

“That damn devil Towa!!!”

If there was anyone at Hololive that could make such a blood curling scream, it was most certainly the cute white haired angel Amane Kanata. Despite being one of the smallest and cutest girls in the entire company, the fierceness of Kanata’s character was very well known. She not only possessed the gorilla grip strength to crush anything with her bare hands, but there was also sadistic side to her that could send shivers down the spine of even the bravest members. Though most of the time Kanata was actually quite sweet and demure, whenever she got riled up, things became very crazy very fast.

“I teach her my magical cock shrinking technique and this is what I get in return?!?”

Today was one such occasion, when Kanata’s rage got the better of her. Cute face scrunched up in a deathly scowl, Kanata could feel her blood boiling in frustration. Poor Kanata was so thin and slender, even this slightest bit of tension was enough to make the muscles in her arms and legs bulge through her skin, along with the vague shape of a six-pack on her flat tummy. But more than her muscles, the one thing that fully succumbed to Kanata’s anger was the angel’s enormous, girthy and throbbing girl-cock.

In much the same way that Kanata’s vast strength did not fit her cutesy angel persona, Kanata’s massive, great primate sized penis came in stark contrast to her angelic and slim figure. The gargantuan member stretched as far as that of a horse, its cockhead easily reaching up to her flat chest. Its tip was pretty wide and flat, its shaft thick enough Kanata couldn’t even wrap her hands around it. And to top the whole thing off, she also came with a set of two big, rounded, plump balls, as well as Kanata’s tight pussy underneath. Most of the time, Kanata would keep it away with her cock shrinking technique. But today, she really had to blow off some steam.

With one incredibly powerful motion, Kanata thrust her hips down onto the bed. Below her, Kanata’s girlfriend, the sexy dragon Kiryu Coco, took the entirety of Kanata’s cock in one fell swoop. Coco’s face distorted into pure pleasure as her pussy’s inner walls were stretched to their limit by Kanata’s ridiculously large penis. The cock’s imprint bulged right through her stomach almost as if she was getting skewered, causing every inch of Coco’s body to tremble with ecstasy. Kanata was much bigger and fatter than any of Coco’s Asacoco style plugs. The way she moved with such viciousness and force was nothing short of mesmerizing. Even when Kanata became angry grew out of control, Coco was always happy to be her girlfriend’s supportive fleshlight.

“Even though it’s supposed to be my technique-!” Kanata continued complaining, her words accentuated by the continuous back and forth rocking of her hips. “Somehow she gets to grow her boobs and become a big, sexy lady while I remain painfully tiny and pettan!!!”

It was an assertion as true as it was annoying. While Towa’s transformed body was that of a plump, voluptuous MILF with massive tits and a fat ass, when Kanata used her angel magic, the only thing she could do was shrink her member. Kanata’s chest remained as flat as ever, just a pair of tiny pink nubs for nipples on top of what was basically a cutting board. Kanata’s ass was nothing impressive either, soft enough for her to sit on but lacking any sort of meat to its bones. Combined with the fact that Kanata’s cock was bigger and her muscles were so much more defined, poor Kanata could have easily been confused for a guy. The severe lack of femininity she exuded had always been a sensitive point for the grumbling angel.

“Not to mention how that bitch openly flaunted about having her own sex slave, Luna!” Kanata raged on, letting her anger and arousal build further. “While we’ve struggled to keep our own relationship secret! Even to our closest friends!!!”

As Kanata’s fury built up, so did her rampant sexual desire. Kanata’s hips bucked back and forth with increasing speeds, the force of her thrusts audible from the way sound of their slapping bodies rang into the room. Her fat penis found its home in the depths of Coco’s flexible pussy, which always tightly clung onto the angel’s penis no matter how much Kanata stretched Coco out. Fueled both by her indignation towards Towa as well as her affection for Coco, Kanata made sure to thoroughly scramble Coco’s pussy with her penis. The flowing passion she felt in her veins was downright intoxicating.

“And that little accident she had on the R-18 member stream? Where she turned all those viewers into horny Luna and Towa clones?!?” Kanata’s breathing was heavy, her heart palpitating from all the pleasure and anger that surged through her. “That’s so hot!!! I wish WE could turn our fans into horny clones of us!!!”

Head tilting backwards in bliss, Kanata immersed her body in all the pleasure that surrounded her whole. Kanata’s cock was throbbing like crazy, her cockhead lovingly drilling against the entrance of Coco’s womb. It felt so good to finally let her frustrations out like this! There was nothing better than having a girlfriend that could both support Kanata’s emotional needs as well as tremendous sexual desires. Kanata could feel it, the two were perfectly linked in body and mind. While Kanata’s cock rearranged Coco’s insides, the two could also connect in their deepest issues.

Kanata expected Coco to agree ecstatically with every word she’d said, supporting her girlfriend through all of her worries. Coco’s mind however, was focused on other things.

“Mmmffff~ Y-Yeah~! Y-Yeah- F-F-Fuuuckkk~~~” Coco responded in a totally mindless manner, eagerly pushing her lower body against Kanata. “T-That’s great~ Y-Your cock feels soooo good~”

In an instant, all of Kanata’s pleasure halted. The girl’s body halted in place, a sense of shock filling her.

“Have you been listening to a single word I said?!?” Kanata yelped with abject frustration, now devoid of that lust intoxicating lust which had been buzzing at the back of her mind.

“Yeah, yeah, I’ve been listening Kanatan.” Coco replied with a tired sigh. “I just don’t think it’s that big of a deal! Towa and Luna are our fellow gen mates, you shouldn’t be jealous of them.”

It was pretty clear on Kanata’s face that she felt betrayed. But Coco was ready to ease her worries. She leaned closer to Kanata, shooting her a dazzling, suave smile.

“Besides! I don’t care about ‘flaunting our relationship’ or ‘turning our fans into horny clones’ or whatever.” Coco spoke earnestly, her pussy pulsating lovingly around Kanata’s cock. “I know you feel bad about being pettan but... It doesn’t matter to me if you’ve got big breasts or a big butt, you’re my Kanatan and I love you the way you are.”

All Kanata could respond with was a loud gulp. Her heart was thumping louder than ever before, face flushed with a bright red embarrassing blush. There was no downplaying how happy Kanata was to hear those sincere words of affection from Coco. She was probably more elated and aroused now than she had been just before. They were the exact words needed to soothe Kanata's insecurities. In most cases, Kanata would probably just forget about whatever was bothering her and the two would indulge in loud, passionate love making. But today, Kanata needed a little bit more than words.

"You... You..." Kanata stuttered. "Y-You damn big titted cow!!!"

Lunging towards coco, Kanata wrapped both of her hands around Coco's ridiculously fat breasts. Of course, Coco's tits were so large, Kanata could barely grasp but a little percentage of their total mass. But Kanata made use of what little she could get her hands on by focusing on Coco's stiff nipples, which twitched with desire. Fingers tightly clenching onto Coco's areolas, Kanata began to twist and turn Coco's sensitive nipples, eliciting several aroused moans from the horny dragon.

"You just don't understand my plight cus you have such huge, fat udders that don't let you think!!!" Kanata complained, desperation mixed in with lust for a destructive combo. "I wanna be boing boing! I want to show off how much we love each other!" A nefarious glimmer of lust shimmered within Kanata's eyes, cock throbbing with a mighty need to punish Coco's indiscretion. "If you don't get it then- Then I'll just have to show it to you!!!"

In what could only be described as a fit of flustered frustration, Kanata started to slam her huge dick into Coco's pussy with twice as much fury as before. The cute blushing angel tried her best to hide her embarrassment as her hips smashed violently against Coco's ass, her fat penis throbbing wildly within the confines of Coco's tight draconic cunt. With her hands still firmly grasping onto Coco's titflesh, Kanata groped and squeezed her girlfriend's breasts to the rhythm of her thrusting. Kanata's lust and anger were only amplified by the genuine feelings of affection she felt towards Coco. It energized the entirety of her body, pushing her desires to their furthest extreme.

Faced with so much overwhelming pleasure, it only made sense that neither Kanata nor Coco came close to noticing the way Kanata's wings started glowing with an unfamiliar white splendor. The shuriken-shaped halo that floated atop Kanata's began to twirl around its axis in circles, an aura of sparkling glitter forming around Kanata whole. Unbeknownst to the duo, it seemed Kanata had somehow accidentally activated her angelic magic in the middle of their sexual encounter. Not just any magic either. The buzzing spell that awoke from Kanata's passion and anger was one that would thoroughly change life as she knew it...

What Kanata did notice was how much better Coco's pussy was feeling with every thrust she made. The tightness of Coco's vaginal walls increased by at least twice, its soft mushy insides squeezing against Kanata's shaft and refusing to let go. Thick amounts of energy began to course through Kanata's body, revitalizing her legs and fortifying her movements. It almost felt like Kanata's veins were being injected with pure vitality. No matter how much she pushed or how hard she fucked, her cock continued to smash through Coco's cunt without even the slightest of efforts.

On the opposite end of the spectrum was poor Coco. Whereas Kanata felt like she could have kept going for hours, Coco was already running out of breath. Whilst Kanata's strength allowed her legs to shoot forth and repeatedly pound Coco's tight pussy, Coco could scarcely move any one of her limbs herself. The poor girl let out a desperate moan. There was this strange mystical sensation coursing through her, like it was sapping her of her life force. Yet the sensation was so intoxicatingly delicious Coco didn't want it to stop. She loved the way Kanata's ever fiercely cock endlessly dominated her. The sensation of Kanata's weight was as asphyxiating as it was exhilarating. Even if Coco could tell there was something strange going on, she couldn't bear to even try and stop it.

All of these flurries of sensations finally came to a head the moment Kanata noticed a very impactful oddity. For the past couple of minutes, the horny angel had been using Coco's titanic melons as support to pound Coco's pussy. This way, she could tease the cow for having such fat titties while also having something to keep her stable as she smashed Coco senseless. But all of a sudden, her grip on Coco's tits became looser. The amount of breast flesh between Kanata's fingers decreased. In a matter of seconds, the advantage Kanata held over Coco had been stripped away, her entire balance thrown out of whack. With a shocked rumbling feeling in her stomach, Kanata quickly turned towards Coco's chest, only to unearth a harrowing discovery. Coco's breasts had shrunk.

It wasn't just a one-time thing either. As Kanata continued to stare at Coco's breasts in a state of absolute shock, she could see her girlfriend's tits shrinking cup by cup. All of that incredible softness deflated back into Coco's chest, their supple round shape flattening into a boney, squarish sets of pecs. With each passing second, Kanata's hands felt emptier and emptier, until they were pressed against a flat cutting board. Coco's nipples were still as stiff and bouncy as before, though the incredible G-Cup tits that had formed such a big part of Coco's character were now nothing more than a dream.

But strangely enough, for some reason Kanata wasn't as concerned as much as she should have been. Instead of the disappearance of her girlfriend's voluptuous tits, Kanata's attention was focused on the strange sensations bubbling within her own chest. Kanata's flat, tiny A-cups began to quake on their own, all of that rippling energy that had been sizzling through her body now centralizing in her bust. Her nipples grew hard and sensitive, pink nubs shooting forth as they quivered with desire. Kanata couldn't help but hold her breath. It felt like something great was burning inside her, and all of it was about to-!

Bwoooooomp!!!

Like a pair of balloons being blasted full of helium, Kanata's tits suddenly exploded outwards in size. Each one of them inflated from formless plains to shapely, round orbs, slowly rolling down Kanata's chest as they grew bigger and bigger. The thickening bust jiggled and bounced from the explosion in soft, malleable mass, pulling down on Kanata's inexperienced shoulders from their newfound weight. Cup after cup, Kanata's tits grew larger. From barren Rushia cutting boards to astronomical Sana sized planetary orbs. In just a matter of seconds, Kanata's breast were not only larger than her own head, they were far bigger than even Coco's had ever been

As Kanata stared down at her brand new set of breasts, the only thing she could feel was an swelling sensation of joy. This was it! The pair of boing boings Kanata had always dreamed of! Slowly bringing her hands towards her thumping bust, Kanata eagerly squeezed her enormous tits. Eyes rolling to the back of her head, Kanata's voice cried out unwittingly. It was an incredible sensation for her hand, which got to experience the most amazing, pudding-like texture that melted around her fingers, while also being thoroughly enjoyable for her sensitive breasts themselves. No longer would Kanata have to suffer from pettan jokes or be discriminated against for her smaller figure. Starting today, the true breadth of Kanata's femininity would be not just accepted, but straight up embraced.

And her body was far from done changing either. Very soon, the same energy that had concentrated within Kanata's bust was spreading out to every part of her body. Kanata's arms, legs and torso stretched upwards, giving her inch after inch of height until she was almost twice as tall as before. Her tummy shrank into a taut, smooth belly, hips flaring outwards to give her a set of thick, rounded curves. That's when Kanata's thighs began to thicken, her legs growing plumper and fatter with each second. The previously fully flat butt that had been a shame to Kanata exploded forth with jiggling mass in the same way as Kanata's breasts. While her thighs girthened into thick drumsticks full of soft, supple mass, her buttocks grew into two enormous orbs of fat that wiggled with the slightest of movements.

Perhaps the most insidious change of all however, was the way in which Kanata's appearance became slightly more feminine and mature. The hair on Kanata's head grew a tiny bit longer, just enough to make the androgynous haircut look decidedly womanly. Her cute angel face seemed to mature as its features became sharper, whilst her voice dropped only a couple of decibels. All of these tiny little changes combined to give Kanata the aura of a mature and sexy onee-san, the likes one would only find in eromanga. Kanata was as tall as Noel, her sexual allure as high as that of Marine. It's not just that Kanata's assets were bigger or that she looked older, rather Kanata had become the complete package, an incredibly attractive older woman that could captivate the desire of all who gazed upon her.

Of course, by this point Kanata had come to realize that all of this newfound beauty and thickness didn't come without consequence. This much was apparent by looking down at Coco below her. Coco's breasts were completely drained, nothing left of their existence but their skin. Coco's waist stretched out on each side at the same time as her shoulders broadened. While still quite big and fat, her ass and legs seemed to shrink considerably. Even her voice, which was crying out in bliss unaware of her changes, became just a tad bit raspier than before. It was as if bit by bit, Coco was becoming slightly more boyish.

There was certainly a part of Kanata that felt bad seeing her girlfriend being stripped of all of her incredible sexual assets. But on the other hand... This was the first time Kanata had ever experienced having a big, sexy, womanly body, so there was no way she was going to let this go to waste~ Empowered by the incredible beauty and sensitivity of her new form, Kanata grabbed onto Coco's waist and started plowing her girlfriend's cunt once more. Kanata's cock swelled through Coco's stomach with an utterly massive bulge, every inch of her cock etched into Coco's skin. Her fat meaty legs gave her the strength to continuously thrust again and again into the depths of Coco's cunt, effortlessly stretching the slimy vaginal walls that clung onto her member with increasing tightness. The way Coco's womb wrapped around the tip of Kanata's head was marvelous, suckling onto her tip as if it was her personal condom.

Except, Coco's pussy didn't just feel tighter, it was actively shrinking!! Kanata quickly caught on to this fact as the tightness around her dick reached unprecedented levels. Every square inch of her cock was being constricted firmly, Coco's vaginal walls wrapping around Kanata's girth as if they were a condom. Though Kanata was now stronger and hornier than ever before, she could barely move a single inch inside of Coco. Rather than ramming through Coco's pussy, it was Coco's pussy that moved along to the motions of Kanata's dick. While Kanata herself wasn't quite sure why Coco's pussy was collapsing in on itself, one thing remained crystal clear. She had to pull out from Coco as soon as possible.

The task wasn't as easy as it might have seemed, however. At this point, Coco's womb had shrunken so much, there was no space for Kanata's dick to retreat. With a set of heavy grunts, Kanata began to pull her butt backwards as hard as possible. Her hands held Coco firmly in place, heavy tits wobbling with every shake of her body. The intensity of Coco's grip was reaching such high levels, it was actually starting to hurt Kanata's throbbing shaft.

Yet throughout it all, the horny Coco just moaned out like a bitch in heat. To her, this was the hardest and most passionate Kanata had ever fucked her. There was an entirely new sensation cooking within her womb, this new emerging type of throbbing arousal she'd never experienced before. It didn't just feel like Kanata was ravaging her insides, it was as if her very biology was molding around Kanata's cock. Fully unaware of the collapse of her womanhood, Coco merely continued to push her cunt against Kanata's crotch, her entire body pulsating with desire as their organs met. Almost like a game of cat and mouse, the two pushed and pulled against each other until-

POP!!

Recoiling backwards from an excess of energy, Kanata stumbled a couple of steps away as her penis was finally freed from the depths of Coco's ravenous cunt. Taking a moment to catch her balance, Kanata turned her attention onto Coco's crotch. That's when she finally understood the totality of it all. Coco's plump, pink vaginal walls had completely sealed up, and in its stead all that remained was a plump little sack. The cute sagging pouch was as dainty as it was wrinkled, little more than a pair of cherry sized lumps stuck within. What had once been a very womanly and succulent organ was now little more than a cute pair of nuts.

Coco's clit, the last remnant of her womanly organ, began to throb madly as it grew. The little member expanded into the size of a pinky finger, thick sensitive skin wrapping around its entire length and covering its whole tip. But... That was it. The little nub remained remarkably petite. Though it protruded forth with stiffness as hard as it could, Coco's new member could barely make it over the one inch mark. For a few seconds, Kanata wondered if something had gone wrong, or if there was still more to come. But then she realized. This was it. Coco's pussy had been transformed into a penis. A cute, minuscule boy dick.

"Hngghh...~?" Noticing the sudden halting of Kanata's thrusts but still mildly ignorant of her own changes, Coco turned towards Kanata with a desperate expression. "K-Kanatan~? W-W-What's going on?!?" She asked with a breathy voice, though it was quite clear she was more curious about why Kanata had stopped fucking her over the physical changes her form had undergone.

"Don't worry Coco-chan~" A malevolent expression spread across Kanata's lips. Slowly she approached Coco once more, dick trembling with uncontrollably desire. "It's time I teach you how it feels to be pettan~"

Grabbing onto her massive dick with both hands, Kanata pushed the tip of her penis against the length of Coco's mini dick. Instantly, Coco's body exploded with ecstasy in response. The dragon began to grumble incomprehensibly, her hips desperately thrusting against Kanata's dickhead. Though her new member might have been small, the sensation of male stimulation was beyond anything she'd ever experienced. Her small penis was perfectly encased the ridge of Kanata's penis, her length throbbing excitedly from the softness and plumpness of Kanata's cockhead. Coco's cock was so small, it could have perfectly fit inside of Kanata's gaping urethra. But Kanata never Coco to penetrate her hole, leaving it close enough to entice Coco but always pulling back at the right time.

As this new type of boyish pleasure began to build within Coco, she could start to tell there was something off. Slowly her gaze drifted down to her own body, where she was met with the horrors that had utterly transformed her form. Those incredible breasts that had previously made all of her fellow Hololive members horny and jealous were totally gone, replaced with tiny flat plains and slutty pink nipples. Gone was her incredibly plump and meaty pussy, which had been replaced with a small, boy dick that would never come close to satisfying a woman. It didn't take a genius to realize that Coco had been transformed into a boy! Her new flat, slender form was but a mockery of her original sexy figure!

But... For some reason she just didn't care! The feeling of her tiny boy cock rubbing against Kanata's superior penis was just unmatched. Despite the fact her breasts were null, her erect bitch nipples were just as sensitive and needy as before. Not to mention how hot Kanata's new form seemed to be, with those titanic jugs and the womb-destroying penis. Within just a few seconds of pumping, Coco's little dick was already producing incredible amounts of precum. Pleasure spread from his twitching penis to the entirety of his body, filling his every inch with excruciating bliss. It was like her mind and body were connecting together perfectly. If this is the sort of pleasure she could feel as a male then... Coco would happily become Kanata's slutty boy toy~

In one final majestic upwards thrust, Coco smashed his hips upwards as hard as he could. His erect penis throbbed madly in the open air, twitching up and down as if it was about to unleash an orgasm of explosive proportions.

"I'm-!! I'm-!!! I'm cumming!!!!" Screaming at the top of his lungs, Coco embraced his new femboy identity as he felt climax fill his entire body.

Except, instead of a deluge of cum that one would expect from such an intense yelp, all that came out of Coco's little wimp dick were a few droplets of cum. The spurts of Coco's ejaculate sprung forth with the force of a light breeze, barely picking a couple inches off the ground before falling back down with even greater force. His essence was thin and watery, its color almost entirely transparent. One could have easily mistaken such a whimpering discharge to be precum. Kanata merely smiled at such a whimpering display.

"Heh, you call that an orgasm~?" The dominant angel cooed in an ominous form. With a hefty motion, she slammed her entire penis on top of Coco's softening dick, crushing the tiny member underneath her mountain of girth. "No, this is an orgasm~"

Pulling both of Coco's still somewhat thick legs shut, Kanata sandwiched her now boyfriend's thighs around her girthy penis as she started to thrust forward violently. It was the same type of motion she'd often done when fucking Coco's pussy, except now her fat, throbbing, girlcock was rubbing against every inch of Coco's form. The base of her penis was perfectly encased with the pillowy thigh meat of Coco's legs, which melted around her shaft as if it was clay. Kanata's hard shaft pressed tightly against Coco's totally flat tummy, feeling its every ridge and dent in detail. Even the tip of her cock rubbed against the flatness of Coco's bust, leaving a trail of precum with each of its bobs.

Throughout this entire experience, Coco's tiny boy penis remained crushed between his crotch and Kanata's heavy, steamy cock. Every time Kanata moved, Coco's dick with be forcefully rubbed along in whichever direction. Though his penis was still incredibly sensitive from his latest climax, the thick amounts of heat and stimulation brought about from Kanata's cock sprung him all the way too life. It was just too much for a newly born boy like him to handle! In a desperate attempt to retain its sanity, Coco's body began to instinctively wriggle and push Kanata away.

“Nggghhh~~~ K-K-K-Kanataaaaaan~~~” Coco gasped loudly, eyes rolling to the back of his head while pleasure overwhelmed his every thought. “S-S-Stop p-pleeaaasseeeee~ I-It feels to goooooooooood~~~”

Unfortunately for the overwhelmed Coco, Kanata had no intention of stopping. The way Coco’s slender, thin, femboyish body rubbed against her shaft filled Kanata’s cock with life. Ever since they’d met, Coco had always been so much softer and plumper than Kanata could have ever dreamed of being. But now here they were, with Coco’s body in such a sleek state whilst all of his excess curves now adorned Kanata’s thick, wobbly form. It filled Kanata with a sense of superiority that sent shivers of pleasure down her spine. This was the sort of body an elite angel like her deserved~

Totally overwhelmed by a combination of physical and emotional satisfaction, Kanata flung her head back in pleasure. An incredible rumbling began to course through her gargantuan cock, powerful, violent throbbing that could make anyone close mistake them for earthquakes. Even Coco, who was struggling to stay tethered to the real world was easily able to notice that something big was coming. Kanata’s balls began to gurgle loudly, each one of her nuts thickening and bubbling as they expanded outwards. The length of Kanata’s shaft began to bulge and girthen, urethra slowly stretching from the base of her crotch, up to the tip of her member until-!!!

SPLUUUUUUUURRTTTTT~~~

Like a dormant volcano awakening to its first mega eruption in thousands of years, Kanata’s cock exploded into an incredibly massive and powerful orgasm the likes very few had ever seen before. Cum streamed freely from the tip of Kanata’s cock, cascading forth until it totally inundated every inch of Coco’s body. The ferocious current of Kanata’s spurting was so strong that it completely covered the entirety of Coco’s face in seconds. Coco’s vision was white, semen poured into his nose and mouth entirely unimpeded. The poor dragon boy had to sputter and cough as hard as possible in order to just stay alive. Not that this seemed to even bother Coco in the slightest, for the mere act of struggling was enough to make the boy’s throbbing penis ejaculate even harder than before, his tiny member happily spurting against Kanata’s much mightier cock.

With a big sigh of satisfaction, Kanata felt her body relax, taking in the gentle afterglow of her orgasm. A few seconds after the peak of her orgasm, the flow of her penis had relaxed a bit from that of a high pressure hose to a more reasonable gentle stream. The angel let go of Coco’s legs, which fell limply onto the bed twitching as if they had short circuited. However, there was perhaps no greater reward for Kanata than the sight of Coco completely slathered in her thick, angel batter.

From Coco’s midsection up, there was nothing left of Coco but a big splotch of white in a vaguely humanoid shape. Coco’s arms remained completely buried in jizz, though Kanata could see his fingers twitching from within their prison of goop. The only thing that poked out of Coco’s jizz slathered chest were his nipples, which twitched every couple of seconds. The inundated plain of white was such a drastic change from Coco’s usually titanic mounds of flesh that Kanata could scarcely believe it. Finally, there was Coco’s head, which was just as swamped in Kanata’s semen as the rest of his body. All the evidence Kanata had that Coco was still alive was the continuous bubbling that surged from her face. Coco didn’t make any sudden or sharp movements, but Kanata was sure his was just enjoying the afterglow of his own orgasm.

R-Right...? As time began to pass and Coco remained completely immobile, Kanata began to worry just a tad bit. Had she perhaps gone too hard on her now boyfriend? Did she not give him enough time to adjust to his new body before overwhelming him with pleasure? Kanata liked being rough with Coco, but at the end of the day she still loved him quite a lot. If she'd hurt him in any way then-

But just as the worry began to bubble within Kanata, Coco sat up on the bed with a sharp movement. His tongue slurped up some of the oozing cum from his mouth, hands swiping off some more semen from his face to give him vision once more. Eyes turning towards Kanata, he gazed directly at his girlfriend's face.

"That... Was... MOTHER FUCKING AWESOME!!!"

Bolting up with a yelp of pure energy, the new Coco started to bounce on the bed excitedly. There was no semblance of discomfort or negativity in his demeanor. The dragon boy had genuinely enjoyed his time with Kanata, and he seemed to be taking to his own new body quite nicely.

"Well... Cleaning up the cum from my hair is gonna be a pain in the ass." Coco commented, his hands vainly attempting to squeeze out the oozing, sticky seed out of his long flowing orange hair. "But getting turned into a boy was fucking cool! And you look so different now too!"

"Oh yes...~ I must have unlocked a new kind of angel magic." Kanata spoke with a sense of pride. She raised her chest and pushed it forth, as if she was happy to show off her enlarged and overflowing breasts. "One which somehow lets me... Steal another person's femininity and add it to my own body!"

As if to accentuate her words, Kanata lifted her hands and wrapped them around her titanic bust. With a low, bellowing grunt, she began to shamelessly grope herself in front of Coco. Kanata just couldn't resist. The heat and lust that emanated from her incredibly plump tits was so far removed from her previously pitiful flat chest, it lulled her senses like a hypnotic charm. The way her fingers just melted into her soft, malleable titflesh sent reverberations of pleasure through Kanata's body that would echo again and again. In response to all of this stimulation, Kanata's cock slowly grew erect once more. But sex was not all that the big angel had in the brain now.

"Do you know what this means, Coco-chan?!" A flash of excitement surged on Kanata's face, one which was flushed with thick amounts of perverted, dominating desire. "With these powers, I can finally have my revenge on Towa!! I'll zap that little demon's femininity away and show her my superior body!!!"

"Geez, you're still stuck on Towa-chan, Kanatan?" Coco rolled his eyes at the assertion, though he continued to smile as brightly as ever. Even now he was still struggling to wipe the cum from his body, finding it difficult to remove the heavy amounts of cream between his steaming armpits. "There's no need to dwell on that anymore. I mean, look at yourself! Your body is totally fucking sexy right now!"

"It most certainly is~" Once again that bubbling sensation of pride rose from within Kanata, her cock eagerly throbbing to Coco's complement. "Though you look quite attractive yourself, you know."

While some people might have considered Coco's transformation a downgrade, the dragon boy wasn't particularly upset with his new form. In fact, he actually did agree with Kanata. His little quivering cock felt very nice, despite how small it was. He was so much slenderer and sleeker than before, making him feel a lot more agile. There was nothing for him to really complain about. Nevertheless, the coy Coco would never let up a good opportunity to tease Kanata.

“You’re just saying that just so you don’t feel bad about stealing my femininity, huh~?” He responded to Kanata with a sly smile, his nefarious intention quite apparent in his glimmering eyes.

But Kanata didn’t catch it. Face mired with an earnest demeanor, she answered Coco honestly. “No, I really mean it.” It was plentily apparent from the way she longingly stared at Coco’s form that she was speaking from the heart. “At first, I was scared I wasn’t going to like you as much without your huge boobas. But honestly... You’re just as radiant as the day I met you. The breadth of your assets has no bearing on the splendor of your beauty.”

A huge blush came across Coco’s face.

“Oooooohhh, what a gallant lady~” His attempt at teasing Kanata had completely backfired, and now that she’d given him such a heartfelt confession, Coco couldn’t help but feel his heart thumping through his chest. Not that he could let her know that. To admit he was excited would be to admit defeat, he just had to keep teasing her until she felt as flustered as he did. “We just finished doing it Kanatan, are you really trying to get me in the mood again by flattering me~?”

“But it’s not flattery. I truly think you’re incredible Coco-chan.” And yet again, Coco’s teasing was dismantled in an instant. “Your butt might be flatter, but it’s still a perfectly round and shapely as ever. That flat chest of yours looks so tasty with those pink, twitching nipples poking out. And your cute cock looks adorable whenever it sputters to even the slightest stimulation. There’s not a part of your new body I don’t love.”

“Even if I’m fully a boy now~?” At this point, it was becoming increasingly hard for Coco to keep up his façade. Coco’s petite prick was fully erect, precum already oozing from under the foreskin of his penis. Slowly, he began to walk towards Kanata, his body twitching with desire for her touch. Coco couldn’t believe it, he was once again falling for Kanata’s prince mode! “Even though I just have a tiny penis and a butthole instead of a pussy~?”

“That doesn’t matter to me Coco.” Gaze blazing with the fire of genuine affection, Kanata too stepped closer to Coco. Her eyes stared directly into Coco’s, blue irises shimmering with lust and love. The two only stopped as their faces rested mere inches away from each other. “Regardless of what kind of organs you might have, my heart will always thump for you.”

Like two interstellar giants colliding in space, Kanata’s and Coco’s mouths crashed together into a black hole of kissing and groaning. Their eyes flicked closed in unison, lips lovingly suckling and tugging at each other. All of the passion that had built up from their previous interaction was now overflowing all of the place, a display of the depths the duo felt for each other. Even in these altered forms, the flames of desire within them burned as bright as ever.

“Mmmffffff~” Coco groaned happily as she felt Kanata’s tongue delve into the depths of his mouth. Even for a kiss, Kanata was so dominant and forceful it sent shivers down his spine. As the two finally separated, Coco glared at Kanata with a look of pure, unadulterated hunger. “You know Kanatan, I think I have a better idea than revenge~”

Unable to resist his urges any longer, Coco turned his back towards Kanata as he began to rub her meaty cock between his buttcheeks. Coco’s face glimmered with a perverted expression, his butthole eagerly twitching in desperate, lustful desire. The way Kanata’s girthy penis throbbed against Coco’s crack was nothing short of divine. Its heat pressed intimately into Coco's tight boyhole, cockhead continuously and tenderly nudging against the rim of his butt. Kanata's fat penis was so wide and firm, it left Coco totally breathless even before it had even started to penetrate him. Coco needed that cock inside him, and he knew that he wasn't the only one who was desperately horny.

"Hmmm~" Though Kanata tried to maintain a modicum of restraint, it was more than apparent from her massively throbbing dick that she was just as raring to go. "I suppose... There's really no need to rush~"

A giddy sensation filled Coco's stomach as he waited for Kanata to take him. He expected Kanata to pounce on top of him like a Lion coming down on a helpless gazelle, smushing him down on the bed with her now bigger and thicker for. But Kanata had other plans... Hands grabbing onto Coco's thighs, Kanata lifted the dragon boy off the bed and up into the air. Coco's legs wriggled with excitement, shivers of pleasure mixed with a bit of dread running down his spine. Kanata hadn't even given him the courtesy of any sort of support besides herself. Spreading Coco's legs to each side, she firmly pushed her pecker against his butt. Coco's fate rested entirely within her hands, and its outcome seemed pretty obvious at this moment.

Smashing Coco down onto her crotch as if he was little more than a portable onahole, Kanata started to take over Coco's insides with her cock. The instant her cockhead had penetrated past Coco's quivering rim, the boy's overly sensitive penis was already ejaculating all over the place. His cries of ecstasy were accompanied by cute little spurts that came from his trembling thumb-sized dick. The tip of Kanata's cock was merely rubbing against Coco's new prostate as it journeyed further inside him, yet that alone was enough to force Coco to empty his cum reserves in one go. And Kanata was only getting started.

Though Kanata had pounded Coco's pussy many a times before, his ass was completely unexplored territory. Inch after inch, Kanata slowly pushed her expansive shaft further inside Coco's boyhole with the utmost care. Not because she was trying to be gentle with her boyfriend, heavens no. But because Coco's ass was so tight it almost paralyzed Kanata in utter bliss. Every little brush with Coco's insides was intense and filled with heat, a fierce resistance that tightened onto Kanata's cock like nothing had before. The way Coco's ass squeezed onto Kanata's shaft was unbearable, its twitching and throbbing sending shockwaves of pleasure through her entire cock. It almost felt like Kanata was doing something forbidden. Her cock was too big, Coco's butt too tight. The two shouldn't be able to fit and yet Kanata's mighty girlcock was skewering through Coco's insides regardless.

By the time Kanata had shoved the entirety of her penis inside of Coco's sphincter, crotch tenderly nuzzling with Coco's butt, the woman was already starting to build up some pleasure resistance. Kanata gave a confident, ecstatic grunt, face firming up into a more domineering expression. Brimming with newfound lust and energy, Kanata's hips began forcefully thrust into Coco's butt. Her cock slid in and out of Coco's rim, pulling and tugging at Coco's rigid inner walls with every motion. A switch had been turned inside of Kanata, no longer bound to the realms of Coco's tight boy butt.

Instead, her attention was shifting from Coco's sensitive butt to the dragon boy's expressive demeanor. Whilst Kanata had struggled to overcome the extraneous amounts of pleasure that came from Coco's slutty body, Coco had completely given himself to the debauchery. As a trail of tears ran down his cheeks, Coco gasped and moaned blissfully with a face of pure ahegao. He basked in the sensation of Kanata's cock bashing through his insides, its massive shaft so big and thick it bulged through his slender stomach at the front. The idea of such a girthy member remodeling his anus in its shape made him quiver ecstatically. Slowly but surely, Coco was transforming into the perfect, most breedable femboy fucktoy any girl could have dreamed of.

Fingers gently sliding up Coco's thighs and onto his tummy, Kanata shifted her grip onto Coco's midsection and began to mercilessly pound away at the dragon boy's ass. Her thrusts were twice as fierce as they had been before, cock smashing right through Coco's tight anal walls almost effortlessly. Coco's asscheeks clapped loudly again and again every time Kanata's hips violently slammed forth. The delectable cries of ecstasy in Coco's intonation as well as the utterly buzzing sensation of Coco's quivering ass all added fuel to the fire that was Kanata's raging lust.

"God~" Leaning in to Coco's ear, Kanata whispered seductively as she continued to ravage her boyfriend's ass. "You are such a perverted boy~"

With one fierce push, Kanata impaled the entirety of her fat, throbbing shaft into Coco's ass. The overly sensitive femboy gasped out in bliss, sputtering incomprehensible as he felt the massive member twitch inside him. It was clear from this point that Coco was being completely overwhelmed, but Kanata wanted to dominate him even more. Strutting her chest forth, Kanata pushed her fat, wobbly breasts against Coco's head. Kanata's plump titties plopped onto each of Coco's shoulders with a gelatinous bounce, wrapping lovingly around Coco's head. The two rounded protrusions were just as large as Coco's entire cranium, their bouncy fat oozed against each of Coco's cheeks, smothering in a heat of voluptuous womanly breasts.

"So, how does it feel~?" Kanata asked in a teasing tone. "To get smooshed by your own tits?"

Of course, Coco did not have a response. At least not a comprehensible one. While his ass continued to be plowed by Kanata's cock, his brain was slowly melting in the heat of Kanata's incredible breasts. It felt like he was literally drowning in tit mass. The more Kanata thrust, the more her breasts wobbled around Coco's head, bouncing and smushing intimately against her face. The delicious scent of Kanata's motherly mammaries infected Coco's nose, seeping into his nostrils with a thick sexual miasma. To think that at one point, those amazingly glorious breasts used to belong to Coco. Yet now, Kanata was using them to thoroughly humiliate and dominate Coco! It was the best sensation imaginable~

Kanata was far from done teasing Coco however. With her breasts still encasing the dragon boy's head, Kanata took her hand and slowly moved it below towards Coco's quivering micro penis. It only took two meager digits, her index and middle finger, to be able to easily grasp Coco's dick. And the moment they made contact with Coco's needy boycock, the dragon began to prematurely ejaculate all over the place with a series of pathetic spasms and meek yelps. By this point, Coco had cum so much that his semen was clear as water, completely dull and devoid of any sort of genetic material. His cock was desperately attempting to unleash his seed as a physiological response, but there was nothing more to release. The display was so lame it made Kanata shudder in delight.

"Jeez, Coco-kun~" Kanata's tone was one of disapproval, but the look on her face said perverted ecstasy. "You supposedly transformed into a boy, and yet your penis is so much more pitiful than mine~"

The abject humiliation Coco felt from Kanata's constant snide comments was palpable, and yet the pleasure he experienced from it all far outweighed any possible negativity they might have brought. While still sputtering dribbles of fully transparent pre, Coco started thrusting against Kanata's fingers. He pushed himself back against Kanata's chest, fully submerging himself in the heat of her expansive bust. Coco's feeble new form had brought him to new frontiers of masochistic pleasure.

Not only was Kanata's relentless bullying having deep effects on Coco's psyche, it was also revving up Kanata's own motors further and further. Seeing Coco's positive reactions, Kanata began thrusting harder and harder. By now, she'd smashed through Coco's insides with so much fury, there was no semblance of resistance coming from Coco's ass. While clinging onto Coco tightly with one arm, she continued to rub Coco's penis until she left him totally breathless. It was in this series of merciless attacks, as Kanata tried to drive Coco insane with pleasure, that her wings and golden halo started to glow once more.

The light was exactly the same as the one that had suddenly shown when she'd initially stolen Coco's femininity. Bubbling tingles started to amass deep within Kanata as well, except this time they pulsed with a much different nature. As Kanata kept thrusting inside of Coco, her bust started to tingle. Each one of her breasts began sinking back into her body, as if they'd sprung leaks and were slowly letting out their mass. Her butt shrank too, height slowly tipping out. Little by little, Kanata's precious gains were melting away, but she was so focused on fucking Coco that she was none the wiser.

Coco too seemed to undergo some changes of his own. The flat pecs and perky nipples on his chest bloomed forth, taking a rounder shape as they gained extra weight. Every inch of his slender body thickened with mass, from his thighs to his squarish hips and slowly expanding butt. Unlike Kanata however, Coco instantly noticed something was off. The delicious heat of that breast sandwiched he'd been submerged into was suddenly snatched away. As his body grew, Kanata's cock was starting to feel relatively smaller by the second. Opening his eyes and turning to Kanata, he was instantly met with the ethereal white glow of the angel's wings. In an instant, it all made sense.

"Kanatan look!" Coco gasped at the top of his lungs, genuine concern dipped in his voice. Kanata instantly stopped in response, taking her boyfriend's worry very seriously. "That new power of yours activated! It looks like you're returning my femininity!!"

Turning towards her own back, Kanata was able to witness her new power in real time. The heavenly glow that emanated from her wings was most certainly part of her angelic magic. She could feel her body bustling to the brim with all that mystical energy, sensing intricately the way it coursed through her and filled her up. Whereas before it had been an unconscious process, Kanata had been totally awakened to its inner workings. It was as if her third eye had opened it, allowing her the ability to wield this power to will her wildest desires.

The first thing Kanata did with this newfound control was regain some of that lost femininity she'd accidentally given back to Coco. Kanata groaned with ecstasy as she felt her breasts inflate once more, reclaiming the grandiose size and wobbliness she'd grown used to by now. Every little growth and expansion, from her thickening thighs and fattening butt, filled her with sexual pleasure that caused her girthy cock to throb excitedly. Unfortunately, this meant that Coco's body was to shrink once more. The small amount of breasts and ass she'd regrown had left just as quickly as it had returned. However, Kanata did bless Coco with a pair of supple B-Cup breasts. Given that she quite enjoyed playing with Coco's fat titties too much, it was the least she could do as thanks for Coco's donation.

It was only once Kanata had restored her enhanced form that she began to really experiment with her powers. Using just a shred of her femininity, she injected the feminine power back into Coco. This time however, the essence wasn't spread evenly. Kanata condensed it all in a single area, directing it through Coco's body like captain helming a ship. Coco shivered as he felt it slide through his insides, until it finally coalesced around his crotch.

Though Coco couldn't tell exactly what Kanata was doing, he most certainly felt its results. Coco's cock jumped at attention as the feminine essence started around his crotch. Directly underneath his cute ballsack, Kanata began to mold the boy's form by exerting her power. A set of puffy labia developed, parting open a beautifully slender pink slit. This new orifice slowly grew and evolved. Its tunnels extended into the depths of Coco's biology until it bloomed into a fully working womb. By the time the organ had finished forming, Coco instantly knew what it was.

"K-Kanatan?!" Coco gasped aloud, his new biology quivering with lust. "I-Is that-!?"

"That's right~" Kanata smiled lustfully. "You might still be a boy, but I've decided to give you back your pussy~"

As if to personally demonstrate her words, Kanata wasted no time moving her hands from Coco's tiny cock and onto his new pussy. After gently stretching his labia with two fingers, Kanata's digits effortlessly entered Coco's quivering cunt. The palm of Kanata's hand gently rubbed against Coco's balls whilst the tip of her fingers rubbed against Coco's inner vaginal walls. While Coco's dick throbbed with excitement, his pussy tenderly hugged and squelched onto Kanata's prodding fingers. It was truly impressive, despite having just been formed, Coco's pussy was fully normal and functional. The way it totally melted around Kanata's digits really made it feel like the pussy Kanata knew and loved~

The restauration of Coco's feminine organ allowed Kanata to attack the poor Coco in ways she could have only dreamed of before. The more Kanata caressed Coco's pussy, the more his asshole would squeeze and tremble in delight. Kanata's continuous pounding of Coco's prostate also made Coco's quivering penis throb excitedly. Each one of Coco's organs were intricately connected in a web of pleasure. Merely touching one would lead to a snowball effect of pleasure that came crashing down on the others, making it incredibly easy to tease Coco until he was teetering in the edge of ecstasy and madness.

Kanata wasn't solely interested in Coco's new pussy though. As Kanata continued viciously smashing her cock into Coco's ass, her hands flew upwards onto the small bust she'd graciously conferred Coco. The pair of tits weren't particularly massive. They each fit comfortably within her hands, enough mass to be plenty soft while not overflowing at every inch. Regardless, they were still more than enough to satisfy Kanata's desire to thoroughly grope her lover's tits. Kanata's thrusts were accompanied by her dexterous fingers, which sunk into Coco's bust, squeezing and groping at their own leisure. Her hands made sure to extract the most delectable squeals from Coco's voice as she tugged at his nipples and played with his teats. The way Kanata played freely with Coco's form almost made it feel like he belonged to her fully.

With each passing second, the intensity of Kanata's passionate fucking only grew, as did her pleasure. Her cock had become almost entirely accustomed to Coco's buttohole, embracing its mixture of tight stretchiness that rubbed every inch of her shaft comfortably. Coco's soft, boyish moans, as well as the malleability of his tender breasts were more than enough to send Kanata into a rut. She was far from the only one either. At this point, Kanata wasn't sure Coco was even processing where all of his pleasure was coming from, whether it was his twitching dick or quaking asshole. Nonetheless, his Coco's ecstasy was more than apparent. He'd delved into the deepest recesses of pleasure and only the strongest of orgasms would be able to relieve him now.

Summoning the last shreds of strength that she could pull, Kanata gave Coco a couple of final, imperative thrusts. After all this time, Kanata had finally put her shield down. Instead of resisting the pleasure, she gave in to the ecstasy in the same manner Coco had done. The wave of pleasure that hit her in response was unlike anything before. There was the literal physical pleasure that came from Coco's tight, anal walls wrapping around her girth. But more than that, there was also a sense of psychological bliss that washed over her too. Kanata basked in her total subjugation of Coco, she felt pride for her new body, savoring every inch of her perverse new form. This wasn't just any regular orgasm. Kanata was being reborn in pleasure.

And then finally, after what seemed like an eternity, Kanata roared with her tremendous orgasm. It was the type of orgasm that made the room reverberate around them, its effects forever changing the course of the world. Coco came too, but his orgasm was miniscule compared to the massive explosion of cum that was Kanata's climax. Like a flood washing upon a defenseless town, cum effortlessly blasted through Coco's insides. It overflowed his intestines, continuously shooting until it had easily reached the boy's tummy. Kanata's balls were relentless in the way they pumped out round after round of cum without fail, Kanata's urethra bulging as it coursed through its shaft in spurts.

With such copious amounts of semen flowing directly into Coco's belly, it did not take long for his tummy to start bulging. Coco happily groaned from the sensation of warmth that filled him, proof of Kanata's love for him as well as vindication to his desires. Along with his helplessly sputtering penis, Coco's tight ass trembled with the glow of climax. His pussy squirted as hard as it could possibly manage, a pavlovian response to being blessed with Kanata's cum. So much of Coco was overcome with sex, that the poor boy couldn't help but pass out as soon as his climax hit, reaching the most satisfying state of sleep he'd achieved.

Thankfully, the tender Kanata was there to take care of it all. Without even thinking twice, she took hold of the sleeping Coco into her arm, even as her cock continued to pump the last remaining ounces of cum directly inside of his body. Whilst Coco was tired beyond comprehension, Kanata only felt more energized than ever. She'd seen the results of this new power in action, witnessed the sorts of pleasure she could achieve and the breadth of chaos she could incur. As satisfying as her latest orgasm might have been, there was still one prescient thing in Kanata's mind. She needed to take her revenge on Towa's careless selfishness, and now she had the perfect way to do so~
