TYPE: WONDROUS ITEM RARIITY: RARE (REQUIRES ATTUNEMENT BY A MONK) These wraps are embedded with claws crafted from a magically infused metal that is in a perpetual state of oxidation. Rust continually flakes off and falls away from them before harmlessly disappearing a moment later. For 1 hour after wrapping your fists with these cloths, you taste iron. While attuned to these wraps, you gain a +1 bonus to the attack rolls and the damage rolls you make with unarmed strikes and natural weapons. Such attacks are considered to be magical. Once per round, when you hit with an unarmed strike or an attack with natural weapons against a creature wearing any form of nonmagical ferrous armor or shield, you can choose to spend a ki point to corrode the armor or shield. It takes a permanent and cumulative -1 penalty to the AC it offers. Corrosive Missile. When you spend a ki point to throw a missile caught with your deflect missile feature, you can also choose to empower that missile with corrosive magics. If the attack hits, the missile deals an additional 1d6 necrotic damage while also corroding a nonmagical ferrous piece of armor or shield. It takes a permanent and cumulative -1 penalty to the AC it offers.	 FERROUS FISTS
