

MEANWHILE, ELSEWHERE IN THE
DISUSED LIBRARY BUILDING...

A woman with short black hair, wearing an orange turtleneck sweater, a dark pleated skirt, orange knee-high socks, and black shoes, stands in a doorway. She is looking into a dark, empty room with her right hand on the door frame. The room has a checkered tile floor and a wall with a grid pattern. A pink speech bubble is next to her.

HMMMMMM...

A woman with short grey hair and black-rimmed glasses is climbing a dark, industrial staircase. She is wearing a bright orange turtleneck sweater and dark shorts. She is looking up and to the left with a determined expression. The staircase is made of dark metal with a rough, textured surface. The background is dark and industrial, with some red lighting visible on the right side.

A woman with short brown hair and glasses, wearing a red turtleneck sweater and a black pleated skirt, stands in a dimly lit basement. She is looking towards the right. The walls are made of rough, textured concrete. A bright light fixture is visible on the ceiling to the right. A speech bubble points to her from the right.
