select a Pursuit you wish to achieve perfection with, selecting from the Pursuit of Strength, Speed, Blades, Endurance, Mind, or Flame. The selected Pursuit grants you various features, and a list of Powers you can select.

EXERTION

As a Paragon, you can push yourself above and beyond. Some features either use or require Exertion. Using Exertion generates a Stack of Exertion, contributing toward your Exertion Limit.

Exertion Limit. Your Exertion Limit starts at 1, and increases as you gain levels, as shown on the Paragon Class Table. Any time you generate Exertion while at your Exertion Limit, you instead gain a level of Exhaustion. You can generate a maximum number of stacks per turn equal to half your Exertion limit (rounded up), after which you cannot use additional Exertion that turn.

Clearing Exertion. You clear all stacks of Exertion when you take a short or long rest, but do not clear any that have turned into Exhaustion (which are treated as normal levels of Exhaustion).

If you are at maximum stacks of Exertion when you roll initiative, your stacks of Exertion is reduced by 1.

ACTIVE ABILITIES

You gain one Active Ability. These are powerful moves you can unleash (usually in combat) that allow you to perform a special attack, action, or reaction. Using these generates Exertion. You use your Strength or Dexterity (your choice) for calculating the DC of these abilities:

Active Ability DC = 8 + Strength or Dexterity modifier + your Proficiency Bonus.

Active Ability attack modifier = Strength or Dexterity modifier + your Proficiency Bonus.

You can use the same DC for any Active Martial Feat you acquire. You gain additional Active Abilities as you gain levels. The number of Active Abilities you know is shown on the class table.

ORIGIN OF POWER

In addition to selecting the Pursuit of Perfection you pursue, you select your Origin of Power, selecting from Divine, Gifted, Mutatated, or Prodigy. This represents the source of your superhuman powers, and gives you a list of additional features.

EXERTED ATTACK

At 2nd level, once per turn when you take the Attack action, you can generate a stack of Exertion to take the Attack action (one weapon attack only) again as bonus action.

ATTACK ACTION

Though it only can ever give one attack, Exerted Attack uses the Attack action so that it can be replaced by Active Abilities that replace an attack as part of the Attack action.

PARAGON TALENTS

Additionally at 2nd level, you gain access to Paragon talents. Paragon talents can be selected from the general pool of options available to all Paragons, or from the specific ones available to Paragons that follow a specific Pursuit, listed at the end of each path of Pursuit.

SECONDARY PURSUIT

At 3rd level, you can select a second Pursuit, selecting an option that you do not already have.

ABILITY SCORE IMPROVEMENT

When you reach 4th level, and again at 8th, 12th, 14th, 16th, and 19th level, you can increase one ability score of your choice by 2, or you can increase two ability scores of your choice by 1. As normal, you can't increase an ability score above 20 using this feature.

INDEFATIGABLE

Starting at 5th level, the first exertion you would generate on each of your turns is free and does not generate a stack toward your Exertion Limit.

DEEP BREATH

Starting at 6th level, you gain the ability to recuperate quickly. If you haven't generated any stacks of exertion during your turn at the end of your turn, can roll a d4 and remove the rolled number stacks of exertion.

Once you do so, you cannot do so again until you complete a short or long rest.

PERFECTED DEFENSE

Additionally at 6th level, you gain Proficiency in a saving throw related to your path of Pursuit. Consult the table below. If you already have proficiency in the saving throw, you can select another attribute of your choice.

RELATED ABILITY SCORES

Path of Perfection	Related Saving Throw
Blade	Strength or Dexterity
Endurance	Wisdom
Mind	Intelligence or Wisdom
Strength	Strength
Speed	Dexterity

WARMED UP

Starting at 9th level, when you reach your maximum stacks of exertion for the first time, you regain hit points equal to your Paragon level. This resets whenever you complete a short or long rest.

LIMITBREAKER

At 10th level, select one ability score. You gain +1 to that ability score, and the maximum for that ability score increases to 22.

EXTRA ATTACK

Beginning at 11th level, you can attack twice, instead of once, whenever you take the Attack action on your turn.

LIMITBREAKER (2)

At 15th level, select another ability score you have not used Limitbreaker on already. You gain +1 to that ability score, and the maximum for that ability score increases to 22.

ADRENALINE RUSH

At 18th level, you can briefly ignore your limits and freely exertion. On your turn, you do not generate any stacks while using exertion.

Once you use this feature, you cannot use it again until you complete a long rest.

BEYOND PERFECTION

At 20th level, you shatter mortal limits. Select an ability you've used Limit Breaker on. You gain +2 to that ability score, and the maximum for that ability score increases to 24. When you make any attack roll, ability check, or saving throw using that ability, you can treat any roll lower than 10 as a 10.

PARAGON ORIGINS

PRODIGY

A prodigy is a Paragon without a true origin—no secret bloodline, no chosen destiny, no mystical powers, just a mortal that, one step at a time, refuses to stop when reaching the mortal limits, challenging the very idea that mortals have limits.

Their lack of origin doesn't mean they aren't exceptional, even if they cannot always see it themselves, there is a spark of something that drives them beyond, to keep trying and struggling where others would collapse or give up.

TIRELESS TRAINING

At 1st level when you select this origin, your Exertion Limit increases by 1.

ENDURING EFFORTS

Additionally at 1st level, your maximum hit points increase by 1. Your maximum hit points increase by 1 again when you gain a level in this class.

CREATIVE APPLICATION

Starting at 3rd level, you can select an additional active ability from any Pursuit, even if it's not one that you currently follow.

PURSUIT OF MASTERY

At 3rd level, you can select one additional Paragon Talent.

Additionally, you gain proficiency with one weapon, gaming set, musical instrument, or tool of your choice that you don't currently have proficiency in.

MORTAL CONVICTION

At 7th level, your willpower allows you to overcome the limits of their body. When you drop to 0 hit points, you can instead drop to 1 hit point and gain temporary hit points equal to twice your Paragon level.

Once you do this, you cannot do so again until you complete a short or long rest.

MOMENTUM OF EFFORT

At 13th level, whenever you generate a stack of Exertion, you gain advantage on your next weapon attack roll made before the end of your turn.

UNLIMITED WILLPOWER

At 17th level, during your turn can push yourself beyond mortal limits until the start of your next turn (no action required). You gain the following benefits:

- You ignore the effects of Exhaustion, even if it would otherwise kill you.
- You can take an additional action on each of your turns. That action can be used only to take the Attack (one weapon attack only), Dash, Disengage, Hide, or Use an Object action.
- You are unaffected by difficult terrain, and spells and other magical effects can neither reduce your speed nor cause you to be paralyzed or restrained.

This state ends at the start of your next turn unless you generate a stack of Exertion to maintain it. Once you use this ability, you cannot use it again until you complete a long rest.

DIVINE ORIGIN

Paragons of a Divine Origin typically have the blood or blessing of divine or celestial origins—distant demigods, descendents of avatars, blessed champions, anyone that is beyond the mortal capability due to the touch of the divine.

Some of them champion or owe allegiance to the source of the power, while others are a distant and forgotten remnant left behind in the mortal realm who may not even know the origin of the power.

DIVINE BLOOD

At 1st level when you select this origin, your divine blood courses through, constantly invigorating you. When you generate a stack of exertion, you regain 1d4 hit points.

MANIFESTED POWER

Additionally at 1st level when you select this origin, your divine legacy makes itself apparent through supernatural powers. When you gain this feature, choose a damage type from Fire, Cold, Lightning, Radiant or Necrotic. Using your powers causes an aura of that type to manifest around you. When you deal damage with unarmed strikes or active abilities, you can choose for it deal that damage type instead.

CELESTIAL LEGACY

At 3rd level, another part of your celestial legacy shines through, granting you one of the following features of your choice:

- Eyes. Your eyes softly glow or reflect light. You gain 60 feet of darkvision, and if you already have darkvision, the range of your darkvision increases by 30 feet.
- Voice. You can cast speak with animals and command without expending a spell slot by generating a stack of exertion.
- Wings. Ethereal wings of radiant light form behind you when you are airborne, granting you the effect of feather fall.
- Skin. Your skin becomes tougher and often strangely hued. While you are not wearing any armor, your Armor Class equals 13 + your Constitution modifier. You can use a shield and still gain this benefit.

ACTIVE ABILITY: DIVINE JUDGEMENT

Starting at 3rd level, you gain an active ability unique to your origin that, unrelated to any of your perfections. You can use it as normal for an active ability, generating one stack of exertion each time you use it.

DIVINE JUDGEMENT

Active Ability (Attack, Supernatural)

When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can replace one of your attacks to cast divine judgment^K without a spell slot or components.

The level you cast the spell increases by 1 at 9th (to 3rd), 13th (to 4th), and 17th level (to 5th).

SACRED BODY

Starting at 7th level, when you roll to recover hit points with Divine Blood, you can add your Constitution modifier to the hit points recovered.

Additionally, you are immune to diseases.

GROWING DIVINITY

At 13th level, select an additional selection from Celestial Legacy, and then select one of the following upgrades to one of your selections:

- Eyes. You gain blindsight with a range of 30 feet.
- Voice. You can understand and speak all languages.
- Wings. Your wings stay manifested at all times. You gain a flying speed of 30 feet.
- Skin. You gain resistance to your choice of Cold, Fire, Lightning, Radiant, or Necrotic damage.

DIVINE DESCENT

At 17th level, as a bonus action, you fully express your divine legacy becoming a divine avatar and gaining the following benefits:

- You gain resistance to all damage.
- You have advantage on all saving throws.
- You can become Large sized.
- Once during the effect, when you use Divine Judgement you can generate two stacks of Exertion to instead cast platinum lances^K without a spell slot or components.

This form ends at the start of your next turn unless you generate a stack of Exertion to maintain it. Once you use this ability, you cannot use it again until you complete a long rest.

GIFTED ORIGIN

A gifted Paragon is one whose power comes from an inner well of psionic power. This power is something they tap into unconsciously, empowering their body and granting them nearly instinctive psionic abilities as they continue to use it, filling themselves with psionic power.

The more they strain themselves, the more of this psionic energy fills them, often causing them to glow or distort their surroundings in minor ways as their psionic powers grow more potent. Their lack of formal Psionic training sometimes makes their powers leak subconsciously.

GENERATED ENERGY

At 1st level, when you select this origin, whenever you generate a stack of Exertion, you generate 1 psi point. You can have a maximum number of this points equal to your Exertion Limit + 1. Any psi points that remain unspent when you complete a long rest are lost.

When you use an ability that generates a stack of Exertion, you can expend 2 psi points to prevent it from causing a stack of Exertion. You can additionally use these points to fuel some psionic features you gain.

PSIONIC POWERS

Additionally at 1st level, you gain the passive power of one Psionic Discipline of your choice. This choice will impact which Psionic Power you gain for later features.

PSIONIC SURGE

At 3rd level, you gain the ability to use the Psionic Power related to the Discipline selected for the Psionic Powers feature as an Active Ability which you can use by generating a stack of Exertion. The ability modifier for this power becomes your Active Ability modifier for attack rolls, saving throws, and any time it refers to your Intelligence modifier.

When you use it, it is empowered as if you expended 1 psi point on it. The number of psi points increases at 5th (to 2), 11th (to 3), and 17th (to 4) levels. You can expend psi points you have to further empower it, though the maximum total psi points you can spend on it is equal to your proficiency bonus. If the select power deals damage on a failed save, it deals half damage on a successful save.

Regardless of the power selected, it gains the following modifier:

Quickened (1 Psi Point): The power can be used as a bonus action.

RAMPANT POWER

Starting at 3rd level, your generated Psionic power wreathes you in an aura of power. While you have 1 or more psi points, the first time during your turn you strike a creature with a melee weapon attack or Active Ability, it deals an additional psychic damage equal to the psi points you have.

DANGEROUS MIND

At 7th level, you can aggressively rebuff and rebound any effect that targets your mind. You can gain advantage on an Intelligence or Wisdom saving throw.

Rebound. If you succeed and the save was triggered by the spell or effect of another creature, you can expend 1 psi point to force the creature to make a saving throw of the same type and DC. On failure it takes 4d6 psionic damage and becomes Dazed until the start of your turn. On success, it takes half as much damage and does not become Dazed.

Once you use this feature to succeed a saving throw, you cannot use it again until you complete a short or long rest.

BRANCHING POWER

At 13th level, you can select a second Psionic Power from any Discipline of Psion, gaining the ability to use that Power with Psionic Surge as a second option.

Additionally, you can use any of the Alternate Effects from either Discipline of 3rd level or lower by expending psi points.

se of a long rest.

ULTIMATE OUTBURST

At 17th level, when you use Psionic Surge, you can instead cast shockwave^K. The overwhelming psionic energy coursing through you empowers, granting you temporary hit points equal to the damage roll of the spell and granting you an additional full Action you can use before the end of your turn.

Once you use this ability, you cannot use it again until you complete a short or long rest. If you die, you automatically cast shockwave^K (no action required), regardless if this ability is available or not.

SHOCKWAVE

5th-level psionic

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Self (30-foot radius)

Components: S

Duration: Instantaneous

You unleash a burst of telekinetic force in all directions. Each creature of your choice within 30 feet of you is knocked 5 feet back and must succeed on a Strength saving throw or take 8d6 damage bludgeoning damage and be knocked prone. A creature that succeeds on its saving throw takes half as much damage and isn't knocked prone.

AUGMENTED ORIGIN

While some Paragons are born to their power, Augmented Paragons pursue perfection through artificial enhancement. They leave behind the weak and insufficient flesh replacing parts of the bodies with powerful augmentations. Some perform these enhancements out of necessity to repair a ruined body, others in pursuit of power, while an unlucky few are the results of some mad experiment waking up with powers they never sought and having to learn to make due with their situation.

AUGMENTED ORIGIN SUBCLASS FEATURES

Level	Features
1	Overheat, Mechanical Maintenance
3	Weapon Module, Mechanical Upgrade
7	Machine Mode
13	Emergency Systems
17	Mega Module, Hotswap

OVERHEAT

At 1st level when you select this Origin, you gain the ability to push your mechanical enhancements beyond their limits. When you generate a stack of Exertion while at your maximum stacks, you can choose to take 1d6 fire damage instead of gaining a level of Exhaustion.

You take this damage at the end of your turn. Each time you take fire damage this way after the first, the fire damage is doubled (to 2d6, 4d6, etc). This damage cannot be reduced by resistance or immunity. This resets back to 1d6 when you complete a short rest or long rest.

MECHANICAL MAINTENANCE

Additionally at 1st level, you gain proficiency in your choice of Tinkerer's Tools, Blacksmith's Tools, or the Arcana skill.

WEAPON MODULE

Starting at 3rd level, you can install a module that grants you a special Active Ability. Select one of the following options:

- Energy Cannon You gain the Fire Beam active ability.
- Power Leap You gain the Meteor Leap active ability.
- Blade Whip. You gain the Whirlwind Slash active ability.

You can replace your selection of module when you gain a level in this class, replacing the module over the course of a long rest.

MECHANICAL UPGRADE

Additionally at 3rd level, you gain the ability to upgrade your form in one of the following ways:

- Boosted Jumps. You double your jumping distance.

- Grappling Reel. As an attack or as an action, you may target a surface, object or creature within 30 feet. If the target is Medium or smaller, you can make a Strength (Athletics) check as if grappling normally to pull it to you and grapple it on success. Alternatively, if the target is Large or larger, you can choose to be pulled to it (this doesn't grapple it). This movement provokes opportunity attacks as normal movement would.
- Reinforced Limbs. You count as one size larger when determining your carrying weight and the weight you can push, drag, or lift.
- Terrain Adaptation. You gain a climbing or swimming speed equal to your walking speed.
- Integrated Weapon. You integrate one one handed simple or martial melee weapon into one of your arms. You are proficient with the integrated weapon. It counts as occupying your hand only while in use.

You can replace your selection of upgrade when you gain a level in this class, replacing the upgrade over the course of a long rest.

You can select additional Upgrades by using Paragon Talents.

MACHINE MODE

At 7th level, when you become Unconscious, Incapacitated, roll initiative while under the effect of those conditions, or die, you can allow your augmentation to override control of your body, suppressing the effect or death until the end of your next turn. Doing so generates a stack of Exertion, and while you are in this state you are considered Dazed and Silenced. These are removed if the underlying condition is cured.

If you are unconscious due to being at 0 hit points, you gain a damage threshold of 10 (meaning you do not suffer any effects from taking less than 10 damage) while in this state, but if you are still damaged, you suffer a failed Death Saving Throw as normal.

This effect cannot be triggered if you are Paralyzed, Petrified, or your body is fully destroyed. Once triggered, this effect cannot be triggered again until you complete a short or long rest.

EMERGENCY SYSTEMS

At 13th level, you gain one of the following features of your choice. You can replace your selection of system when you gain a level in this class, replacing the upgrade over the course of a long rest.

REDUNDANT SYSTEMS

Machine Mode can be triggered an additional time before needing to complete a short rest.

Reboot. When Machine Mode is triggered by dropping to 0 hit points, you recover 1 hit point at the end of your turn. When Machine Mode is triggered by death, roll a D20 and add your level to the result. If the result is 30 or higher, you return to life with 1 hit point at the start of your turn.

HEAT VENTS

When you take damage from Overheat, you can deal an equal amount of damage to one creature within 5 feet of you (up to a maximum of 4d6 damage).

Redline Protocol. When you trigger Overheat, you can doubled and you gain an additional action. The action can be used only to take the Attack (one weapon attack only), Dash, Disengage, Hide, or Use an Object action. You can do this once, after which you cannot do so again until you complete a short rest.

MEGA MODULE

At 17th level, when you use the Active Ability granted by your Weapon Module, you can choose to double the area of effect and damage of it. Once you do so, you cannot do so again until you complete a short or long rest.

HOTSWAP

Additionally at 17th level, you can replace any module, upgrade, or system that you can normally replace during a long rest after gaining a level during a short rest. You can only change one selection during the course of a short rest.

VAMPIRIC ORIGIN

Vampiric Paragons drain their powers from others, shattering their mortal shackles through stealing the power of others to add to their own. Some following this path use forbidden techniques and rites, others were born with an ability to draw in the power of others, such as dhampirs or others with powers that descend from vampiric or demonic kin of some kind.

VAMPIRIC ORIGIN SUBCLASS FEATURES

Level	Features
1	Draining Strike, Hunter's Sight
3	Predator's Pounce, Growing Hunger
7	Into the Mist, Night Rush
13	Stolen Power
17	Devouring Storm

ACTIVE ABILITY: DRAINING STRIKE

At 1st level, you gain a special Active Ability called Draining Strike. Draining Strike does not cost any Exertion or scale with proficiency like other Active Abilities.

DRAINING STRIKE (0 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Attack)

When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can replace one of your attacks with a draining strike. On hit, it deals 1d6 + your Active Ability + modifier + your current number of stacks of Exertion necrotic damage and, if the target is not a Construct or Undead, your stacks of Exertion is reduced by 1 (to a minimum of 0).

HUNTER'S SIGHT

Additionally at 1st level, you gain proficiency in the Perception skill, and you ignore the disadvantage imposed by dim light when making Perception checks against creatures that are not Undead or Constructs.

ACTIVE ABILITY: PREDATOR'S POUNCE

PREDATOR'S POUNCE (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Attack)

You dash forward up to 10 feet and initiate a Grapple attempt against a creature with advantage. On success, the target takes 2d6 necrotic damage. The number of d6 increases by one when your proficiency bonus increases (with the total number of d6 equaling your proficiency bonus) and the distance you can dash increases by 5 feet (with the total range being 5 × your proficiency bonus). You gain temporary hit points equal to half the necrotic damage dealt.

GROWING HUNGER

Additionally at 3rd level, if your stacks of Exertion are at their maximum, you gain advantage on your attack rolls with Draining Strike.

INTO THE MIST

Starting at 7th level, you can use your bonus action to become a cloud of mist. Until the start of your next turn, you have resistance to all damage types besides force, fire, and radiant and a flying speed of 30 feet.

This form ends early if you take any action or make an attack. You cannot interact with other creatures or objects while mist, but ignore any difficult terrain and can pass through small holes, narrow openings, and even mere cracks.

Once you use this feature, you cannot use it again until you complete a short rest.

NIGHT RUSH

Additionally at 7th, while you are in dim light or darkness your Predatory Pounce feature turns you into mist and teleports you to the target instead of moving like normal.

STOLEN POWER

At 13th level, you gain the ability to copy powers from creatures that you drain. You can gain one of the following features of a creature you hit with a draining strike. The copied ability lasts for 1 minute or until you steal another ability this way:

- Any special sense it has (such as darkvision, blindsight, or Keen Senses).
- Any skill, weapon, or tool proficiency it has.
- Any damage resistance it has (against a single type of damage).
- Any climbing, swimming, or flying speed it has, with a maximum of up to your walking speed.

DEVOURING STORM

At 17th level, you gain the ability to drain entire armies of their life. As an action, you vanish, teleporting to and making a Draining Strike against a number of creatures within 60 feet of you equal to your current number of Exertion stacks. Each creature takes damage based on the number of Exertion stacks you have when using this feature. Each successful hit can reduce your stacks of Exertion by 1 as normal. After completing all of the attacks, you reappear either where you started, or within 5 feet of any target attacked by the ability.

Once you use this ability, you cannot use it again until you complete a short or long rest.

PLAYING ACTUAL VAMPIRES

This subclass can be used to play an actual vampire, but an actual vampire has rules that disrupt typical D&D play. When aiming to play an actual vampire, consult your DM. It is likely going to require a combination of a specialized Ancestry and this subclass to capture the full experience.

This subclass does not assume you are a literal vampire, and features such as vampiric fangs to bite your foes will need to come from your Ancestry.

Before absolute strength, all else is secondary—nothing can hinder their steps, nothing can stop their blows, and nothing can escape their grip.

STRENGTH PROFICIENCY

When you select this pursuit, you can add your proficiency bonus to your Strength ability score before calculating the amount you can lift, carry, drag, or the distance that you can jump.

HEAVY SLAMS

Starting at 3rd level, once per turn on your turn when you hit a Large or smaller creature with a melee weapon attack roll, you can knock the target 5 feet away from you.

ACTIVE ABILITIES

The following are Active Abilities you can select for the Pursuit of Strength.

ATHLETIC FEAT (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Special)

You can perform an outrageous athletic feat. You can do any of the following during your turn:

- Jump a distance equal to your movement speed.
- Lift twice your normal lifting capacity until the end of your turn.
- Move at normal speed while carrying or dragging another creature until the end of your turn.
- Make a free Strength or Dexterity saving throw or ability check against an ongoing effect or spell effecting you that would normally take an action or only occur at the end of your turn
- Take the Dash action as a bonus action.

MARTIAL TOSS (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Attack)

When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can replace one of your attacks to attempt to hurl a creature of your size or smaller. The target must make a Strength saving throw. An object or creature you are grappling automatically fails. If you successfully lift them, you can throw them 20 feet. The range is increased by 10 feet for each size smaller than you the target is.

The creature's movement ends early if it collides with another creature or obstacle. The thrown creature and anything it collides with takes 2d6 + your Active Ability modifier, and the thrown creature falls prone. The number of d6 increases by one when your proficiency bonus increases (with the total number of d6 equaling your proficiency bonus).

A creature can choose to fail their save against this ability. You can throw a willing creature more carefully, dealing no damage to them unless they collide with something during their flight.

MERCILESS BREAK (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Attack)

When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can replace one of your attacks to inflict a debilitating injury on a creature you are grappling. The creature takes 2d6 + your Active Ability modifier bludgeoning damage and suffers an injury for 1 minute.

The number of d6 increases by one when your proficiency bonus increases (with the total number of d6 equaling your proficiency bonus).

While suffering from this injury, the creature subtracts 1d6 from attack rolls and ability checks, and must pass a DC 10 Constitution saving throw to successfully cast a spell.

The target creature makes a Constitution saving throw at the end of each of their turns, ending the effect of the injury on a success. A creature can spend their action treating their injury to automatically pass the saving throw.

METEOR LEAP (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Attack)

When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can leap up three times your running long jump distance (up to a maximum of your movement speed) without expending any movement. When you land, the force of your landing creates a shockwave. Any creature within 5 feet of you where land must make a Strength saving throw. On a failed save, they take 2d6 damage and are knocked prone. On a successful save, they take half as much damage and are not prone. The number of d6 increases by one when your proficiency bonus increases (with the total number of d6 equaling your proficiency bonus). Once you use this feature, you cannot use it again until you complete a short or long rest.

MIGHTY IMPACT (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Attack)

When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can replace one of your attacks to slam an enemy backwards. The target must make a Strength saving throw. On failure, it takes 2d6 + your Active Ability modifier damage and is pushed 15 feet away from you. On a success, it takes half as much damage and is pushed 5 feet away from you. The distance the target is pushed is reduced by 5 feet for every size larger than you it is. The number of d6 increases by one when your proficiency bonus increases (with the total number of d6 equaling your proficiency bonus).

On miss, the target takes half as much damage and does not have to make a saving throw.

THUNDER STRIKE (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Attack, Supernatural)

This movement does not provoke attacks of opportunity. Large or smaller creatures in your path must make a Strength saving throw, or be knocked out of your way and prone.

If a creature has no where they can move, they are knocked prone but not moved, and you pass over them. A creature takes 2d6 + your Active Ability modifier bludgeoning damage on a failed save. The number of d6 increases by one when your proficiency bonus increases (with the total number of d6 equaling your proficiency bonus). Your charge ends early if a creature passes their save. Creatures with a CR equal to less than half of your character level automatically fails their save.

Once you use this ability, you cannot do so again until you complete a short or long rest.

Magic Breaker

You can cast dispel magic without any components or spell slots, but the range becomes touch and the target takes 1d8 + your Strength modifier damage if targeting an object or creature. Strength is your spellcasting ability modifier when casting the spell in this way.

When using Athletic Feat, you can lift, carry, or drag anything Huge or smaller regardless of weight.

Lifting Mastery

You count as one size larger for the purposes of Lifting and Carrying, up to counting as Large sized creature.

PURSUIT OF SPEED

Paragons of speed follow only one creed: there is no such thing as moving too fast. To move untouched, to move unseen, to move up a wall... everything is a question if you can just move fast enough. To a Paragon of this path, all problems fall away in the face of unmatched movement. Nothing catches them—not the weapons of their enemies, not the magic of wizards, not even the so-called laws of physics.

FIRST OFF THE LINE

When you select this Pursuit, you can add half of your proficiency bonus (rounded down) when you roll for initiative.

QUICK STEPS

Starting at 3rd level, once per turn on your turn when you hit a creature with a melee weapon attack roll while able to move, you can move up to 10 feet without provoking attacks of opportunity.

ACTIVE ABILITIES

- Double your movement speed until the end of your turn.

AFTER IMAGES (1 EXERTION)

When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can replace one of your attacks to cast mirror image without a spell slot or components. When you cast it this way, it only creates 1 mirror image. The number of mirror images increases at 5th level (to 2) and 11th level (to 3).

The number of d6 increases by one when your proficiency bonus increases (with the total number of d6 equaling your proficiency bonus). A number of pieces of ammunition are consumed equal to the number of targets that make the save against the ability times two. Once you use this feature, you cannot use it again until you complete a short or long rest.

DIRTY STRIKE (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Special)

When you make a melee weapon attack, you can follow up with a dirty trick (a knee to the gut, handful of sand to eyes, etc.). The creature must make a Constitution saving throw. On failure, they become your choice of blinded or dazed† (your choice) for 1 minute. The target can repeat its saving throw at the end of each of their turns. A creature can spend their action treating their condition to automatically pass the saving throw. Once you use this against a target once, they are ready for subsequent attempts and automatically pass saving throws against it. Once you use this feature to successfully blind or daze a creature, you cannot use it again until you complete a short or long rest.

When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can replace one attack by turning into lightning, leaping (as lightning) to a creature or empty space within 10 feet. If you target a creature, you can target a chain of creatures within 10 feet of the previous target, targeting a number of creatures equal to your proficiency bonus. Each creature you target makes a Dexterity saving, taking 2d6 lightning damage on a failed save, or half as much on a successful save. You then teleport to an empty spot of your choice adjacent to the last target of the chain. The damage increases by 1d6 and the range (initial and jump distance) increases by 5 feet whenever your proficiency bonus increases.

You can attack a number of creatures in this way equal to your proficiency bonus, but can only strike each creature once. You can strike creatures within a range of $5 \times$ your proficiency bonus feet (for example when you proficiency bonus is +2, you can strike creatures within 10 feet).

Each time you strike a creature, make a melee weapon attack, dealing $1d6 +$ your Strength or Dexterity modifier (your choice) modifier damage on a hit. The damage increases by $1d6$ each time your proficiency bonus increases.

When you are subjected to an effect that allows you to make a Dexterity saving throw to take only half damage, you instead take no damage if you succeed on the saving throw, and only half damage if you fail.

When you use Evasive Step, the attack that triggered the ability automatically misses.

Wind Step

You can cast become wind without any components or spell slots. Once you use this ability, you cannot do so again until you complete a short or long rest.

PERFECTION OF ENDURANCE

Paragons of Endurance embody the unyielding spirit of stone and steel. Where others falter, they remain, unbroken and immovable. Their creed is simple: to outlast all trials, to weather every storm, to endure where none others can. Neither blade nor spell can sway them from their path, for they are living bastions, defined not by how hard they strike, but by how impossible they are to bring down.

STUDILY BUILT

When you select this Perfection, any damage you take from falling is halved.

FACE TO FACE

Starting at 3rd level, once per turn on your turn when you hit a creature with a melee weapon attack roll, you can give the target disadvantage on its next attack roll if that attack roll does not target you.

ACTIVE ABILITIES

The following are Active Abilities you can select for the Pursuit of Endurance.

BATTERING RAM (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Attack)

When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can replace one of your attacks with moving up to half your movement speed in a straight line. If you collide with a creature during this movement, the creature must make a Strength saving throw or take $2d8 + \text{your Strength modifier}$ bludgeoning damage and be knocked prone. When a creature is knocked prone this way, you can make a grapple check against them as a bonus action. The number of d8 increases by one when your proficiency bonus increases (with the total number of d8 equaling your proficiency bonus).

BODY BLOCK (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Reaction)

As a reaction to taking damage while you are grappling a creature your size or smaller, you can halve the damage and cause the creature you are grappling to take an equal amount of damage. If this damage reduces the creature you are grappling to 0 hit points, you take any additional overflow damage.

BRACE (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Bonus Action)

As a bonus action, you rally your endurance and brace yourself for impact. Until the start of your next turn, your movement speed is zero and you gain $2d6 + \text{your Constitution modifier}$ temporary hit points. Any remaining temporary hit points are lost at the start of your turn. The number of d6s increases by one when your proficiency bonus increases (with the total number of d6 equaling your proficiency bonus).

ENDURE ELEMENTS (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Reaction)

As a reaction to taking acid, cold, fire, lightning, or thunder damage, you can gain resistance to that damage until the start of your next turn (including against the triggering attack).

Your next melee weapon attack roll before the end of your next turn deals $2d6$ of the selected damage type. The number of d6s increases by one when your proficiency bonus increases (with the total number of d6 equaling your proficiency bonus).

HEADBUTT (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Attack)

When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can replace one of your attacks by bashing your head into the head of a creature within 5 feet of you. Make an unarmed strike. If the attack hits, both you and the target take damage equal to your Constitution modifier and become Dazed. The target must make a Constitution saving throw. On failure, it is Stunned until the start of your next turn.

If the attack misses, it does not generate a stack of exertion. You can only attack to make this attack once per turn.

HEROIC INTERVENTION (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Reaction)

As a reaction, when an allied creature within range of your movement speed would take damage, you can move to them and into their space. If the damage came from an attack, you become the target of the attack.

They move to an unoccupied space of their choice within 5 feet, or the closest unoccupied space if there are no unoccupied spaces within 5 feet (potentially moving them out of an area of effect, but moving yourself into it).

You and the target creature have resistance to all damage until the start of your next turn.

KARMIC CYCLE (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Reaction, Supernatural)

As a reaction to taking damage from a hostile creature, you can gain resistance to that instance of damage and store an amount equal to the damage taken after resistance (up to a maximum of $5 \times \text{your proficiency bonus}$). Until the end of your next turn, when you hit a creature with a melee attack, you can add that damage as a bonus to the damage roll.

UNYIELDING ENDURANCE (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Reaction)

As a reaction to taking damage, you can brace yourself to weather the blow and any additional blows. Until the start of your next turn, you can reduce all damage taken (including from the damage that triggered this reaction) by your Proficiency bonus and gain advantage on Strength and Constitution saving throws.

Additionally for the duration, if an attack would reduce you to 0, you can make a Constitution saving throw with a DC to the amount of damage taken. On a success, you are reduced to 1 instead.

If you are not incapacitated at the start of your next turn after using this feature, you can expend a number of hit dice up to your proficiency bonus, rolling them to regain hit points as normal.

WRECKING BALL (1 EXERTION)

Active Ability (Attack)

When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can replace one of your attacks with leaping into another creature's space within the distance of your long jump range. The target must make a Dexterity saving throw. On failure it takes 2d8 + your Strength modifier damage and is knocked prone. The number of d8 increases by one when your proficiency bonus increases (with the total number of d8 equaling your proficiency bonus).

Pass or fail, if the creature is your size or smaller, it is knocked out of its space to the closest available space, prioritizing spaces away from where you jumped. If there is no available space or it is larger than you, you instead are moved to the closest available space.

CHANGELOG

V0.3

- Exertion Limit. The Exertion limit has been increased, scaling to 2 at level 2 now, with that change rippling upwards.
- Maximum Exertion per Turn. This has been increased to rounding up, meaning that it goes to 2 at level 3. This means it effectively increases to 2 at level 3, and 3 at level 5, as Infatigable causes you to not stack the first Exertion you use.
- Gifted Origin. added, focusing on unleashing Psionic power from within.
- Victory Rush talent added.
- Fired Up talent added.
- Deep Breaths and Adrenaline Rush have been level swapped. This is because without Extra Attack Adrenaline Rush wasn't nearly as valuable, while Deep Breath is more valuable at lower levels.
- Exerted Attack changed to use the Attack action (though it is still capped at 1 attack). This means the attack can be replaced with an active ability that replaces attacks now, as long as you can afford the double Exertion burn.
- Adrenaline Junkie now makes Adrenaline Rush reset on short rests as well as long rests.

PURSUIT OF ENDURANCE

- Stone Stance can now be reused with Endurance.

PURSUIT OF MIND

- Hunter's Mind added. Gives Mind a bit more combat options.

2024 CONVERSION

When playing this in 2024, make the following changes:

- Subclasses. Move the subclasses and their features to level 3.
- Exertion & Exhaustion. Increase the Exertion limit to 1. This is to account for the more potent Exhaustion it uses compared to 5e+/5e 2014.
- Weapon Masteries. Add the following Weapon Mastery Feature:

LEVEL 1: WEAPON MASTERY

Your training with weapons allows you to use the mastery properties of two kinds of weapons of your choice with which you have proficiency, such as Quarterstaves and Spears.

Whenever you finish a Long Rest, you can change the kinds of weapons you chose. For example, you could switch to using the mastery properties of Clubs and Light Hammers.

- Adamantine Fists. Your unarmed strike gains the Weapon Mastery property Push, Topple, or Graze (your choice). Once selected it retains that property, but you can change it whenever you finish a Long Rest, changing it to another one of those options.

KIBBLES-ISM GLOSSARY

While this class is completely compatible with 5e 2014 and easy to use with D&D 2024, it contains a few elements that are drawn from 5e++ that merit a glossary here at the end, even if they are probably things that are widely understood in the 5e homebrew community at this point from their various uses.

BLOODIED

A creature is Bloodied when its current hit points are less than half of its maximum hit points. It does not inherently do anything on its own, but can serve as a condition or trigger for some abilities.

BURNING (CONDITION)

- A burning creature takes 1d4 fire damage at the start of each of their turns; the source of Burning may define how much damage they take, replacing the 1d4 with the listed damage.
- The burning creature sheds bright light in a 15 foot radius, and dim light for an additional 15 feet.
- The burning creature or someone within 5 feet of it can use their action to douse the fire, ending the condition. Being doused in water ends the condition automatically.

DAZED (CONDITION)

- A dazed creature can only do one of the following: move, take its action, or take a bonus action. It cannot take reactions.

SPELLS

There's a bunch of spells here that aren't included in the class document, but they are available under the KRD for free. You can find them in the Spell Compendium or Generic Elemental Spells.
