

That was really important ...

... and you sacrificed your whole day for this.

I don't know anything about standards in the gay dating scene ...

But I don't want to believe that this is normal.

Carter can't be that horny, can he?

I think it's just a dangerous coping strategy.

I ... I really couldn't say?

I mean, I'm not experienced ...

But I see you're willing to discuss stuff.

Maybe talk to him about it calmly?

Tell him you just worry about him and want to help?

He knows I am ...

But it's not easy to get through to him.

And you were right, I let him drink!

I'm not doing a good job looking out for him.

It's also a lot easier to play this down ...

Yeah ...

Please just stay this optimistic, ha ha!

But watch out for your own brain, okay?

HUH?! Sounds like you want to steal it or something?!

This cheese is full of holes!

I owe you one of my organs
after today!

OMG,
no!

How about a kidney?

Pttt!

You dork!

If you insist
on compensation,
I could think of something more humane.

Yes,
please.
Haha.

Oh!!

PUSH!

Wait
a sec!

You can keep it as a reminder!

And I'm not telling you how I made this miracle come true.

A magician never reveals his secrets.

Do I want to be reminded of this?

A specific phobia on top is what I need right now ...

These beasts were trying to kill me.

And since when are you a magician?!

Race car driver and metal-head stint are over already?

Yeah, and you ruined my goose farm plans, so I had to come up with something new.

Swell. Adaptive persons do survive ... according to Darwin.

Hehehe ... See you later then, I guess?

Before my wishful thinking transcends the smooching level.

Something
good happened
today.

Did something good happen
today?
