"Are you ready?"

Coming home to 2b was something Jessie would always look forward to. Whether work was stressful or just a particularly rough day, he always had the right pick me up waiting on him. Coming into the bedroom he was greeted with a curvy figure awaiting him in nothing but a Bikini.

The evenings often went like this. After getting home and washing the day off, he would eat dinner and, before bed, spend time with her. The romantic embrace typically kicked off the night.

Jessie particularly enjoyed feeling all over her curves against him. As firm and strong as she was, there was plenty of soft to enjoy as well.

Tonight though, they were going to try something new. Having purchased some new plug-in chips, 2b was ready to test them with a quick spurt of growth. Now 8 feet tall, there was even more of her to love.

Jessie was mesmerized as her breasts rose above his eye line. Tonight was shaping up to be something special... and he really couldn't hold it back any longer.

Jessie was lost in the euphoria
of seeing her grow right before him. Suckling directly on her nipple, she caressed his head, running her fingers through his hair just the way he likes it.

He could not believe they worked.
Never had he thought she could get any better, but here he was, enjoying the heavy endowment of his lover.

Lost in the moment, he failed to realize 2b had only begun her growth. Holding him firmly, she rose in the room while bringing him along.

Jessie only really seemed to notice when his feet left the floor. He was unable to really get an idea of just how big she had gotten given his entire face was engulfed in her ever expanding breast.

Making the necessary preparations for the evening, 2b casually removed the shirt from Jessie. The strength needed was minimal, and Jessie did not seem to mind as they embraced at her now 11 foot stature.

Her head was nearly hitting the ceiling at this point, and she was fully aware this was not the end, but Jessie didn't really give her time to verbalize a warning.

Before any harm could come, she simply dumped him on the bed. Jessie was a bit jarred by the reaction but instantly comforted seeing her looming over the bed so high.

"The final growth is coming... get ready."

2b soared higher, and quickly ducked her head. Quickly approaching 18 feet, she was far taller than the room could contain.

Jessie loved every spurt of growth, but this one was breathtaking. In a usually spacious bedroom, he had never felt so cramped. And he loved it.

"Best night ever." Jessie said, kissing her once more.

The two went at it for some time. Her curves were better than ever, and the possibilities for giving Jessie exactly what he wanted expanded exponentially.

"Are you ready?" she asked, again, as they ended their embrace.

Maneuvering around, 2b deftly was able to balance against the wall, while showing off her new, expanded, posterior.

"It's almost the size of our bed!" Jessie exclaimed, looking on excitedly.

"Here it comes..." she said as started to lean back off the wall.

Jessie looked on as she filled his entire view, bracing for impact.

The impact was more than the bed could take. The mattress compressed at a rapid rate as it took on her weight. Everything on the bed was immediately displaced as she let her full weight drop onto the mattress.

Jessie was in a mix of pain and pleasure as the expanded woman compressed every ounce of air out of his lungs. For the first time, he may actually have more of her than he can handle...

And he is ok with that.
