

PETS OF RUSTY TOWERS, Twitch's Goodbye Interlude, image description

Image ID: Pets of Rusty Towers. This is a vertical, two panel comic.

Panel 1 is a picnic scene. The sky is blue, the grass is green, and a large flat brown stump sits in the middle of the screen with a dark red picnic cloth on top. On the stump on the left side there is a metal teapot with five copper mugs. Next to that is a red and white checkered cloth with raspberries and pink candies on top. In the centre of the table rests a plate made of wood with 8 watermelon slices. To the right of the stump is a brown woven picnic basket filled with food. There is a light green pear, a brown loaf of bread, a wedge of cheese, two red apples, a heap of purple grapes, four carrots and a bunch of bananas. There is also the corner of a red cloth with white spots.

At the top left side of the panel is a brown tree branch overstretching the table with a couple green leaves at the end of the branch. Perched upon the branch from left to right are Tim's three light brown degus clutching one another, the front degu holding a whole watermelon. Besides them sits Nico's black cat, Jake, with one orange under his right paw. Lastly, we've got all of Lydia's chickens, from left to right there's the fluffy brown Bandit, then the light grey raptor holding a red apple, then the large Beans with a black head and faded orange body, then the small grey Static with black speckles. Hanging from the branch by a white web is a little black spider with a white chef's hat on. Hanging from the branch under the Degus is Lowri's cuddly toy, a faded pink octopus named Oscapus. Oscapus has three tentacles wrapped around a branch, three more disappearing off the left side of the panel, and one more holding up a yellow banana.

Sitting around the stump are the rest of the pets. From left to right along the back of the table we start with Hannah B. and Alex's black lab puppy, Ripley, who is standing with her paws on the stump looking at the food and drink spread. Next to Ripley is Jeffrey's light tan dog Mu, also standing with her paws on the stump. Then we see Casper, Alex and Hannah's grey with darker grey striped cat with his signature toothy smile and dark blue bowtie. Suzanne's dog, Dash, is putting pink candies onto the picnic cloth square. Dash is a dark grey Cocker Spaniel with a light grey chin. Peeking out next to Dash is Navy's dog Leggs, a orange-brown fluffy long haired dog. Cathy's cuddly toy Mr.Bear is next, a brown bear with a pink and white shirt with a black heart in the middle. Mr.Bear is helping Dash pack the picnic cloth with raspberries. Central on the table, next to Mr.Bear, stands Tai's rabbit, Twitch. Twitch is a grey-brown rabbit with a darker grey moustache and a red cap. He is holding a carrot and smiling. Next up are Mike's comfort crew members Chonko and Derek. Chonko is a very fluffy grey hedgehog with a white face and tan nose, ears and paws. Derek is a camel with grey-tan fur and dark brown hair on top of his head and hump. Then comes Cathy's cuddly toy Dente, a green t-rex with a white belly and dark green stripes on their back and legs. Peeking out over the top of the picnic basket is Marissa's pit bull, Dee. Dee has short white fur with a light brown patch on one ear and over the opposite ear and eye, as well as a light pink patch under her nose. Then comes Rhys' fluffy light grey cat, Bugsy. On the right side of the panel next sits Tessa's tan and dark grey dog Tikka, her pink tongue hanging out. Just beside her sits April's small fluffy dog Chewie with his pink tongue hanging out. Chewie has light brown fur with a grey strip above his nose and a grey swath on his chest and back.

In front of the stump from left to right sits one puppy and five cats. Next to Ripley we see Suzanne's English Springer Spaniel puppy, Cookie. Cookie is sitting and has light grey fur with black spots as well as a brown patch at his lower back and on his ears and eyes. Between two thick brown roots sit three cats in a little huddle. First is Jeffrey's cat Ollie, a fluffy black cat with green eyes, a white triangle on his chest and white paws. Ollie is wearing a green pointed cap with a shiny black rim, red ribbon and a gold paw print emblem. In the middle sits Katie's orange cat Kit with a purple moth on her head. Kit has darker orange stripes on her tail and a darker orange patch on her head and ears. Then sits Jeffrey's other cat, Sweet Pea. Sweet Pea has a pink nose, light brown fur with many thin darker brown stripes on her back, arms, legs, tail, cheeks and forehead. She also has dark brown ears and a flat-topped black cap with a light grey rim. On the right side between two roots sit the final two cats, Hannah P.'s fluffy furballs. First is Bumpy with black fur, white eyes, a white chin and tummy and paws. He's wearing a black top hat with a red ribbon along the base. Next to him sits Calvin in a signature Calvin yoga pose, one back leg out to the right and the other to the left with his fluffy tail draped over one leg. Calvin has light grey fur with a white chin and belly as well as white front legs. Calvin is wearing a tiny red dome cap with a green leafed sprout sticking out the top. Both of the cats are looking at the halved orange cantaloupe that sits between them with a silver spoon sticking out the middle.

In the second panel we see two rolling green hills speckled with yellow dandelions and white daisies. The sky is light blue with a large yellow sun peeking out over the hills with orange rays stretching from the sun. A brown trail curves off into the distance. Three black silhouettes wave from the bottom, the left silhouette a cat, then a large dog, then a bear with two arms up. This is Casper, Dash and Mr.Bear. They are waving off a lone figure on the trail, a little rabbit carrying a white and red checkered knapsack on a stick. This is Twitch's goodbye.
