LEGOSHI

Legoshi's life since leaving school.

SIDE JOBS

Gouhin actually offered me this job. At first I was hesitant but, he insisted to let the world see a "Wolf's good side", whatever he meant by that.

DEAD

A special interview, with the embodiment of death incarnate.

RUMORS OF FEELING DEATH?

Rumors, huh? People love to gossip when they hear things they can't explain. They hear a scream and assume it's terror... but they don't know the sound of a man losing his mind to something much better than death.

Lavender Bed

A haven for the restless spirit. Lined with artisan shops and lively taverns where stories are traded as freely as ale. One thing that's unforgettable are the houses full of Hrothgars ready to make your stories even richer.
