"C'mon! Is that all you got!" Rumi shouts to the gym-dude as he continues piping his dick into her ass.

Despite the encouragement, Rumi was honestly impressed. Not many people have lasted this long using her asshole like this. Usually, it would take a few pumps before they burst, but this dude she grabbed from her local gym, who had been eyeing her ass, was going beyond that. Even as Rumi herself clenched her dick-snapping asshole harder around his cock, he kept going, giving the proud pro-hero a proper fucking that she oh-so deserved.

The guy didn't respond to her, however. He was locked in, focused, and ready. This was infinitely better than those wet-dreams he's had about piping the rabbit's asshole raw. Even though he barely survived when Rumi practically sucked the soul out of him, he kept up the pace and worked his raging cock at a fast and hectic pace.

"Think you're hot-shit, huh? Ngh. See how you like this!" Rumi booms before she starts thrusting her hips back to meet his thrusts. Almost instantly, the already difficult task of keeping himself under control became just about impossible. The pro-hero was just so skilled in what she did, even when it came to anal sex. He could feel her ass twitch around his length, almost like it was taunting him. That thought alone was enough to push him further beyond his limits. Or in other terms, go plus ultra.

It was weird to use All Might's main catchphrase in this case, but with the way that Rumi was clenching down on his dick, it made sense. And it continued to make sense when he ended up rebounding and found himself maintaining a rhythm, even with Rumi bouncing her hips back against his.

"Yeah! That's more like it! Now finish it!" Rumi yells, and on command, he continues pummeling her ass, even as he begins to cum. It was nearly impossible to maintain, but he kept working himself as he filled the hero's guts with his seed. He fills her up so much that it even spurts out around his cock as he lays into her before the adrenaline and sexual fervor finally begin to die down.

"F-Fuck." He finally groans after staying silent for so long. He then pulls himself free, soon finding himself on his back and looking up at the ceiling to Rumi's room. He was exhausted, probably more exhausted than he had ever been in his life. The same could not be said for Rumi, however, as she quickly positions herself between his legs, her mouth at the ready to suck his cock clean.

"Nice work. But we aren't done yet. Don't worry, I'll get you back to work in no time." Rumi smiles, and he can't help but smile back. He might have felt like he was one breath away from dying from exhaustion, but fucking someone like Miruko really was an exhilarating thing to pull off.
