

THE SCHOOL OF SORCERY

PART 08

After a hectic day of learning where Adam even saw a fellow student misdirecting her spell onto another student, it's time to go to the House dormitories.

The School of Sorcery is divided into three Houses. There's Sage Basilisk, known to carry a dramatic flair for the cunning, ambitious, and overly flamboyant. Azure Falcon is for those dedicated to the study of sorcery; always trying to perfect their craft and invent new paths for sorcery. And then there's Ruby Griffon, Adam's House, which is known to be charming and courageous.

Each House is located in its own tower and each floor has a dormitory of five students. The dormitory features their emblem and House colors, and paintings of famous alumni on the otherwise cold stone walls. It also features a common area for the students to unwind; sit back at the loungey sofa or read a book.

Adam flops himself down on his bed...` reminiscing of his first day at the School of Sorcery. He looks out the window and witnesses the blue sky turn to a starry night. His first day of school is over and his eyes slowly fall to a close.
