Chapter 1 Time Stop Blessing

Ash's ancestors have roots deep in the ancient land of Hisui, which would later become the land of Sinnoh. His ancestor had the power of aura and was a member of the Diamond Clan.

They served the Almighty Sinnoh who created time. They had rivals with the Pearl Clan. The top warriors were the Aura Guardians, they were the ones strong enough to venture out to the wild. They were able to connect with powerful Pokemon, and found clans and became wardens, training ride Pokemon and taking care of Alpha Pokemon.

When there was trouble they served as guardians and protectors, dealing with Pokemon who were causing trouble and using their powers to seal them away. Keeping the land in balance a few of them had earned "Almighty Sinnoh's" Blessing, giving them power over time.

Rumor has it they could stop time temporarily, able to move things while in the sub space. They could enter a hyper time state, accelerating their own personal time for a quick burst. Legends say one built a temple that had a distorted time, 1 year inside the temple was only a day outside. Another legend said one grew so skilled they could freeze time in an isolated space, or accelerate something's time so fast it blew up.

Ash's ancestor came from an Aura Guardian who left to travel and see the world and came to Kanto. His bloodline carried until it was passed to Ash Ketchum, and the power he held was true.

The first time he stopped time was when he was a kid. His mother had him in the garden. It was peaceful until... a Beedrill had come at her and Ash cried, time froze and the bug type got frozen. Delia was shocked and quickly got her son to safety. 'Is it possible?'

Her family had an old legend passed down from one generation to the next. She kept her eye on her son but everything seemed normal. He used his power again when he was 10 years old.

Ash had gone to a Pokemon camp, he'd almost missed it but in his panic he accidentally accelerated his own time and made it, and met a boy named Goh. The two bonded over their love of Pokemon. Goh was a bit introverted but the way Ash encouraged him, it helped his confidence. They ended up playing and hanging out.

Goh had spotted a mysterious Pokemon and chased after it. Ash followed and the mythical Pokemon was playing games, transforming into different Pokemon and battling others. This Pokemon was Mew, and it was a bit of a scamp, messing around and causing mischief.

This mischief swept up a baby Kangaskhan and a Pichu. They got into trouble and Ash's panic triggered a full Time Stop. Ash stopped time and quickly took action finding he could move things in this sub space. He rescued the baby Kangaskhan and Pichu. "Are you okay?"

Pichu looked up at him, at the human who had saved him and his brother. His scent was strong and kind. The little electric type felt a small spark of a bond. Ash returned them to the momma.

Goh was so impressed with Ash. "How did you do that?"

He honestly didn't know. The camp ended and Goh wanted to know if he and Ash could be friends, but was too shy to ask. This wouldn't be the last time they saw each other. With the confidence Ash instilled in him, Goh would enroll in a Pokemon School to get his trainer license. His path would cross with Ketchum here again.

-X-

When Ash went home, he told his mom what happened and Delia shared with him the old family legends. Ash was apparently an aura guardian or at the very least capable of aura. The blessing made it so Ash could manipulate time.

With the Aura of Time, Ash could do great things. Ketchum was inspired and he wanted to use his power well. So the training began Delia worked with her son to train his vessel making him crazy strong. He meditated and learned how to tap into his aura and feel the flow of time. It was difficult, and the only ability he could use well was the Time Stop.

He was gonna need it when he enrolled in school to get a trainer's license. Ash never used his powers to cheat, he did struggle on tests, but in practical exams he was able to show promise.

In school Ash and his friend/rival Gary clashed a lot. It was a bit weird since they were so close as kids but Gary had changed. As the Grandson of Professor Oak, Samuel Oak was the Kanto League Champion before retiring, Gary held a strong family name. He was popular and it fed his ego as he was praised and hyped up. People were sure Gary would become an Elite trainer, becoming a powerful Champion of Kanto. When the young Oak aced tests when he barely tried, he was praised like he was a genius, when he got lucky in mock battles getting a type advantage, he was the best!

Gary also teased Ash when he struggled or lost. No one said anything against, instead Gary was a saint for trying to help a lost cause. It made Ash mad, and the brunette enjoyed Ash's attention, more so than he would admit. He didn't realize how he was behaving was so bad.

Then came Goh, he transferred in and he was smart. When Ash saw Goh he was so happy, and the feeling was mutual. Gary, did not like Goh. On a test he didn't try on Goh scored a 96 and Gary scored a 93, it was still an A but it rubbed Gary the wrong way. In catching class Goh was a pro, skilled with trick shots and curve balls it was impressive. He struggled in battle class which Gary loved to show off in.

What really got to him was how close Ash and Goh were. His feelings got twisted up in jealousy, seeing them laugh and hang out at school together. A life he could have had, but he was pulled into the popularity bubble. He could have been closer to Ash, because he DID like Ash, but he was now stuck in the consequences of his choices.

This made him lash out, his teasing increased and he was rude and mean to both Ash and Goh. His fans piled on making things hard for both boys. Gary didn't know it, but his actions caused ripple effects other students saw the popular guy doing it without consequence so they did it to.

Ash started defending Goh more, bringing the two closer, a united front against jerks. A line finally crossed and Ash began using his powers. He didn't know why Gary was acting like this, but it no longer mattered.

“Time Stop!”

Gary had cornered Goh, and Ash stopped time. He undid Gary's pants dropping them and his boxers down. Oak was fully exposed, his soft 6 incher and smooth balls on full display.

Ash decided to treat Gary like the bad boy he was being. Cheeks were spread and his cute hole was exposed. Fingers caressed his entrance and he slowly worked the virgin hole open.

One finger, then two, and eventually three. Ash went slow, playing with Oak's ass, stirring up his insides and messing with his sweet spot. The boy's ass was being trained a hundred thrusts, curls, and rubs. He was sure Gary was gonna cum, he might have cum twice already, but with time stopped he couldn't release.

Once he was done, he fixed Gary's pants and underwear and moved away. He undid the Time Stop and all the pleasure hit Oak at once.

“Aaaahhhh!~” His whole body shook, his hole throbbing, balls unleashing his seed. Gary came hard soaking his crotch as it looked like he was pissing cum. Semen ran down his legs and his dick stood at attention. His fans looked at him. “Uhh whatever this loser isn’t worth my time.” He ran off hitting the bathroom before someone noticed his wet spot.

Ash appeared and the two went to lunch.

Gary spent lunch cleaning up, his underwear was ruined, so he went commando the rest of the day. He took care of his need in the bathroom and a certain raven haired boy was in his thoughts. Sex Ed Class had given him the basics. ‘I thought about him...’ His hole continued to tingle.

Ash stopped time again when Gary insulted him after he got an answer wrong in class. His fans laughed and the teacher did nothing. Time was stopped and Ash undid Gary’s shirt and exposed his nipples. He teased the buds, rubbing, stroking, even pinching. When time came back Gary was hit with the pleasure all at once, his nipples peeked through his shirt and his dick stiffened. He kept his mouth shut hoping no one would notice his arousal.

This continued, Ash using heavy petting to keep Gary in check. His nipples, cock, balls, and ass were teased getting experience and evolving into full erogenous zones. He even tickled Gary’s nipples in the middle of rude tirades. When

Time came back in his talk was broken with a fit of laughter, he doubled over laughing.

The teasing had awakened Gary, making him see and notice things. He checked Ash out in the showers. The boy was tall and chiseled, and there was his huge manhood 11.5 inches long soft. It had just been a peek, but Gary burned that image into his mind.

His random bouts of arousal made him hot and bothered. The sexual frustration pushed Gary into playing with himself at home. Ash was the center of his fantasies. Despite his blossoming feelings he still didn't treat Ash or Goh much better, in fact his jealousy of Goh increased. He acted out and Ash continued to check him, messing with his body while frozen in time.

Days turned to weeks, weeks into months, months into years...

It reached the point Ash could make Gary cum by playing with his nipples and his balls alone. Ketchum brought Gary to his knees again and again, the brunette had no clue.

Things escalated when Gary caught Ash and Goh kissing. He tried to make Ash jealous by dating his fans which didn't go well. Gary slept with some girls but he wasn't satisfied with them. The frustrations again were directed at Goh, earning more Time Stop punishments.

His sister saw him in a sour mood. “What’s wrong? Another break up?”

He stabbed his steak in annoyance. “Shut it.”

“You know most people aren’t mind readers. If you don’t tell someone how you are feeling it’s a bit mad to expect them to know what’s wrong.” He glared at her. “To be frank with how you’ve treated him I wouldn’t be surprised if he started hating you.”

“What?!” His sister shrugged. “What do you know?”

“I’m your sister.” She fixed him a look. “I know everything!” Gary blushed.

They were gonna be graduating soon, then becoming trainers, and going on their own journeys. Ash could leave him behind. He decided to talk to Ash on the upcoming school trip to a museum. A special item was on display. It was said to be similar to the Adamant Orb in Sinnoh, researchers were calling it the Adamant Crystal.

To be continued...Form of Time

Ash and Goh were on the museum trip. When exposed to the Adamant Crystal’s energy Ash is transformed into a Dialga-tuar. He becomes a hybrid and this creates some issues, Ash can be caught and bonded by Pokeballs. This transformation does fully flesh out Ash's Aura of Time. Ketchum has two dicks, a massive dragon dick under his tuar half, hidden behind his plate is his dick which has been enhanced with pearl implants. Bullying escalates for Ash but the boy handles things with grace.

Chapter 2 Form and Time

Ash and Goh were excited for the museum trip. There was a brand new exhibit. Goh had looked it up all excited. “They are calling it the Adamant Crystal, scientists are comparing it to the Adamant Orb in Sinnoh.”

“That’s really cool!” Ash exclaimed. He was curious about this himself. With the stories his mother told him about the Diamond Clan and the Hisui region Ash was eager to learn more about it.

They sat together on the bus. Gary looked at them and felt his heart ache. He remembered trips when they were kids, they had always been together. Sitting together at movies, Ash always laughed when something tickled him. Ash always shared his snacks, he made trips like this an experience, his excitement was infectious.

Gary didn’t appreciate it when he had it, but he noticed it when it was gone. It wasn’t the same hanging with fans. He wanted to talk to Ash, and hoped there would be time for him to talk with Ash...alone...

They arrived at the museum in Pewter City, the trip was pretty quick by bus.

The Pewter Museum of Science was huge, they had a Fossil Exhibit, and there was a lab working on Fossil Restoration. They had a wing dedicated to Space Travel, there was a massive Moon Stone, and various meteorites they were studying.

The new wing was set up for the new exhibit. There were images of Hisuian Pokemon that had ties to Kanto, like Voltorb and Growlithe. Scientists believed the regional forms were multi typed based on their unique areas they raised in. Hisuian Voltorb was Grass/Electric and Hisuian Growlithe was Fire/Rock. Ash was excited. “I’d love to catch one of these.”

“That might be tricky...” Goh said. As far as he knew these Pokemon didn’t exist anymore, even in modern day Sinnoh.

“Maybe but can you imagine having a Pokemon they thought lost to time?” Goh stared at Ash in admiration.

Another exhibit held Tumblestone. Special minerals believed to be used to crafting ancient PokeBalls. Red, Black, and Blue fragments were on display. “It is said Poke Balls were made from these stones, and Master Forgers combined the stone with Brown Apricorn. In the Johto region they’ve discovered other colors of Apricorn and a skilled craftsman makes special balls from that. Sadly Tumble Stone may have been mined out completely which forced the advancements of Monster Ball technology.”

Scientists would love to study the possibilities of Red Apricorn with Red Tumblestone, Blue Tumblestone, or Black Tumblestone. Others wonder if Tumblestone could be found in other regions in other colors. The mysteries and possibilities were staggering.

Then came the Adamant Crystal exhibit. It rested on a pedestal and in radiated with a strange power. Ash stared at it.

“It’s really pretty isn’t it?” Goh asked.

“Yeah.” Ash said. He felt...connected to it. The stone spoke to him, like it held the answers to something he didn’t understand.

The room seemed to quiet and Ash felt like he was drifting in a void. “Ash...Ash...Ash!”

He blinked. “Oh...sorry Goh...”

“Go hit the fossil exhibit, I’ll meet you there, I wanna stay here for a bit longer.”

Ketchum stayed in place staring at the crystal.

Gary saw Ash was alone and he moved to talk to him. Before he could two strange people pushed past him. “Watch it!”

The taller male whipped around at Gary. He was tall and muscular, tan and blonde. He glared at the brunette through shades. “What’d you say twerp?” Attila sized Gary up hard and fast.

“Not now.” His partner was pale and had silver hair. He looked around and saw the guards looking their way. “Let him go.”

Attila did. “You got lucky.” He adjusted his coat and moved towards Ash and the Crystal. Hun walked at his side. Gary eyed the two suspicious people, panic rising as they walked in Ash’s direction.

They ignored him, looking at the crystal. ‘Maybe they are just guests, I shouldn’t jump to conclusions.’ Oak tried to calm his heart.

His instincts were spot on as Attila called out his Muk, who attacked the guards. Hun called out an Onix, who launched large stones via Rock Throw. They moved towards the crystal and Ash reacted. “Time Stop!” He stopped time.

Ash moved forward and grabbed the crystal and moved to take it out of their reach. As soon as he touched the stone, energy crackled and time started. “What the?!” Attila and Hun looked confused.

Their plan was to grab the crystal and escape with Onix’s dig, but before they could blink the crystal vanished right before their eyes. Ash appeared, holding the crystal, he moved away from the two. “Hand that over!” Attila reached for him.

Energy crackled and surged into Ash, stimulating his cells. His body pulsed. ‘What’s happening?’

“Ugh Muk, get that brat!” Attila said. His cheeks were burning. The man’s muscular form was on full display, broad shoulders, pecs, fat nipples, rock hard abs, toned glutes, strong legs and big feet, His crotch was crowned with a thick treasure trail up to his navel, his fat uncut 8 inch dick and heavy nuts got exposed. Shame be damned, they had a mission to finish.

Ash raised a hand, and instantly Muk was frozen in time, just him. “Onix, use Bind!” Hun called. Onix surged towards him and tried to grab Ash.

Another raised hand and Onix was blasted away and slammed into the wall. He had been hit with a blast of time aura and he was forced back.

His legs burned and he stumbled. Before he could fall over, his body shifted. His pants and underwear ripped apart as his body became a centaur-like form. The traits were similar to that of the legendary Pokemon of time Dialga! His lower half matched that of Dialga, from his hips up he was still human. Truly a centaur hybrid.

The boy’s top was aged away exposing his muscles, strong arms, full pecs, rock hard abs. His original dick had inherited Steel type energy and beneath his centaur form was a massive and legendary dragon dick.

Goh had heard the commotion freezing at the sight of Ash. Gary was also stunned. His new tail swayed. “Whoa!”

Ash exhaled. Time surged and even Hun’s clothes was aged to dust, leaving him naked. “Damn it!” Attila and Hun grabbed their balls. Attila returned his Muk. “Onix use Dig!”

Using the last of his strength Onix dove into the ground creating a massive hole. The naked men fled with their tails between their legs. Ash didn't respond, his body was still processing the transformation.

Guards showed up and saw a monster holding the priceless artifact and began to panic. Other students were looking at Ash like he was a monster/freak. Goh and Gary had to jump in and stop them. "Wait stop, he's a student he changed when he touched the crystal."

Scientists came in, Iscan Suzuki was one of the lead scientists. He traced his ancestry back to Hisui so he'd spent his life trying to reconnect the world with Hisui. When he saw Ash his jaw dropped. His traits were that of Dialga.

Hybrids were rare, but there was some scientific records of them. For one, hybrids were or could be recognized as Pokemon, meaning they could be caught with Monster Balls. If caught the hybrid would become feral. "Is there a way to reverse this?" Ash asked.

"We might be able to find a way to help you control it, but that could take time." Ketchum returned the crystal, and it was put under tighter security.

While Ketchum explained what happened, the rumor mill was already buzzing. Many students turned on Ash. "He must have been bad getting cursed like that."

Goh and Gary heard the whispers and anger boiled up. The students were sent home and Ash's mother was called.

"Hey Mom..." Ash said, giving her a little wave.

"Oh honey...you've gotten so big!" Ash facepalmed. She acted like he'd grown taller, not gained additional legs and a tail. "I bet you are hungry, let's go home and get you something to eat."

Samuel pulled strings and had Ash registered as a hybrid. Things had to move, if Ash gave up on his dream of being a trainer his mother and him could be moved to a protective area. If he remained on a trainer he'd have to sign a waiver stating he'd accept the risks if he was caught. Ash didn't even hesitate he signed the form he wasn't gonna give up being a trainer.

Ash and Delia went home. "Who knew this could happen?"

"Do you think this happened because of my blessing?" Delia was quiet for a moment.

"Ash, I have watched you grow up, I think you are making your ancestors proud."

"Thanks mom." He smiled. Even if the whole world turned against him, Delia would always be on his side.

The scientists were gonna keep studying the Crystal in the hopes of finding a way to help Ash. His new form helped Ash be more in touch of his aura of time. The police went trying to find the two mystery men, somehow two naked men slipped away.

Their boss wasn't pleased with their failure.

-X-

Ash went to school, prepared for whatever was waiting for him. He'd been up all night practicing, he could do more than just stop time now, he could freeze and accelerate time for both defense and offense. His body only needed four hours of sleep, so he used the extra time to practice.

Ketchum felt eyes on him, eyes looking him over, looking at him with disgust. People coughed "Monster!" "Freak!" "Demon!"

Ash ignored it, most of these people were mean to him anyway, so he didn't value their opinions much anyway. He bumped into Goh and the boy blushed at him. "Hey Ash..." The boy squirmed.

"How do I look?"

"Amazing!" Goh exclaimed. "Sorry..."

“Don’t be.” Ketchum let Goh onto his back. He didn’t care what the other students had to say either.

Gary was in his own personal hell. His fans were bashing Ash, talking about how he looked, how gross he was. It made Gary sick, but this was partially his fault. The boy’s behavior for years, had emboldened them to look down on Ash and Goh. Ketchum becoming a monster was just giving them a bigger target.

Oak wanted to snap, to say something, but the words wouldn’t come. He didn’t find Ash gross, quite the opposite in fact.

The bullying escalated. Students tried to throw food or dump their lunches on him. “Acceleration!” He boosted his time and dodged.

Others tried to dump water on him or Goh for being a “monster fucker”. “Freeze!” He could freeze a concentrated space.

A few crossed the line, stealing some empty monster balls and tried to catch him. “Force!” He blew up the balls.

Ash smirked. He froze them and stripped them naked, leaving them frozen until his power wore off in a few hours. Ash had the instincts of a Pokemon, if you messed with him prepare to get zapped. Ketchum defending himself, just had the idiots seeing him as the villain.

Gary felt the distance grow between them.

To be continued...Mating Time

Goh confesses to Ash, seeing his form as not something ugly but lovely. Ash decides to show Goh all the love he can muster using time manipulation.

Chapter 3 Mating Time

Goh watched as the bully escalated, Ketchum handle it with grace and just the right amount of pettiness. Some even tried to cry to the teachers, but Goh backed him up stating they instigated it, plus some of them were frozen mid crime. So they were busted.

BUSTED!~

What was crazy is some bullies tried to coordinate, seeing Ash use his powers they complained to a teacher. Ketchum froze a bully mid toxic insults and when a teacher asked for him to be unfrozen he did and the bully was caught being vile.

Busted~!

Ash was fine dealing with fools himself, but he was feeling bad for Goh. While they were eating together. “Sorry...”

“Hm?”

“You are being targeted because you hang out with me.” He sighed. “It’s not right.”

Goh blushed and quickly waved his hands. “No no no, it’s fine. I’m happier being with you.”

His feelings for Ash were deeper than that. To Goh, Ash was special, even before he transformed. Goh had realized he was in love with Ash and had been for a long time, he just didn’t know how to tell him. The boy was very introverted, his number of friends he could count on one hand, when he showed his nerd and passion for Pokemon people used to look down on him for being “too much” “trying too hard” or being “annoying”. Yet, when Gary flexed his Pokemon knowledge some people treated Gary like he was so amazing.

Ash genuinely treated Goh with kindness and respect. They were different and Ash could be pushy, but he could also be patient. He appreciated the little moments. Even little arguments that happened, they made up and their friendship was stronger for it.

He wanted to take the next step, but didn’t know how. His anxiety gripping him like a leash, holding him back from moving forward.

“Goh are you okay?”

“I um...I...” He looked around, feeling the pressure of so many people around them.

Ash noticed. “Take my hand.” He offered.

Goh did, and Ash stopped time for everything in the room but them. “Whoa?!”

“Now you can tell me anything you want, we have time.”

Goh took some deep calming breaths. “Ash, what if I told you I like guys?” He danced around the question.

Ketchum just cut to the chase. “I’d say thank you for telling me, so do I.” Goh blushed and smiled.

Ash’s scale had always tilted towards men, from the sexy trainers on TV, even some late night stuff on special channels.

“That’s great!” He said and began to fidget. “You see I...I’ve had a crush on you for awhile now. I...I’m in love with you Ash!”

Ketchum was stunned, time felt like it was moving even slower than before. “I...I see...” Ash was actually touched by the confession.

“You don’t have to respond I know this is sudden, you don’t have to respond now, but I was hoping we could date...get to know each other on a deeper level?” He twiddled his fingers out of nervousness, but he held eye contact.

“Are you sure you want to choose me?” Ash asked. “I may be stuck like this, if I ever even get back to human form at all.”

“Oh!” Goh gasped. “I uh...actually don’t mind you in this form. I liked you plenty as a human but I don’t find this form ugly at all you are actually really lovely.” This surprised Ash.

“Goh...does my new form excite you?” Goh blushed.

Silence stretched between them before the boy nodded. “I kinda stumbled across some Pokemon x Human stuff and it really got me excited.” He squirmed.

“So...” Ash smiled. “This form excites you?”

Goh blushed and nodded.

Ash was quiet for a moment. He had pushed thoughts of finding love or a mate out of his mind while he was like this. Being a Dragontaur was actually pretty cool, but he understood if it turned people off. To hear Goh confess, lifted a weight he didn’t realize he was carrying.

“Goh, are you free this Saturday?”

“Oh yes, I am!” He typically didn’t have much plans outside of studying and browsing the net. His parents weren’t home so it wasn’t uncommon for him to be on his own.

“Then come to my place, I want us to spend a day together.” Goh blushed.

“Oh...oh my...yes...” Goh blushed and fidgeted.

“Great, this will be good, we can get to know each other a lot more. I’ll give you my answer.”

‘In just a day?’ Goh felt pressure, but he trusted Ash. He had no idea what the hybrid had planned and what was gonna happen was gonna be world shaking.

Ash restored time for them and things carried on as normal. Goh had spent all Friday night trying on different outfits. Each one didn’t feel right under his nerves. He decided to go with something simple and easy. In his over planning he eventually packed a small back pack for whatever he was expecting. Ash was already a surprise so it was hard to predict.

Saturday came and Goh barely slept he missed his alarm and arrived a couple hours late. “Oh man oh man oh man!”

Delia answered the door. “Hello Goh!”

“Hello Mrs. Ketchum, it’s um good to see you!” He bowed. Delia chuckled.

“It’s nice to see you. Ash told me you two are gonna spend a day together. I hope you boys have fun.” Again new use of the just A. When Ash said it Goh thought it was a slip of the tongue, but now even Delia said it. “He’s in his room, you boys take care now.”

Goh blinked but went inside. Up the stairs to Ash's room.
“Ash?”

The dragontuar came out. “Goh you are here!”

“Sorry I'm late. I slept in.” He hung his head.

Ketchum shook his head. “No worries, we have plenty of time together.” He let Goh into his room.

“So are we just hanging out or...”

“Something like that.” Ash said with a smirk. He shut the door and Goh immediately felt pressure. He was alone in Ash's room, the two of them alone together. His eyes darted around the room taking in Ash's possessions, Pokemon merch, posters, things of the like but there was a wall scroll ancient looking a Diamond Clan artifact. “Time Room!”

Ketchum stomped his foot and his time magic filled the room, it encased everything like Trick Room was cast. “Whoa!” In a flash they were gone, Ash's room had moved into a subspace, like a fourth wall had dropped and revealed a vast limitless space. “Ash...what is this?”

“The room of Spirit and Time, it's like my own secret base.”
Pokemon with the move secret power could manifest areas in the Pokemon world trainers could claim a space and it'd be bigger on the inside where they could hold anything, gear, Pokemon, tools, and the like. The size depended on a lot of things there were special tools for secret bases and also a Pokemon's power initially.

Ketchum's power was great, the sub space seemed massive. Ash tapped the air and manifested a screen and a sphere. He spun the sphere and the white void was replaced with a blue sky and a warm sun, the white ground was filled with grass and trees. Ash's room looked like it had manifested in an open field. A few clicks to the screen and the room expanded gaining more doors and rooms.

“On the left is the kitchen with enough food prepared for us to last a day outside, on the right is the bath house but I can prepare an open hot spring if you like.”

“Ash this is amazing!” Goh walked around, he felt the grass, could feel the warm sunshine, there was even a gentle breeze. It was governed by Ash's spirit and imagination.

“Thanks, I thought it'd be perfect for us to spend our time together.”

‘All this for a day...’ Goh froze. ‘Spirit and time...’ The pieces clicked into place. He looked at the dragon. “Ash, there's something special about this room isn't there?”

Ketchum's grin grew. “You are really smart Goh. This room is governed by my spirit and my power over time, so I control the flow of time in this room. A day outside is equal to a year inside.”

“I wanted us to truly spend time together, if you wish to leave at any time simply say Escape Rope, and you’ll be transported from the room.”

-X-

Ketchum took things slow, they went on dates to get to know each other. With just the two of them Goh was able to be open and honest. When he needed time Ash gave it to him. They played games, watched movies, ate together.

They held hands, went on walks, Ash even did runs with Goh on his back, giving him the feel of riding on a Pokemon’s back, Ash’s scent washing over him, his warmth filling him.

When they bathed together Goh couldn’t hide his arousal. Ash didn’t want him to. “Show me!” Goh spread his legs his 5.5 inch dick standing at attention. “Want me to take care of it?”

Ketchum didn’t push.

They slept together.

Ash kept the Day, Dusk, and Night Cycles. They could watch the stars, camp out and enjoy each other’s company.

He hadn’t been kidding about the hot spring thing, Goh got to enjoy a nice relaxing soak with Ash. Goh’s anxiety had him keep some distance, but Ash’s patience worked.

The boy blossomed, getting more comfortable with Ash, and their bond grew until Goh made a move and kissed Ash. He tasted of lunch and his own unique flavor. Ash kissed back and they had their first make out session.

Ketchum began making requests to grow and evolve their relationship. “I wanna watch you masturbate.”

“What?!”

“You can do it right?” Goh stuttered but agreed. He touched himself in front of Ash, playing with his cock.

“Ash...Ash...Ash...you are so hot...so sexy...I want...I want you so much...”

“You are beautiful Goh!” Ash’s praise sparked something in him. He came, squirting all over himself. It had been weeks of pent up need.

Ketchum scooped him up, washed him, and tucked him into bed. This happened a few more times before Ash asked to touch him. Goh was eager, so they spent time with Ash just touching him. His nipples, his cock, his balls, even his ass. The later was a bit rough and triggered a new spike of anxiety. ‘How would we?’

Ash never pushed too far. He just made sure to show Goh love, making sure he came one way or another. All while he peppered kisses and even a few licks. His neck and ear were prime spots.

It was Goh’s turn to ask for things. “How would we...I mean how are you able...” Ash let him ask. “Your...your cock...I wanna see...”

“Of course, which one?” Goh gulped.

“You...you have two...” His mouth watered.

“I do, and of course you can see all you had to do was ask.” Goh felt silly for not asking, they’d been together 3 months at this time and Ash had been focusing on his pleasure and comfort. Goh had been so shy he hadn’t looked.

Ash took some deep breaths. For most Pokemon they had sheaths, their mating bits were tucked inside for many Pokemon their balls dropped when aroused or wanted to mate before the actual arousal came out. Ash's dragontuar balls dropped and Goh blushed at the sight of them, they were huge!

Since Ash was a centaur he was blessed with two dicks, one in the front where his original was, a dragonic slit and his human nuts became internal ones, so he had four balls in total but only his dragontuar ones dropped. The plate guard at the front hid his slit completely.

With a wave of his hand, the armor guarding his crotch shifted and Goh could see Ash's sheath at the front. Perhaps it was because Dialga was Dual Typing. Dragon and Steel were a powerful combo and Ash's biology benefitted from both it seems. His impressive 11.5 inch dick slipped from the slit and Goh's jaw dropped.

Not only was Ash hung, the transformation had blessed his original rod with Steel Rod traits, he had pearl implants. A ring of pearls under the head, then scattered along his shaft. "Oh wow!" Seeing it made his hole throb in want.

Then came the second rod and OH ARCEUS!

Ash's dragontuar cock was huge. Goh knew Pokemon could be hung, third stagers could be 12-14 inches long if lucky or blessed, but legendary Pokemon were reportedly bigger truly a legendary size. Ash's cock was 22 inches long! Not only was it long, it was thick, and inherited Dialga's dragon traits. The head had dragon barbs, the underside was blessed with dragon ridges along the shaft, in the middle of his length was a ring of flesh. Truly Ash was hung like a horse.

Seeing that monster of a dick cracked Goh's horny scale. His fantasies about Pokemon cock leveled up and evolved. He wasn't scared he saw it as a challenge, he wanted that beast inside him, even if he could only take half.

They started jerking off together, Ash was able to jerk off his front cock but not his lower dick. Goh watched Ash jerk off, and started playing with his ass when he masturbated.

Their relationship leveled up, Goh stopped wearing clothes during the summer months. It felt like he was in his own Eden, Ash didn't question it just admired his beauty. He'd not been wearing pants since his transformation.

They did exercise together, worked out to do something and be healthy. Ash had plenty of his mom's work out videos on VHS. They had more make out sessions with Ash showing how they could be together. He was super strong so he could maneuver Goh like he weighed nothing.

Goh could wrap his legs around his waist, they made out, rubbed their cocks together. Goh loved the feeling of the pearls as they rubbed against his cock and balls. Ash was so big it dominated the boy's crotch.

It was clear he could fuck the boy from the front, some positions weren't possible, but others more than worked, some benefitted from pressing against a wall or a tree, or a pillar.

Ash's foreplay skills leveled up, he sucked and licked Goh's nipples, he sucked Goh's cock either with him laying on his back or up in the air. When he was up in the air Ash even added anal fingering to the mix. The front and back stimulus had Goh quaking and cumming in delight.

He took time out of the day just for anal training. Goh admitted he wanted to take his dragon dick, so Ash wanted to help train Goh's hole, some days Goh just laid there letting Ash churn up his insides, two fingers then three, back to two, just massaging his channel.

Some days when he rode on Ash's back he couldn't stop himself, he laid out and started masturbating, breathing in Ash's musk, he played with his cock and one of his nipples enjoying the ride along. Ash was happy to see Goh enjoy himself so much.

The summer heat meant more baths and Goh kicked things up by offering to wash Ash's body. He got a feel for the dragontuar's body.

Goh kicked things up a notch wanting to help Ash masturbate. He licked and sucked Ash's front cock, the pearls were strong and felt so unique. The boy licked the shaft, kissed each pearl and even sucked on a few.

Ash moaned as he came and Goh got a mouthful of semen and a facial to boot. He swallowed Ash's seed, feeling a tingle in his belly. 'His cum is so yummy~!'

Goh noticed the dragon dick didn't release at the same time. "I wanna help you masturbate!"

"I'd love the help!" It wasn't like he could reach.

Goh got to get in close and the musk made his mouth water. He took stock of every inch, every ridge, the heat and weight. Soon he reached the heavy balls so big and powerful so full of dragontuar seed. He breathed in the monster musk and without realizing it he came. 'Ohh shit!' He blushed hard.

"Everything okay down there?"

"I'm fine!" He gasped.

Goh kissed and licked Ash's balls and got a wild moan from the hybrid. 'That's so hot!' He had his work cut out for him, he could make out with the head but taking it into his mouth felt impossible. His hands worked the shaft but stroking the whole thing as a work out onto itself. This beast was powerful.

He wasn't gonna give up, if he couldn't suck him off or fully jerk him off he'd never be worthy to take it inside. Goh got a wild idea and used his feet to help work Ash's dragontuar penis. It was a bit tricky but once he got a good flow he had Ash moaning and groaning.

Goh made out with his piss slit, drinking the pre-cum that spilled out, just an appetizer before the main course. He felt the monster cock twitch and his balls tightened. "Goh I'm cumming!" He roared, his release rocking him.

The monster came hard. Goh got his mouth flooded before getting the bukkake of his life, his seed pelted and surged over Goh. In seconds the boy was drenched in thick semen and it just kept coming. After a few minutes Goh was literally floating in a sea of white. He took the nut of a legendary hybrid very impressive.

Goh didn't even hesitate, he swallowed every drop he could, one hand fingering his ass pushing Ash's semen inside him while his free hand worked his cock. He came his human nut vanishing into a sea of white. The orgasm was powerful making Ash's knees buckle but he didn't crush Goh.

This was a turning point. Goh had eaten hybrid seed this had an effect on him, like a rare candy for a Pokemon. He was leveling up and his body was growing. By the start of the Fall months he was ready for mating.

That didn't stop Ash from being the king of foreplay. He started eating Goh out, they did vertical 69; Goh got his ass eaten, cock sucked, and even his balls licked, all while he was face to face with Ash's impressive rod, he worked the shaft and sucked the head.

Ketchum even brought his time powers in play. He could time lock Goh's cock for a day, playing with him as they did and when the technique wore off all the orgasms hit him at once.

Goh got bolder too, during bath time he started kissing Ash's ass and worshipping his balls. Ketchum would shudder and moan as Goh made out with his dragon ass and fondled his nuts.

They made love in the Fall, Goh getting his cherry popped by the pearl implant dick. "Ohhhh Ash!" The first time had months of prep backing it making the first time an amazing time.

Ash didn't just promise a good time, he promised a long time. Goh was fucked for hours toes curling as he spilled his seed and Ash kept humping until he was sated. The boy saw stars.

They did it every day for two full weeks. Ash took care of Goh as much as possible.

The pearls stroked Goh's insides making him writhe in bliss, his hole blossomed as the pearls stroked them out. "Ash I love you so much, you make me feel so good!" He came hands free.

One of the pearls was in the perfect place to press and rub a man's sweet spot, and boy did it, every thrust and grind it smashed Goh's sweet spot. It was divine. There were some nights Goh was fucked stupid.

Ash even took a chance to freeze Goh in time mid orgasm and keep fucking him, when time came back Goh was rocked by the anal orgasm multiplied. Ketchum was happy to see Goh so blissed out and happy.

Before the Fall months ended Ash gave Goh a surprise. "I want you to fuck me!" He raised his tail and wiggled his ass.

Goh blinked in confusion, he honestly hadn't thought about topping but since Ash offered he gave it a good try. As soon as he pushed in Ash's tightness made him cum. "I'm sorry...sorry I..." Ash just used his time powers to give Goh a redux.

"It's okay it felt good to have you cum in me, keep going!" Goh plowed the dragontuar ass, it was so big it hadn't needed prep and while Goh feared he couldn't really give any impact. Monster ass had special nerve endings Goh's cock felt perfectly wonderful. It was partly why Goh eating him out felt so nice as well. Truly the motion of the ocean was doing it for Ash as well. His tail wrapped around Goh, offering support.

Goh came three more times before Ash finally nutted and his massive rod released a flood of cum. "You were wonderful Goh!" Ash praised. He meant it.

For a boy who always feared he wouldn't measure up or come up short, fail in some way...it found a place in his heart and lifted him up. They kissed and made out.

Then came the Winter months with snow. Ash had clothes for them and Goh was surprised, they mostly had fun, snow balls fights, fun in the snow, building snow sculptures. Ketchum showed more romance with fire place romance.

Fingering evolved into full on fisting and Ash made sure Goh was ready to try the dragon dick. His hole had evolved, drinking the monster hybrid cum for so long allowed his body to evolve and his body did indeed evolve. His insides were softer, more pliable taking experience from the daily fingering, pearl implanted cock fucking, and the fisting.

The first time came and it was rough, Goh did get a true rough first time experience, even with all the prep, Ash was huge. Goh had taken time to lube him up as well. He went slow. “Breathe Goh you are so tight, taking me so good.”

Praise did wonders. Goh took deep breaths and he relaxed. Ash rocked the ridges stroking Goh’s insides. “Hnnn aaahhhh~!”

It took time, but Goh hit the flesh ring and he came, squirting. ‘So full!’ His toes curled.

“Yes that’s excellent.” Ash humped him, fucking him with 12 inches of dragon dick. Goh came again. Then Ash came flooding Goh’s insides and making his stomach swell like a condom. His belly bulged.

The monster semen absorbed into Goh’s insides, it was so plentiful and it helped Goh evolve into a proper monster fucker. Ash sank in further and Goh took it, his stomach bulging from the powerful dick. He stayed on Ash’s cock for hours, just absorbing and evolving.

When they fucked again it was even easier, he took so much so easily. Goh slowly took every inch until he was sheathed on dragontuar cock. The orgasm that hit made him pass out, but Ash just kept him sheathed on his rod.

Goh ate on Ash's cock, slept on his cock, he even had Ash run with him mounted to his dick like a cod piece. He wasn't even cold, Ash's warmth surrounded and penetrated him.

Ketchum bred him, his body absorbing the seed. He was being reshaped by dragon dick and hybrid seed. It wasn't enough to mutate him but he was now super human. Rumors of this happening did exist, but usually it was only temporary. Like the effects of Pinkan Berries that turned a Pokemon Pink, only Pokemon who had a prolonged diet of the stuff made the color permanent.

Goh had been feasting on hybrid cum for months, so the effects were built to last.

Winter came and went with beautiful mating and lots of cuddles. Spring came early and Ash invited Goh to watch the flowers bloom, it was a picnic with just the two of them. "Goh...this time together has been amazing. I've seen you happy, I've seen you sad, I've seen you mad, I've seen so many sides of you." Goh had cried during a movie they watched. He had gotten annoyed/miffed when they had played a game and Ash had kicked his butt.

Ash had seen the walls, they had talked and bonded over different things. They shared their ideas, dreams, and so much more. Ash still wanted to be a Pokemon master, becoming a dragonrider didn't change that. Goh wanted to complete a living Pokedex, a rather ambitious goal, but one Ash thought was impressive. They had essentially dated, lived together, and had sex.

They hugged and cuddled, watching the flowers bloom. Ash even tucked one behind Goh’s ear. “I love you Ash, so much!”

-X-

After spending a day together, Ash and Goh were closer than ever. People noticed it at school. ‘When did they get so close?’ Gary thought, jealousy bubbling up.

Someone tried to even tease them. “Are you two dating or what?”

To be continued...Journey Begins

Ash graduates and receives a special pass to carry 12 Pokemon for protection. Even with his powers he keeps things a secret. Scientists want to create an item that will allow Ash to shift but that will take time. Goh gets a Charmander, Gary gets Squirtle, Ash shows up late but Oak has two Pokemon ready for him Pikachu and Eevee. Pikachu was the Pichu Ash met before. He remembers Ash’s scent.

Samuel is shocked as that Pikachu had been difficult. The two mon are surprised by Ash's form but they don't hate it. Goh wants to prove himself as a trainer.

Chapter 4 Journey Begins

Time marches on, Ash and Goh continued to do the couple thing, they hung out together, went on dates, and certainly didn't hide their affection for one another. Holding hands, hugging, even kissing.

Anyone who tried to mess with Goh got a Time Beam, their clothes and whatever items they had would be aged to dust. Some got frozen in time for a bit. Some took the hint, others continued to be stupid and a few tried to still catch Ash, but he was frankly too powerful, and those that tried to catch him also got the Time Beam treatment. Again the teachers backed him because Ash wasn't going out of his way to abuse his powers only acting in self defense. If these fools didn't want their stuff aged to dust maybe don't poke the time god.

Teachers used it like a lesson. There were wild areas with very powerful Pokemon, and wild Pokemon won't just be nice to use attacks that just mess up clothes.

Graduation came, Ash graduated, Goh graduated, Gary graduated, it was a big celebration. Iscan reached out to Ash, and while they working on finding a way to make him human again they just needed more time. Ash understood, and he wasn't in a hurry. "Even if there's not a way to make it permanent can we find a way for me to shift?" He suggested.

Iscan took the note, he'd have the team work on it. They did blood tests and got samples to work on it. Professor Oak pulled some strings, since Ash was still technically in danger of being caught like a Pokemon, he petitioned for Ash to have a larger carry limit. Given the unique circumstances the pass was granted. Ash was allowed to carry and train 12 Pokemon, for his protection.

The hybrid wasn't so much worried about his protection but getting to train and travel with 12 Pokemon felt like a dream. This honor was typically exclusive to Elites and Frontier Brains, or the Champion of the region since they had active duties to defend their region from threats.

Ash is set on going on his journey, and Oak gives him a card to get a starter Pokemon from him. A few of the top students got this card. It granted them a Pokemon from Professor Oak, a Pokedex, and six monster balls. Not a bad way to start one's journey.

-X-

Today was the day. One trainer woke up bright and early, grabbed Bulbasaur and left. Goh arrived next, but he wanted to wait for Ash. "Where is he?"

Gary showed up. “Oh...it’s you...”

Goh frowned. “Hey Gary...”

Gary looked around. “Where is Ash?”

“I wish I knew.” He sighed. No doubt the boy had slept in.
“Why do you care?”

The brunette blushed. “I don’t!”

Samuel came out. “Hello boys, are you gonna come and select your Pokemon?”

They entered the lab. Oak gave them their new Pokedex and 6 monster balls. Goh initially wanted Bulbasaur, starting off his living Pokedex with the first mon in the dex but Bulbasaur was gone. “I’ll get Charmander!” Goh picked.

He knew Ash wanted a Squirtle.

Gary stepped up and took Squirtle’s ball. “Looks like I got the best one!”

“Hey!” Goh snapped.

‘Ugh I don’t like him!’ Goh thought.

A loud rumbling was heard, as the dragon-tuar raced into the lab, as if Arceus himself was on his heels. “I’m sorry, I’m here, sorry I’m late!”

“Ash!” Goh rushed over and jumped into the hybrid’s arms.

Ketchum caught him and the two kissed. Gary froze, his jealousy burning. He blushed and shifted, hoping no one would notice his bulge. “Look who finally showed up.”

“Hey Gary.” Ash said.

“You are a bit too late, I already got the best Pokemon of the bunch.”

Ash collected his dex and monster balls. “I know which one I want Squirtle!”

“Already taken.” Samuel said. Gary smirked. Goh shot him a glare.

‘He knew!’

Ash went for a Charmander next, but Samuel said they were out. Goh looked at his Charmander, contemplating if he should hand over his fire type. There was no Bulbasaur either.

“Looks like you won’t have any Pokemon, that makes you a dead last loser.” Gary teased.

“That’s not true.” Oak said. “I actually prepared two extra Pokemon.”

Samuel brought out two Pokemon. “This one I prepared extra special for you Ash.” Ash called it out.

“Eev!”

“Whoa, an Eevee!” Goh gasped.

Eevee looked up at Ash, who’s eyes were sparkling. The Normal type had expected a trainer, but he wasn’t expecting a hybrid. Ash had a raw aura, flowing with the power of time. The pressure was intimidating and then Ash gave him a head pat. “Hey Eevee, I’m Ash, looking forward to working with you.”

Once the surprise wore off Eevee could see Ash was strong and kind. He nuzzled Ash’s hand and the boy shivered happily. Ketchum offered his shoulder and Eevee climbed up, giving him a nuzzle. Goh could see Ash’s genuine happiness and excitement on his face.

“Now this next one is a bit more complicated.” Samuel said. “He’s been really...difficult...”

Ash activated the ball and out came a Pikachu.

“Pika!” Oak immediately moved a safe distance away. This mon had been a headache since he was caught, always attacking his assistants and him.

Pikachu looked at Ash, and was a bit intimidated by the dragontuar. His cheeks sparked defensively. Then the mon caught a familiar scent. Pikachu sniffed the air and smelled something familiar.

Ash looked at Pikachu, also noticing a familiar aura to him.
“Hey it’s you!”

“Hey there, you evolved that’s great!” Ash praised.

“My word!” Oak was surprised. “You two met?”

“Yeah once upon a time.” Ash said with a chuckle. “So looks like we are gonna be partners, wanna get strong together Pikachu?”

“Chu chu!” The mon said.

He met Eevee and the two chatted. They were surprised about their new trainer, but not unhappy. The two explored Ash’s back, running around before taking their places on Ash’s shoulders, Pikachu on the left and Eevee on the right.

“Ugh, whatever!” Gary huffed.

They left the lab and outside Pallet Town had gathered to see the trainers off. Gary had a whole squad of cheerleaders.

Apparently his parents not only hired the cheer squad but bought Gary a car for his travel.

Gary saw Goh staring. “Jealous?” He said with a smirk.

Goh huffed. “Not really Ash is a much better ride.” Oh the phrasing. Ketchum just chuckled.

Gary gave a big speech promising to honor the town. He couldn’t help himself but to talk down to Ash and Goh.

Ketchum sighed. “Time Stop!” He stopped time and since Pikachu and Eevee were in contact with him they were also protected by Ash’s time aura. Ash’s power was impressive.

Gary’s pants and boxers were dropped. The Pokemon snickered as he was bare in front of the crowd, even if frozen in time. Ash used his tail to spank Gary, his tail swung and smacked both cheeks again and again and again.

After thirty swats Ash pulled up his pants and boxers. He expected the boy to suffer a bit, the sting of his ass while he rode in the car a lingering punishment. Once he restored time.

“Smell ya later Ashyyyyyy~!”

The spanking hit him all at once, and because he was chubbed up already pleasure and pain exploded together. Oak came, squirting into his boxers so much it overflowed and ran down his legs. Goh blinked.

His whole face burned, the crowd looked confused. Gary chuckled nervously. He got in the car and sat down, his ass stung. His journey was starting off with a sore ass and a cum soaked crotch.

They drove off and Gary's fans scattered.

Goh noticed his family wasn't around not that he was surprised. Delia stepped up. "Here you go sweetie!" She gave Goh a backpack, some nice travel shoes, and some camping gear.

"This is for me?"

"Of course, you are family." She hugged him.

Delia met Ash's Pokemon. "They are so cute!" The mons preened at the praise. "But don't Pokemon typically reside in Pokeballs?" The mons tensed.

"Maybe, but I got a feeling these guys want to hang out with me, right?"

"Pika!" "Vee!" They agreed.

Goh looked at Charmander's ball and he called the fire type out. "Do you wanna hang out Charmander?"

"Char!" The fire type agreed, excited for the new adventure.

Delia had packed Ash's stuff to, though it was a bit lighter. Since Ash had his Time Room he had plenty of space, he was traveling with his own secret base.

Goh had saved up his allowance and bought 30 monster balls, so with the 6 Oak gave him he had a total of 36 not a bad start. He really wanted to prove himself as a trainer.

They left Pallet and Goh finally brought it up. "Did you stop Gary's time?"

"Sure did!" Ash said with a chuckle. Goh pouted. "Something wrong?"

"I wanted to see it, he's always such a jerk."

Ash chuckled. "Next time I'm sure."

On Route 1

"Now let's see..." Goh checked his Pokedex.

Dex: The area designated as Route 1 has various discovered Pokemon to try and catch and train. Common Pokemon are Rattata, Pidgey, and Spearow – Magikarp. Uncommon Oddish, Bellsprout, Sandshrew, Mankey, Pidgeotto – Poliwag. Rare: Raticate, Diglett – Gyarados.

Please be aware you can find Wild Areas with very strong and unique Pokemon, and migrating and roaming Pokemon may appear at different times.

“Okay I can do this!” Goh said, he was trying to keep his cool. “Let’s go catch some Pokemon Charmander.”

“Char!~” The mon cheered excited to battle.

Ash set up a picnic blanket and had some tea while he watched Goh do his thing. They found a Rattata, and before Charmander could even attack Goh threw a ball and it hit.

Rattata was sucked up and after a few jiggles he was caught. “I did it, I did it, I caught my first Pokemon! Ash did you see?”

“You are doing great!” Ash praised.

Next came a Pidgey. Charmander was sure they’d get to battle now, but Goh threw a ball, it hit and after a few jiggles he was caught. The fire type sweat dropped.

“This is a lot faster!” Goh said. “I don’t want them to get away.”

“Oh dear...” Ash sighed.

Goh managed to find a Sandshrew, not the best type match up for Charmander but the little guy was still ready to fight. Goh threw a monster ball it hit Sandshrew sucked him up and after a few jiggles he was caught.

Then Goh found an Oddish, a perfect opponent for Charmander, but again Goh threw a ball and caught it. Even when he found a Bellsprout he didn't have Charmander battle, he just caught it with a ball.

Charmander began to sulk a bit. Ash stepped up and gave him a there there pat.

“Charmander!” Goh called. The fire type rushed in, thinking it was time to battle.

Goh had found a Diglett but trying to catch it was hard. “Help me out!” Charmander tried but Diglett ended up just going underground and running away.

“Aww man!”

His attempt to get a Mankey didn't go much better. Goh tried to throw a ball but Mankey attacked it and broke it. Goh tried another ball, throwing a curve on it. It landed and Mankey got sucked up but he broke out on one jiggle. “Aww shoot!”

Mankey got bored and ran off.

Goh sank down, disappointed he missed on two Pokemon. Charmander trying to be supportive gave him a there there pat. He still wanted to battle.

“Let’s keep traveling, I know some place that might cheer you up.” Ash carried Goh on his back, heading to the area where they had gone on the training camp together.

“Hey Ash, why haven’t you caught a Pokemon yet?”

“I’m looking for the right fit, I’ll know when the time is right.” He had plenty of time to train his Pokemon.

To be continued.....Ash Catches a Pokemon!

Ash Catches a Pokemon

While traveling with Goh, they end up in a familiar area and it was the old stomping ground where the Pokemon Camp was held. Ash and Pikachu meet a Kangaskhan who Pikachu saw as a brother. Some men were causing trouble and Ash uses his power to chase them off. These were Team Rocket Agents. Ash bonds with Kangaskhan and ends up catching him.

Chapter 5 Ash Catches a Pokemon!

Goh was still sulking a bit, he was still believing his way worked and intended to keep trying. Ash carried him to a familiar area. “Here we are!”

“Hm?” Goh looked around and his eyes sparkled. “Wait this is?”

“Yep where Professor Oak took us on that summer trip.” Goh slid off his back. Pikachu looked around at the familiar place, Eevee looked around seeing a new place for the first time. Purple eyes looked about seeing all the fun places. “This is also where we first met right buddy?”

“Pika!”

“This is so cool.” Goh looked around.

Pikachu ran about eager to see and show them around.

Goh checked a Pokedex.

Dex: Wild Areas can be found in various routes, lots of different Pokemon gather here and can be found in large packs. It's possible for trainers to find rare Pokemon in Wild Areas. Trainers be warned very Powerful Pokemon can be found here, it's not exactly safe for beginners.

Pokemon in Wild Areas are likely to Swarm and Call for Help.

Goh tensed. “Ash is this safe?” Samuel had brought them here, but he was a skilled trainer and had his full Champion Team with him.

“Of course, we’ll be fine, if we run into trouble I’ll make sure we get out of dodge.”

Something spotted Ash’s Pikachu and it lunged from a hole. “Arbok!” The mon hissed. It lunged fangs bared.

“Pikachu use Thunder Shock!” Pikachu responded and zapped the snake.

“That’s an Arbok!” Goh gasped.

The mon was zapped and burned. It crackled with energy. He didn’t retreat, hissing at the Electric Mouse. Ash stomped his foot in warning.

Arbok tensed and turned to see the dragon. It tensed and fled, slithering away. “You okay Pikachu?” The mon nodded.

“Let’s do some catching!” Goh said.

He spotted a male Nidoran and wanted to catch it, but before he could a Nidoking sprang out. “King!”

“Gah!” Goh jumped. The Poison Type growled at him. “Alright then!” He rolled up his sleeves and tossed the ball. Nidoking used his horn to smash the ball. “Oh man!” It growled in warning. “One more time Pokeball Go!” He threw a ball with a curve. It hit Nidoking and sucked him up only for him to immediately break out.

“Nido!” Nidoking charged at them.

“Time Freeze!” Nidoking was frozen in a flash. Ash grabbed Goh and moved them out of the way. When he unfroze he charged and ran into a tree. He was fine just a little disoriented.

Ash carried them away from the danger.

Then came more trouble as a swarm of Koffing came floating around. “Those are Koffing!” Goh gasped.

They didn’t waste time and start producing poisonous gas, as if to mark their territory. Ash jumped back. “Let’s chase them off.”

“Really?!” Goh gasped.

He had Pikachu use Thunder Shock, it struck one of the Koffing and did quite a bit of damage. The other four began to unleash spurts of Sludge.

“Vee!” Eevee got annoyed and unleashed Swift. Stars surged out and began pelting the Koffing. Swift was a spread move perfect for Swarm Battles.

“Nice one Eevee!” The mon preened at the praise.

One of the Koffing went after Charmander and Goh. The boy tried to throw a ball, but Koffing simply dodged it, it’s floating made the ball miss the mark. It fired Sludge.

Charmander had enough and fought back with Ember. The flames shot out and clashed with Sludge. “Nice one Charmander!” Ash praised.

He waited for Goh to make a command, but the boy didn’t. “Char Char Char!” He pointed. Goh was focused on getting another ball.

“Monster Ball go!” Two other Koffing surged forth and blocked Koffing from being caught. “Ehh?”

Charmander face palmed. If they had weakened the one they were fighting and pulled it from the swarm they could have had a chance to get it. Goh gave it too much time to rejoin the pack.

“Eevee use Swift!” Eevee conjured a bunch of stars and let ‘em fly, they pelted the Koffing and the poison types fled.

They kept traveling. “You didn’t catch Arbok or any of those Koffing?” Goh wondered.

“I might catch one in the future but didn’t feel right just yet.” His companion didn’t understand.

Goh tried to catch a Kakuna, but it called for help and a Swarm of Beedrill came. Ash froze time and they fled. Then came a Farfetch’d. “Ohh this Pokemon is really rare!” Goh exclaimed. “I want to catch it!”

The mon uses it’s leak like a sword to cut things up. “Go for it.” Ash said.

He tried throwing a ball but Farfetch’d fought back and struck the ball breaking it. “Far far!”

“Let’s try a curve ball!” He chuckled the ball and it did hit.

Farfetch’d got sucked up. Jiggle...Jiggle...Pop! Farfetch’d came out. “Fetch!” He taunted flapping his wing. Goh threw another ball. Jiggle...Jiggle...Jiggle...

‘Come on come on!’ Pop!

Farfetch’d laughed. “Hnnn!” He threw the ball and Farfetch’d got sucked up Jiggle Jiggle...Pop “Ahh So close!” Another ball. Jiggle Jiggle Jiggle...Pop! “Shoot almost had it!” Another ball. Jiggle...Pop! “Oh come on!”

“Goh...it helps to catch Pokemon by battling with your own Pokemon.” Ash advised.

“Alright, you ready Charmander?”

“Char!” The fire type ran out. They had it out Farfetch’d using Peck and Charmander fighting back with Scratch.

“Use Ember!” The fire type blasted his flames pelting Farfetch’d.

“Now Monster Ball go!” Goh threw the ball it hit. Jiggle...Jiggle...Jiggle... The boy could feel the anticipation burning hotter than Charmander’s tail. Ping! The joy he felt washed through him. “I caught Farfetch’d!”

“Yeah you did!” Ash praised.

When he picked up the ball it suddenly went tiny. “Huh?” He clicked it, but nothing happened. “What’s happened?”

“You’ve reached your carry limit.” Goh checked the Pokedex and it explained that he could choose which Pokemon to send back with the Pokedex. He had a carry limit of 6, Ash had an expanded carry limit for special reasons.

Using the dex he sent Pidgey back and kept Farfetch’d.

Pikachu knew where some Oran Berries were so they went and Farfetch'd got healed up and a snack. "Kanga!" A mon called out.

Goh jumped and clung to Ash. "Ohh it's a Kangaskhan!" Ash gasped.

He pulled out his Pokedex.

Dexter: Kangaskhan, the Parent Pokemon, a Normal Type. Raises its young in its belly pouch. Won't run from any fight to keep its young protected. The infant rarely ventures out of it's parent's protective pouch until it's at least 3 years old. If it is safe, the young will leave the pouch to play. Kangaskhan sleep standing up to protect their young.

"We must be in Kangaskhan's territory."

"Pika!" The Electric type cried out running forward.

"Khan?"

"Pi pi pi Chu chu!"

"Wait it must be..." Kangaskhan came over and sniffed Ash.

"Khan!" This was Pikachu's "brother" all grown up. As a Pichu he'd been raised by a Mama Kangaskhan. When he was old enough he left but the bond between them helped Pichu evolve.

“It’s good to see you again.” Kangaskhan was shocked to see Ash’s new form, but the scent was the same. He hugged Ash, he didn’t have a baby yet. Male Kangaskhan were rare, but did eventually raise a Kanga Baby sooner or later. Male Kangaskhan often were tasked with patrolling pack areas and such until they were given a cub to raise. “Hope we aren’t intruding.”

Kangaskhan shook his head, he saw Pikachu as a brother and Ash had saved his life, he was welcome. His party was covered in this. Pikachu and Eevee took turns riding in Kangaskhan’s pouch, and Ash even let Kangaskhan ride on his back, it was a blast.

“Kanga...Kanga...Kanga...Kanga...” A call echoed out.

Kangaskhan came down and charged off. “Sounds like trouble, let’s go!”

Ash followed and sure enough there was trouble. There were men in black uniforms, with a familiar crimson R on them.

“Who are they?”

They were using weapons, rocket launchers and nets. “What are they doing?!” Goh gasped. The nets were electrified, shocking the Kangaskhan. “This is awful!”

What happened was, these grunts had pounced and captured a bunch of Baby Kangaskhan, put them in a cage. Their cries drew the parents and the pack and the blind rage unleashed, which left them defenseless for the surprise attacks. After being zapped and essentially tazed they were thrown into large cages.

Kangaskhan charged in, going to free the babies. “Another one of the grunts said before aiming at the mon.

Bang!

He got caught and zapped. “Kangaskhan no!” Ash’s voice rang out drawing attention.

“What the heck is that?”

“Who cares bag it and tag it!”

Kangaskhan was caught in the net, getting shocked but he was still fighting, even crawling along the ground towards the cage with the babies.

The grunts turned their weapons on Ash. “Time Stop!”

Goh and Ash’s Pokemon watched as time stop. Ash charged forth and went to help Kangaskhan. Using his aura he lifted the freeze on him alone. He was able to break out of the net.

“Let’s work together, Goh free the Kangaskhan, Kangaskhan free the babies, Pikachu and Eevee provide back up, I'll deal with them." Ash cracked his knuckles.

They moved to the right positions when Ash restarted time. Suddenly Ash was closer and everything was different in the blink of an eye. Goh had gotten the key from the frozen agents and had begun unlocking the cages.

"When did you? How did you?" He pointed his weapon at Goh.

"Force!" The rocket launcher was destroyed in an instant.

"It's him get him!" Two other agents aim at Ash and he knocks their weapons out of their hands with his tail. They don't have much time to react before he hind kicks them and sends them flying into trees.

Pikachu shorts out the electric cage, allowing Kangaskhan to smash it open, freeing the babies. "No you don't, this'll stop you!" The grunt aimed his launcher at them.

"Time Beam!" Ash was faster, he blasted the guy with raw time energy, causing the weapon and every non living thing to be aged to dust, so his clothes were reduced to nothing and he was naked in seconds. He gasped and quickly tried to cover himself.

“Damn it!” The last two grunts whistled, and some Raticate showed up. They growled and hissed and went after the Pokemon.

Eevee didn’t even hesitate unleashing Swift and pelting them with stars. Pikachu sparked up and unleashed Thunder Shock. A Raticate lunged at them only for Kangaskhan charged in with Tackle, his hefty body hit Raticate and sent him flying into the other. “Eevee use Swift, Pikachu use Thunder Shock on the Swift.” Ash called.

They did as ordered, the Normal type move absorbed the electrical energy glowing brighter and crackling with electricity. The Shock Stars pelted the Raticate and they got fried and were knocked out.

“Whoa so cool!” Goh said.

“Ugh you little!” One of the grunts went to grab Goh.

Charmander sprang up and blasted him with Ember, forcing him to back off. Ash hit him with a Time Beam and reduced his clothes to dust.

“I don’t know what you are but hybrids are still Pokemon.” He threw a ball at Ash.

Pikachu came in for the save using Thunder Shock to blast the ball and destroy it. “Thanks buddy!”

The agents had no choice but to flee, they used a smoke bomb and fled. Ash didn't give chase, his focus was on the care of the Kangaskhan. "Is everyone accounted for?" After a moment he nodded. Quite the relief.

After getting treatment the Kangaskhan invited Ash and Goh and their Pokemon to celebrate and thank them. They shared food and drink and partied. It was a blast!

When it was time to go, Pikachu's bro approached Ash. "Do you want to come with us?" Kangaskhan nodded. Ketchum smiled. "We'd love to have you." He offered a ball and tapped it to Kangaskhan's chest.

Jiggle...Ping!

Goh's jaw dropped. "I caught Kangaskhan!"

"Pikachu!" "Vee Eevee!" His mons cheered.

"I guess there are all kinds of ways to catch Pokemon..." He said.
