A comic book panel showing two anime-style girls from behind, looking out a large window. The girl on the left has long blue hair with a blue and yellow circular ornament. The girl on the right has short blonde hair. They are both wearing pink one-piece swimsuits with white lace trim. The window looks out onto a bright, hazy outdoor scene. The room has a checkered floor and a wooden frame around the window. There are several black motion lines radiating from the window area.
