

The Brob. sisters:

by fabelamole

hey! big sister! i think we're really going to be in trouble when mom realizes that we crossed her border post in her absence!

Don't worry, she had an urgent meeting, so we're safe for a while, she won't realize anything!

Maybe, but I don't know where I'm going with all this fog on the ground. Imagine if we were to crush entire Lilliputian cities without realizing it.

Don't worry too much. Their species has been trampled by ours for centuries. It's their fault for being born so microscopic compared to us. Don't worry about a few grains of dust crushed under your feet. It's always annoying to wait for mom to finish her work, so why not pass the time!

Meanwhile, not far away, a Lilliputian family is enjoying a trip to the mountains in their chalet, without for a moment worrying about the danger that threatens them!

Don't worry, we're not afraid of insects. We'll squash them before they can bite!

Girls! Don't go playing too far away. The forest can be dangerous around here and watch out for insect bites!

BOOOOMM!!!

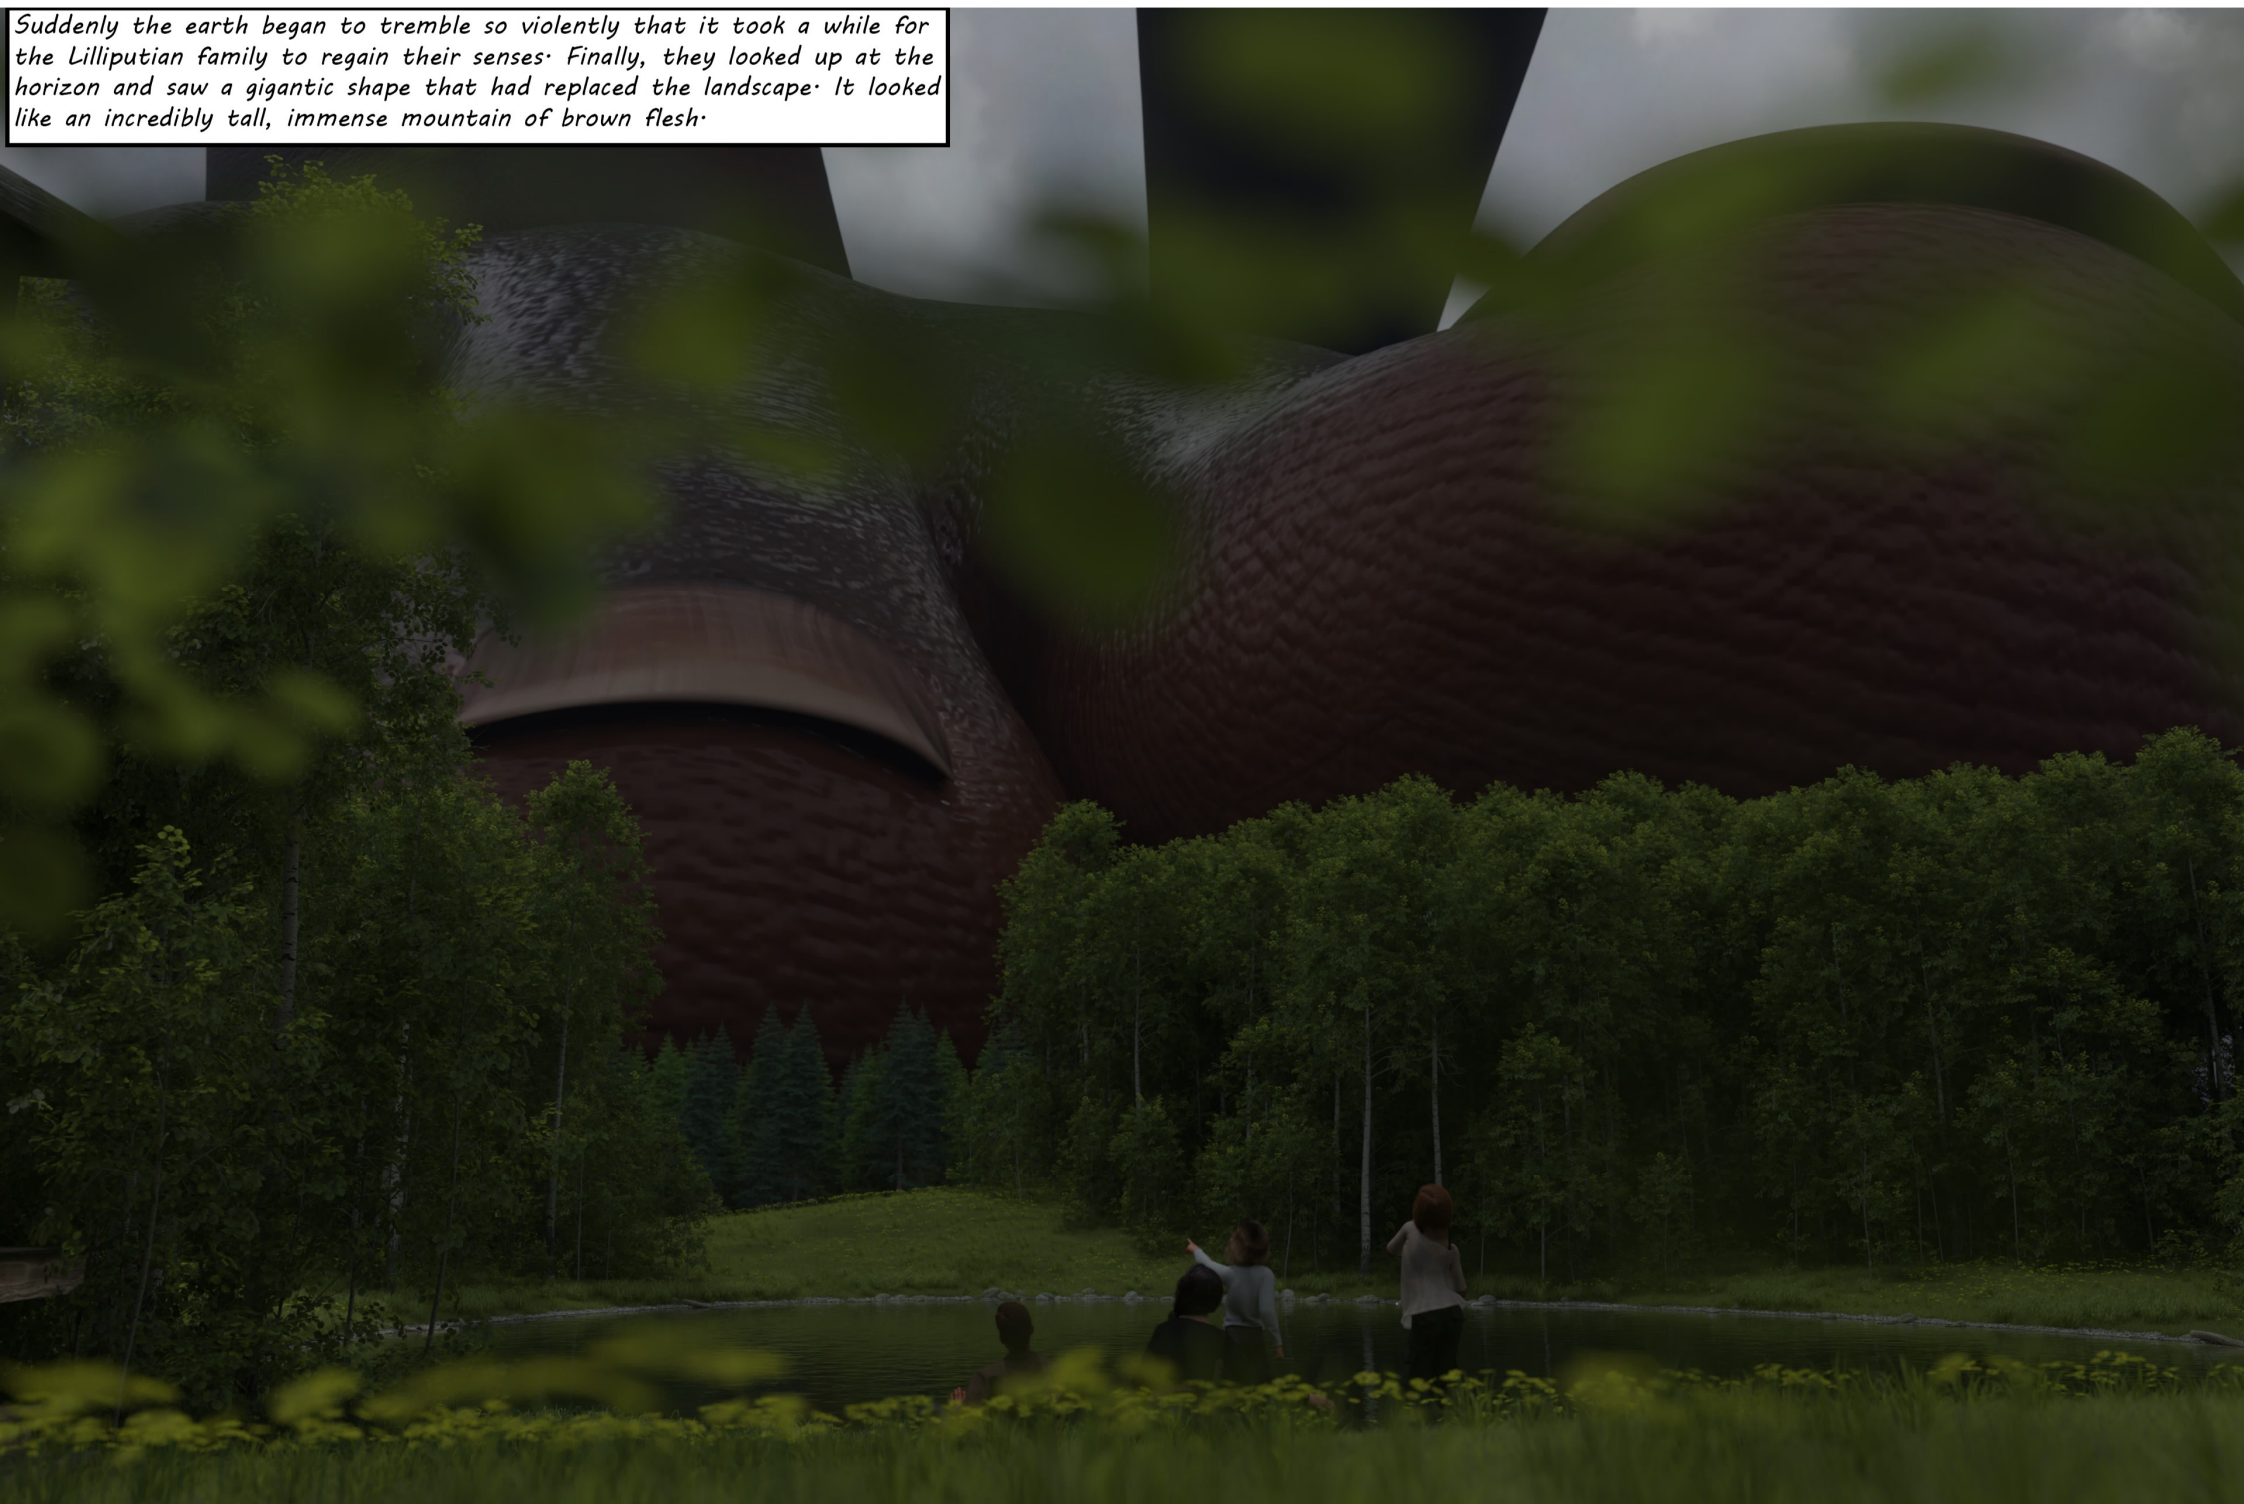

argh!!!!

Wouahhh!!!!

What the...?!!

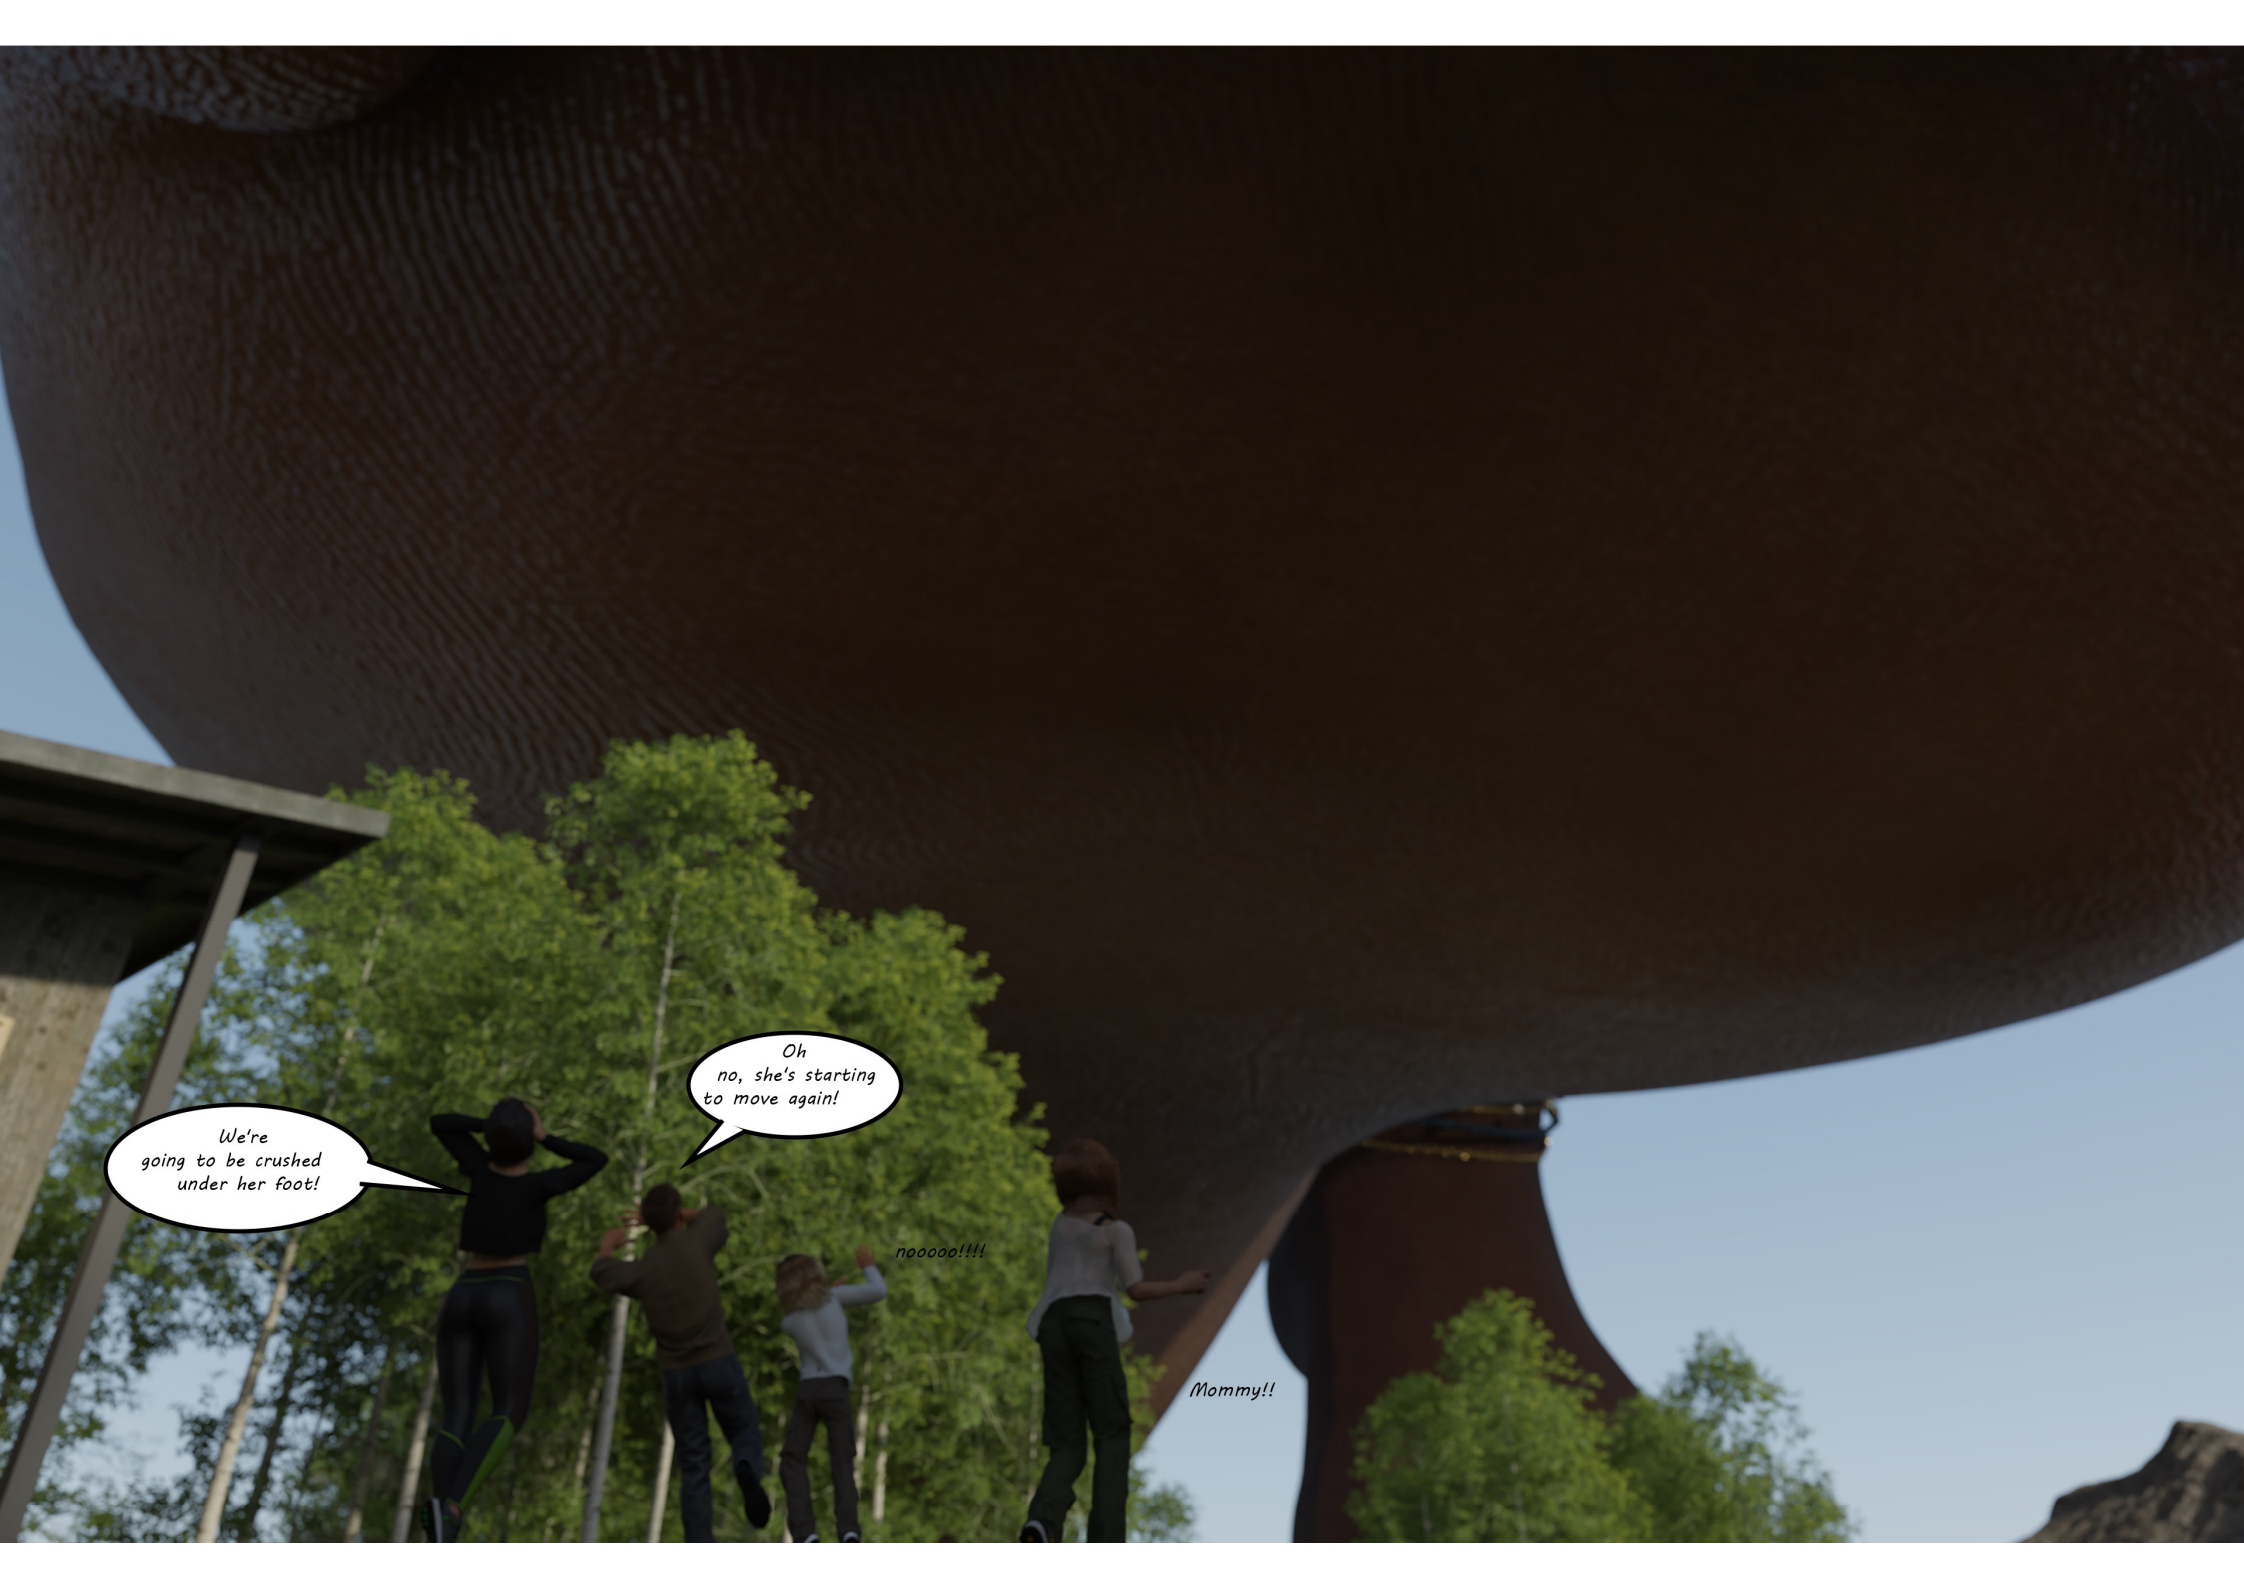

Suddenly the earth began to tremble so violently that it took a while for the Lilliputian family to regain their senses. Finally, they looked up at the horizon and saw a gigantic shape that had replaced the landscape. It looked like an incredibly tall, immense mountain of brown flesh.

However, what he thought was a mountain was nothing more than the gigantic toes of little sister Brob, whose foot had just been crushed a hundred meters from their residence. The latter was so tiny and the residents even tinier, and little Brob hadn't even noticed their presence. They were nothing but specks of dust to her.

We're
going to be crushed
under her foot!

Oh
no, she's starting to move again!

nooooo!!!!

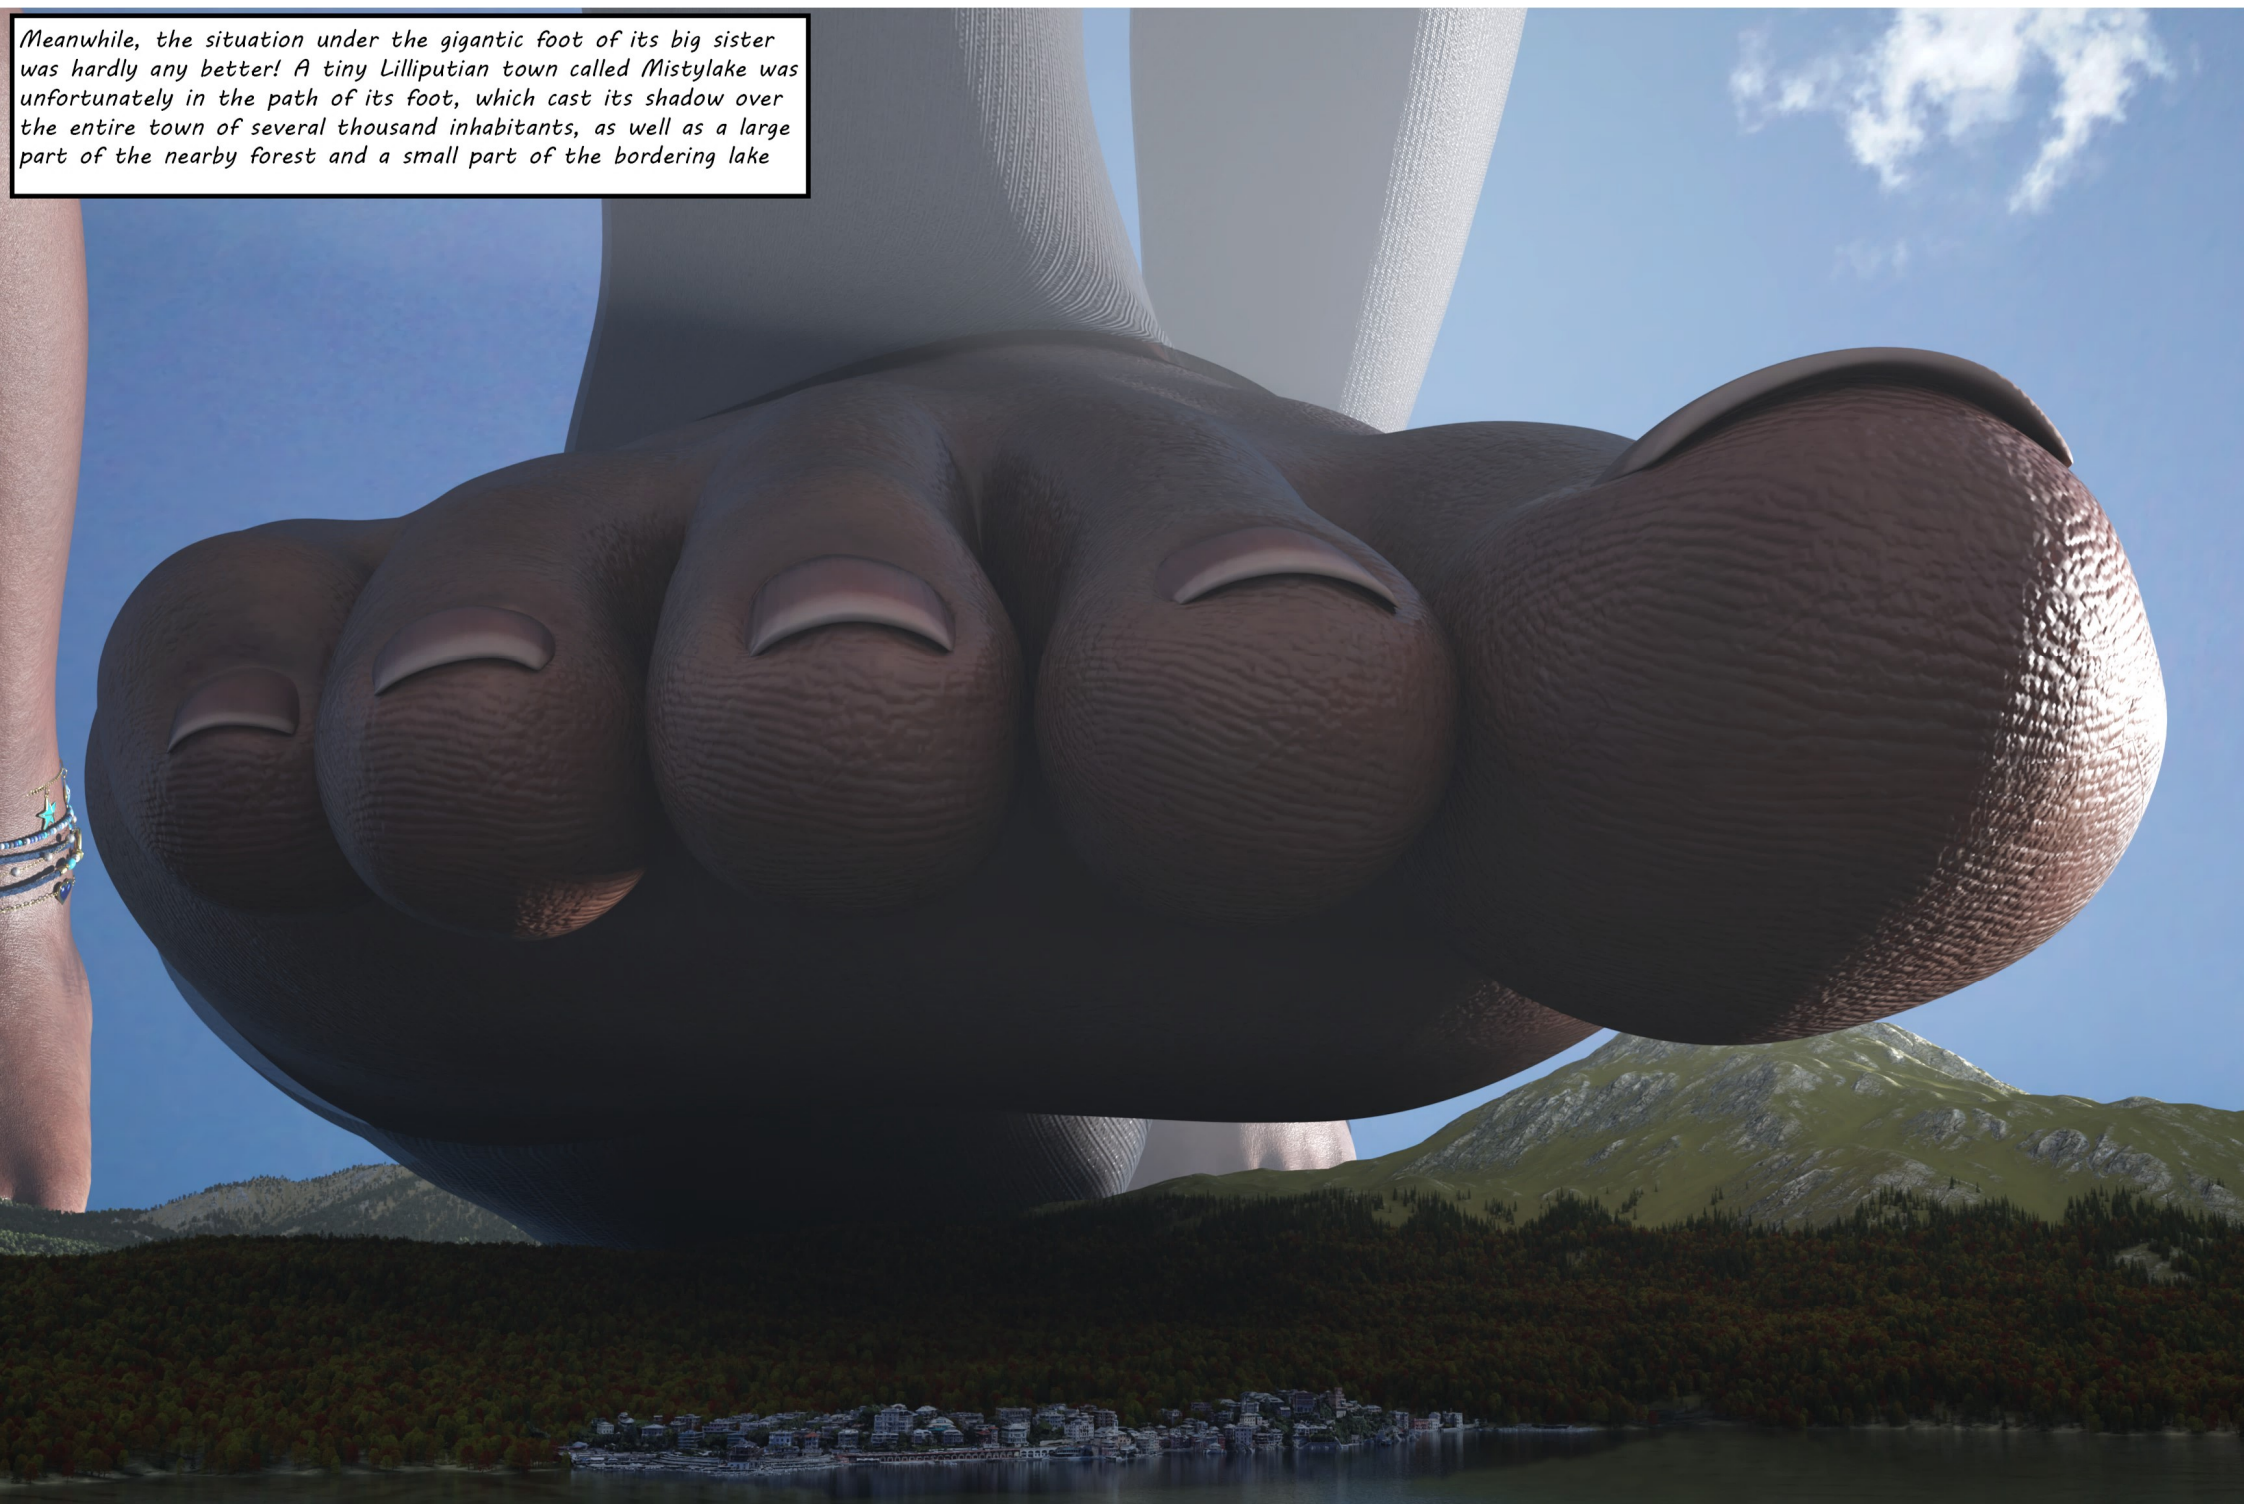

Mommy!!

It didn't take anything more for little Brob than one of her toes to crush the entire Lilliputian residence and its surroundings, and of course without her even being aware of their existence!

Booomm!!!!

Meanwhile, the situation under the gigantic foot of its big sister was hardly any better! A tiny Lilliputian town called Mistylake was unfortunately in the path of its foot, which cast its shadow over the entire town of several thousand inhabitants, as well as a large part of the nearby forest and a small part of the bordering lake when the foot of the big sister touched the ground, almost the entire city and its inhabitants were instantly crushed by the infinite pressure caused by this immeasurable pile of flesh, seen from the sky! as a result, a large part of the forest, animals, landscape, the whole region was destroyed with just one of her steps!

And if that wasn't enough, a small part of the foot of the Grande Brob touched the lake, which resulted in the creation of an immense tsunami that drowned the other side of the forest that had been spared by the impact, at the same time drowning hundreds of individuals and animals that had taken refuge there.

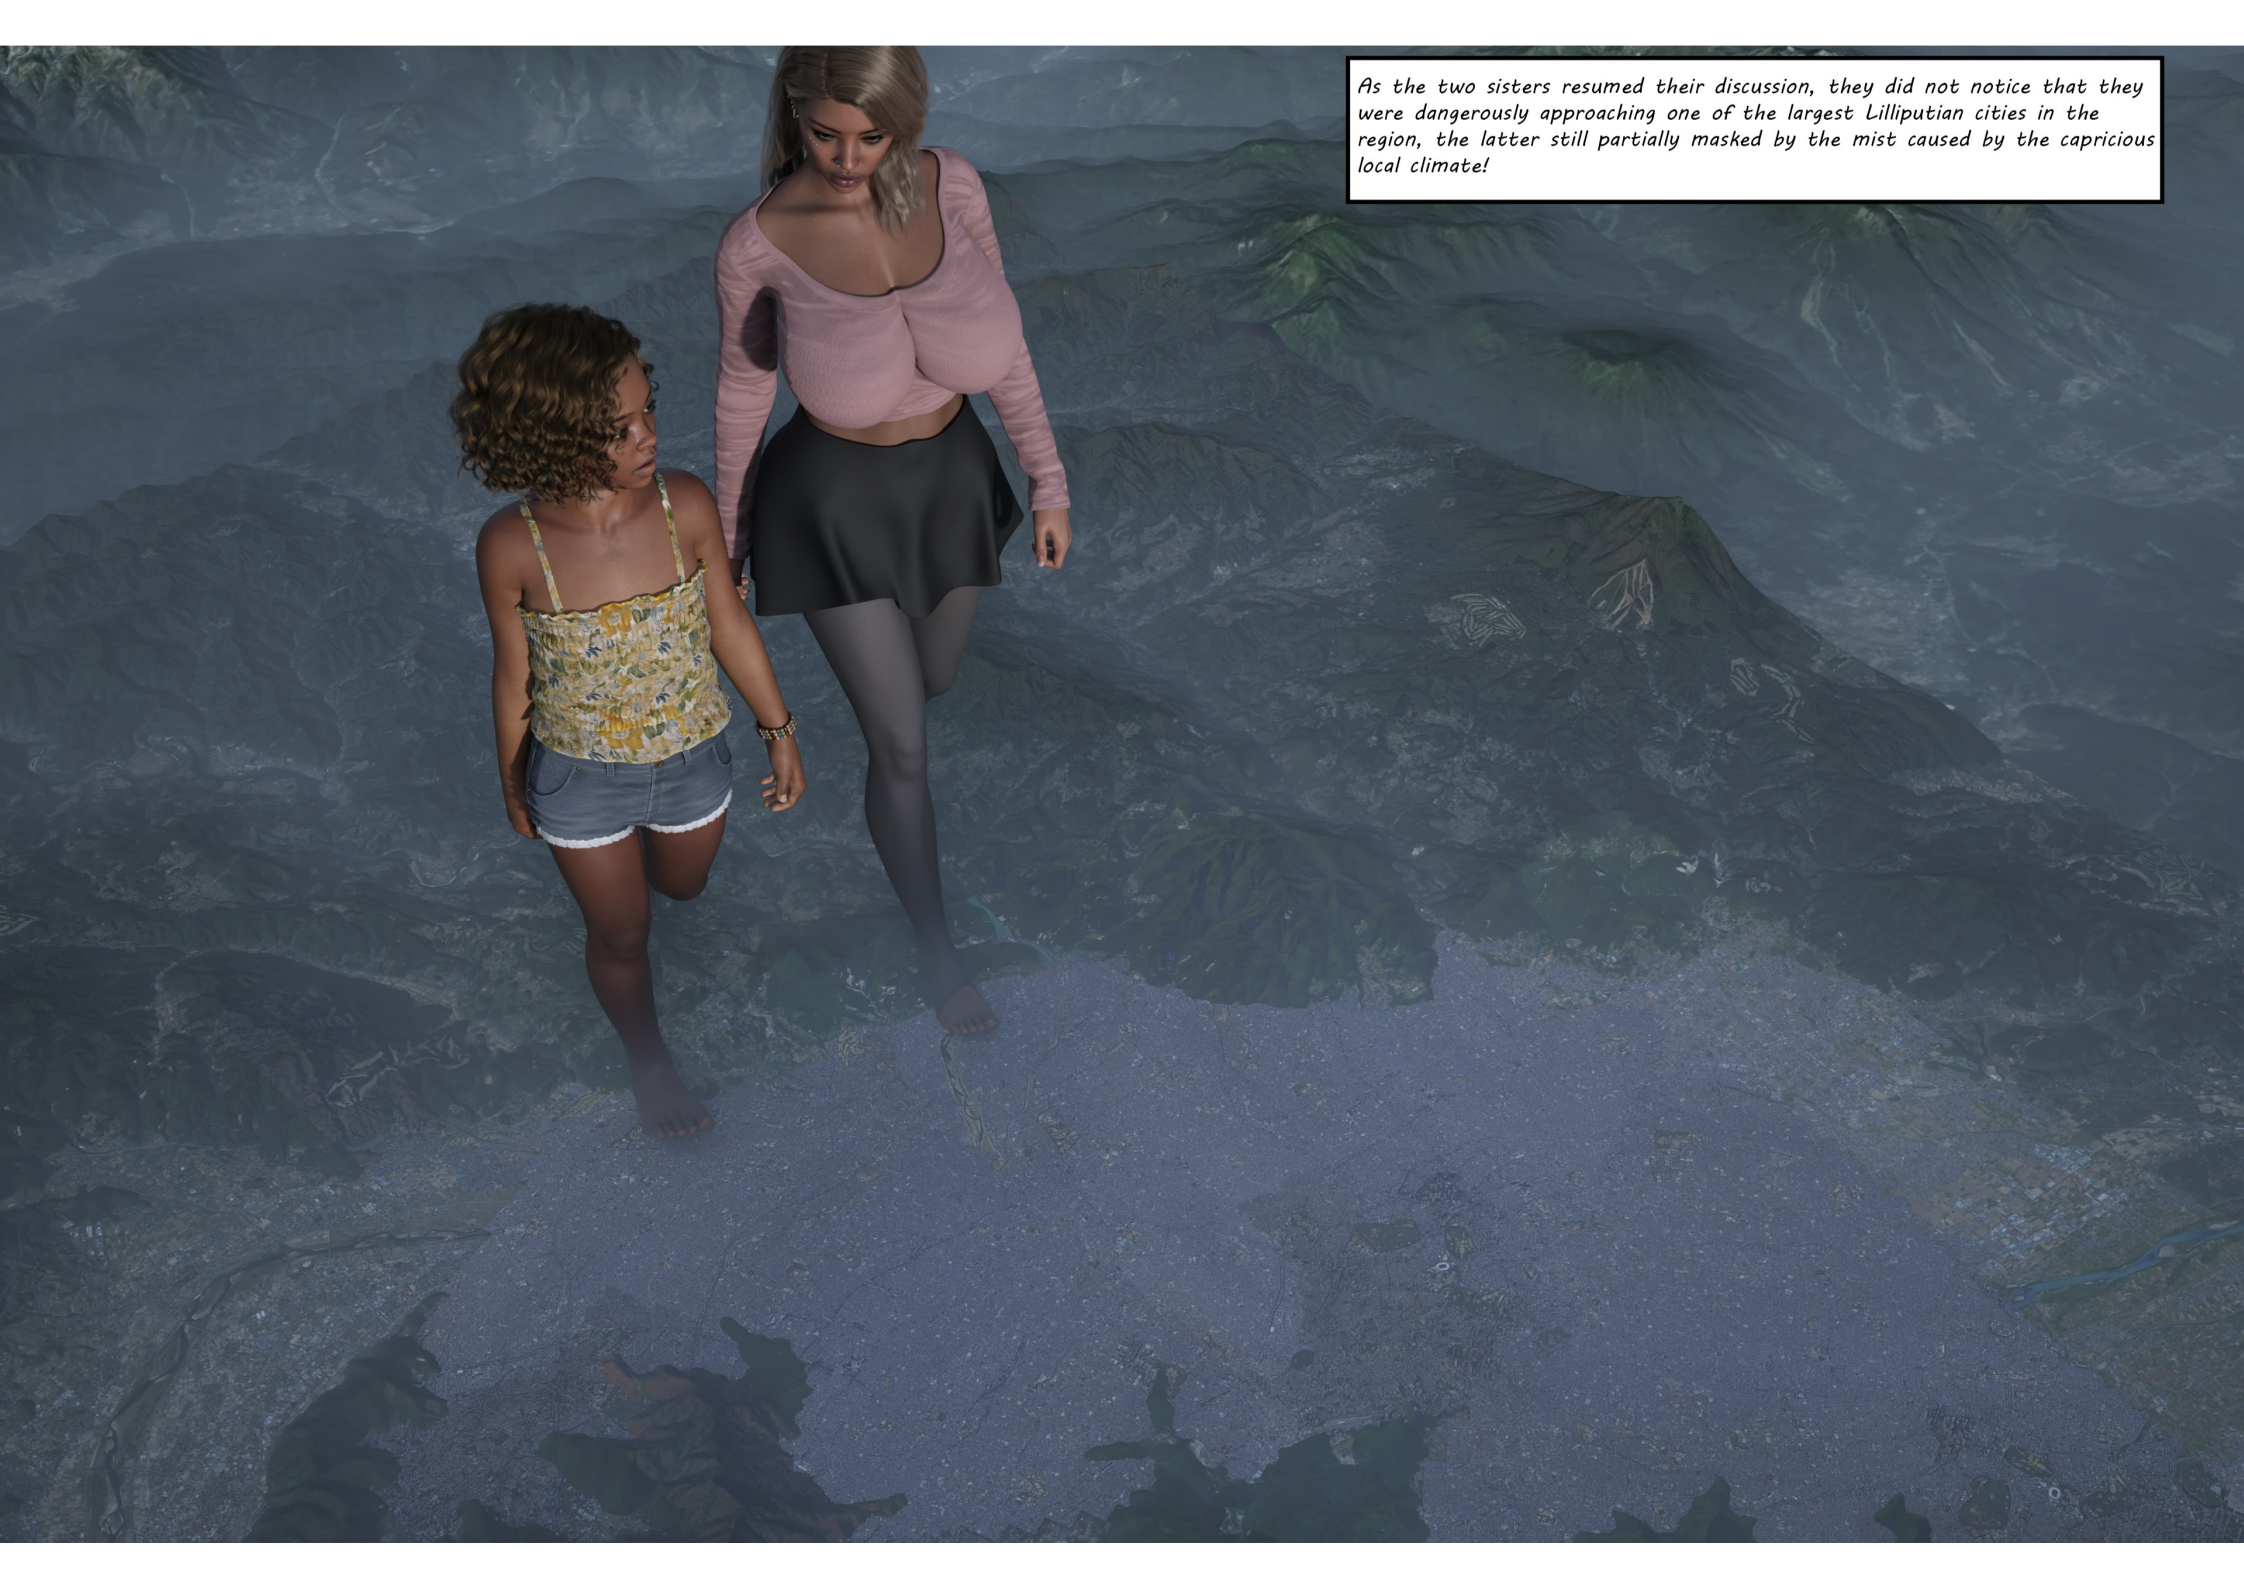

something wrong,
big sis?

Dunno!
Something was tickling my toes for a second, but it's gone!

A dramatic comic book illustration featuring the giant monster Godzilla on the left and the Mothra larva on the right. They are both shown from the waist up, emerging from a massive, textured brown hand that is stepping out of the ocean. The hand's fingers are spread wide, and its skin has a wrinkled, scale-like texture. The Mothra larva is positioned directly in front of the hand, while Godzilla is to the left. Both creatures are surrounded by thick, billowing white smoke or steam. In the background, a small coastal town is visible on the shore, with several buildings on fire and thick black smoke rising into the sky. The sky is filled with heavy, grey clouds, and the water in the foreground is dark and turbulent. Two speech bubbles are present: one from Godzilla on the left and one from Mothra on the right.

Do you think it was...?!!

It doesn't matter what it was, if it was in the way of my foot, it must be gone now!

As the two sisters resumed their discussion, they did not notice that they were dangerously approaching one of the largest Lilliputian cities in the region, the latter still partially masked by the mist caused by the capricious local climate!

when their feet finally reached the city, the repercussions of their walking on it were cataclysmic! entire neighborhoods filled with thousands of Lilliputians were completely crushed under their feet! and the shock waves generated by the latter destroyed even more buildings in the neighboring areas, killing several thousand more! the debris from the crushed buildings shot into the air, raining down on the city like a meteor shower that killed even more worlds. in a single step by each of the two sisters, several hundred thousand Lilliputians lost their lives, and they didn't even realize it.

The microscopic Lilliputians tried to flee wherever they could, but it was a lost cause. The distance they were able to cover by running at full speed was absolutely insignificant compared to young Brob, who only had to put down his foot to literally crush miles of crowded areas.

Huh?! What a strange feeling! It feels like I'm walking on tiny gravel! Did I step on something?

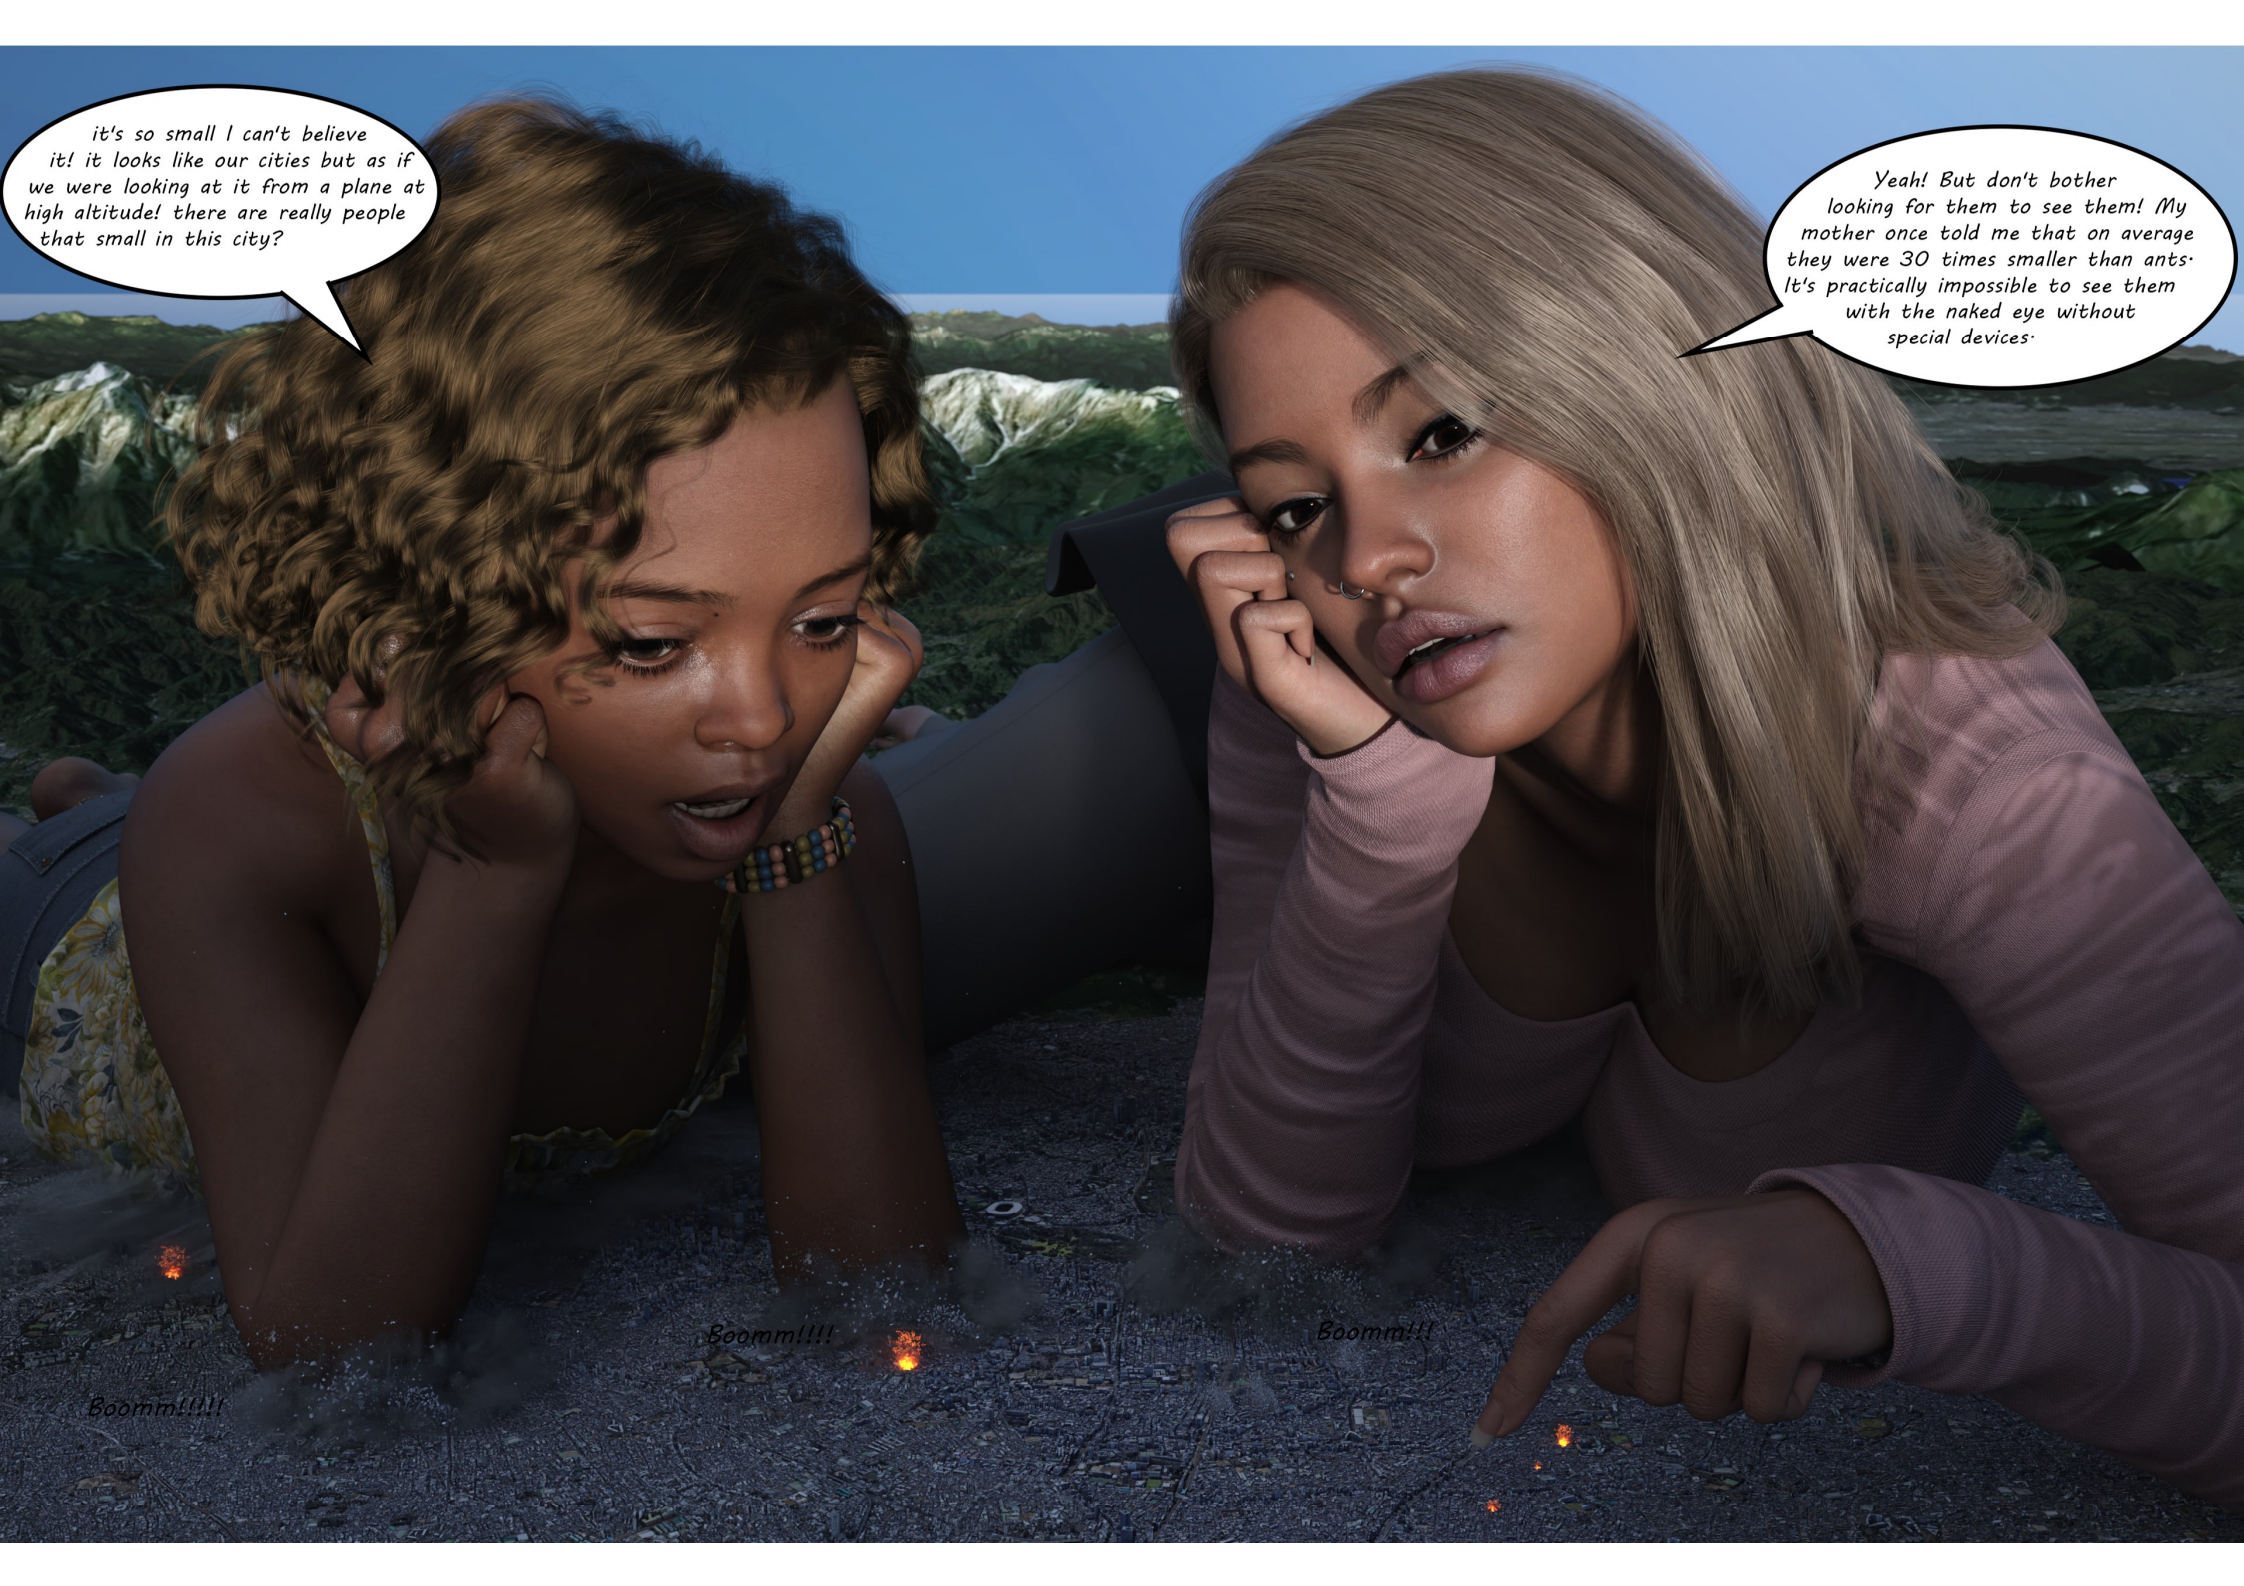

A digital illustration of two women standing on a vast, hazy mountain range. The woman on the left is younger, with curly brown hair, wearing a yellow floral halter top and denim shorts. She is looking down at the ground. The woman on the right is older, with blonde hair, wearing a pink long-sleeved crop top and a black skirt. She is looking down at the younger woman. The background consists of rolling, misty mountains under a blue sky.

*Oh my goodness! Sis, look, we're crushing a Lilliputian city!
Look at those buildings, they're so microscopic, they don't even reach our toes!*

*Eheh! That's truly pathetic!
We could literally crush their biggest city under our feet without even realizing it!*

it's so small I can't believe it! it looks like our cities but as if we were looking at it from a plane at high altitude! there are really people that small in this city?

Yeah! But don't bother looking for them to see them! My mother once told me that on average they were 30 times smaller than ants. It's practically impossible to see them with the naked eye without special devices.

Look! even their tallest buildings are incredibly fragile! my finger can barely touch this skyscraper and yet it is literally crumbling to pieces! i wonder how many hundreds of lilliputians are inside, praying for their lives! heheh!

crack

A close-up, high-contrast image of a giant, dark-skinned hand reaching down to crush a city. The hand's fingers are thick and textured, with the index finger pressing into a dense field of tiny, colorful buildings. A small cloud of dust or smoke rises from the point of impact. The background is dark and out of focus, emphasizing the scale of the hand compared to the city below.

Oops! It looks like I used a little too much force! I must have squashed not only the building but the whole neighborhood under my finger! I wonder how many thousands of people were squashed!

Booomm!!!

the target is soon within range! lock your weapons on the biggest one and open fire!

yes sir!!

she's too gigantic!!

my gosh!!

she's bigger than a whole row of mountains

the squadron of lilliputian fighters was now within sight of the Brob, but they were so tiny that the giantess didn't even notice them! they were nothing more than grains of dust to her, barely perceptible!

Fire!!!!

Kaboom!!

Booom!!

Booom!!

Booom!!

*Hmm?! What are those mosquitoes? Don't tell me those tiny blobs are attacking me! Jeez, even their aircraft were barely visible!
Ahah! What a nuisance!*

okay, that's enough! I salute your tiny parasitic bravery! but you're ruining my moment of relaxation with my little sister! so get out!

the tiny aircraft relentlessly continued their assault on the giant woman without success! The pilots were then surprised when everything went dark around them and two surfaces with unfathomable waists replaced the landscape and approached each other at high speed! The fighters tried every possible evasive maneuver but it was too late. The Brob's fingers were too huge for it to escape fast enough.

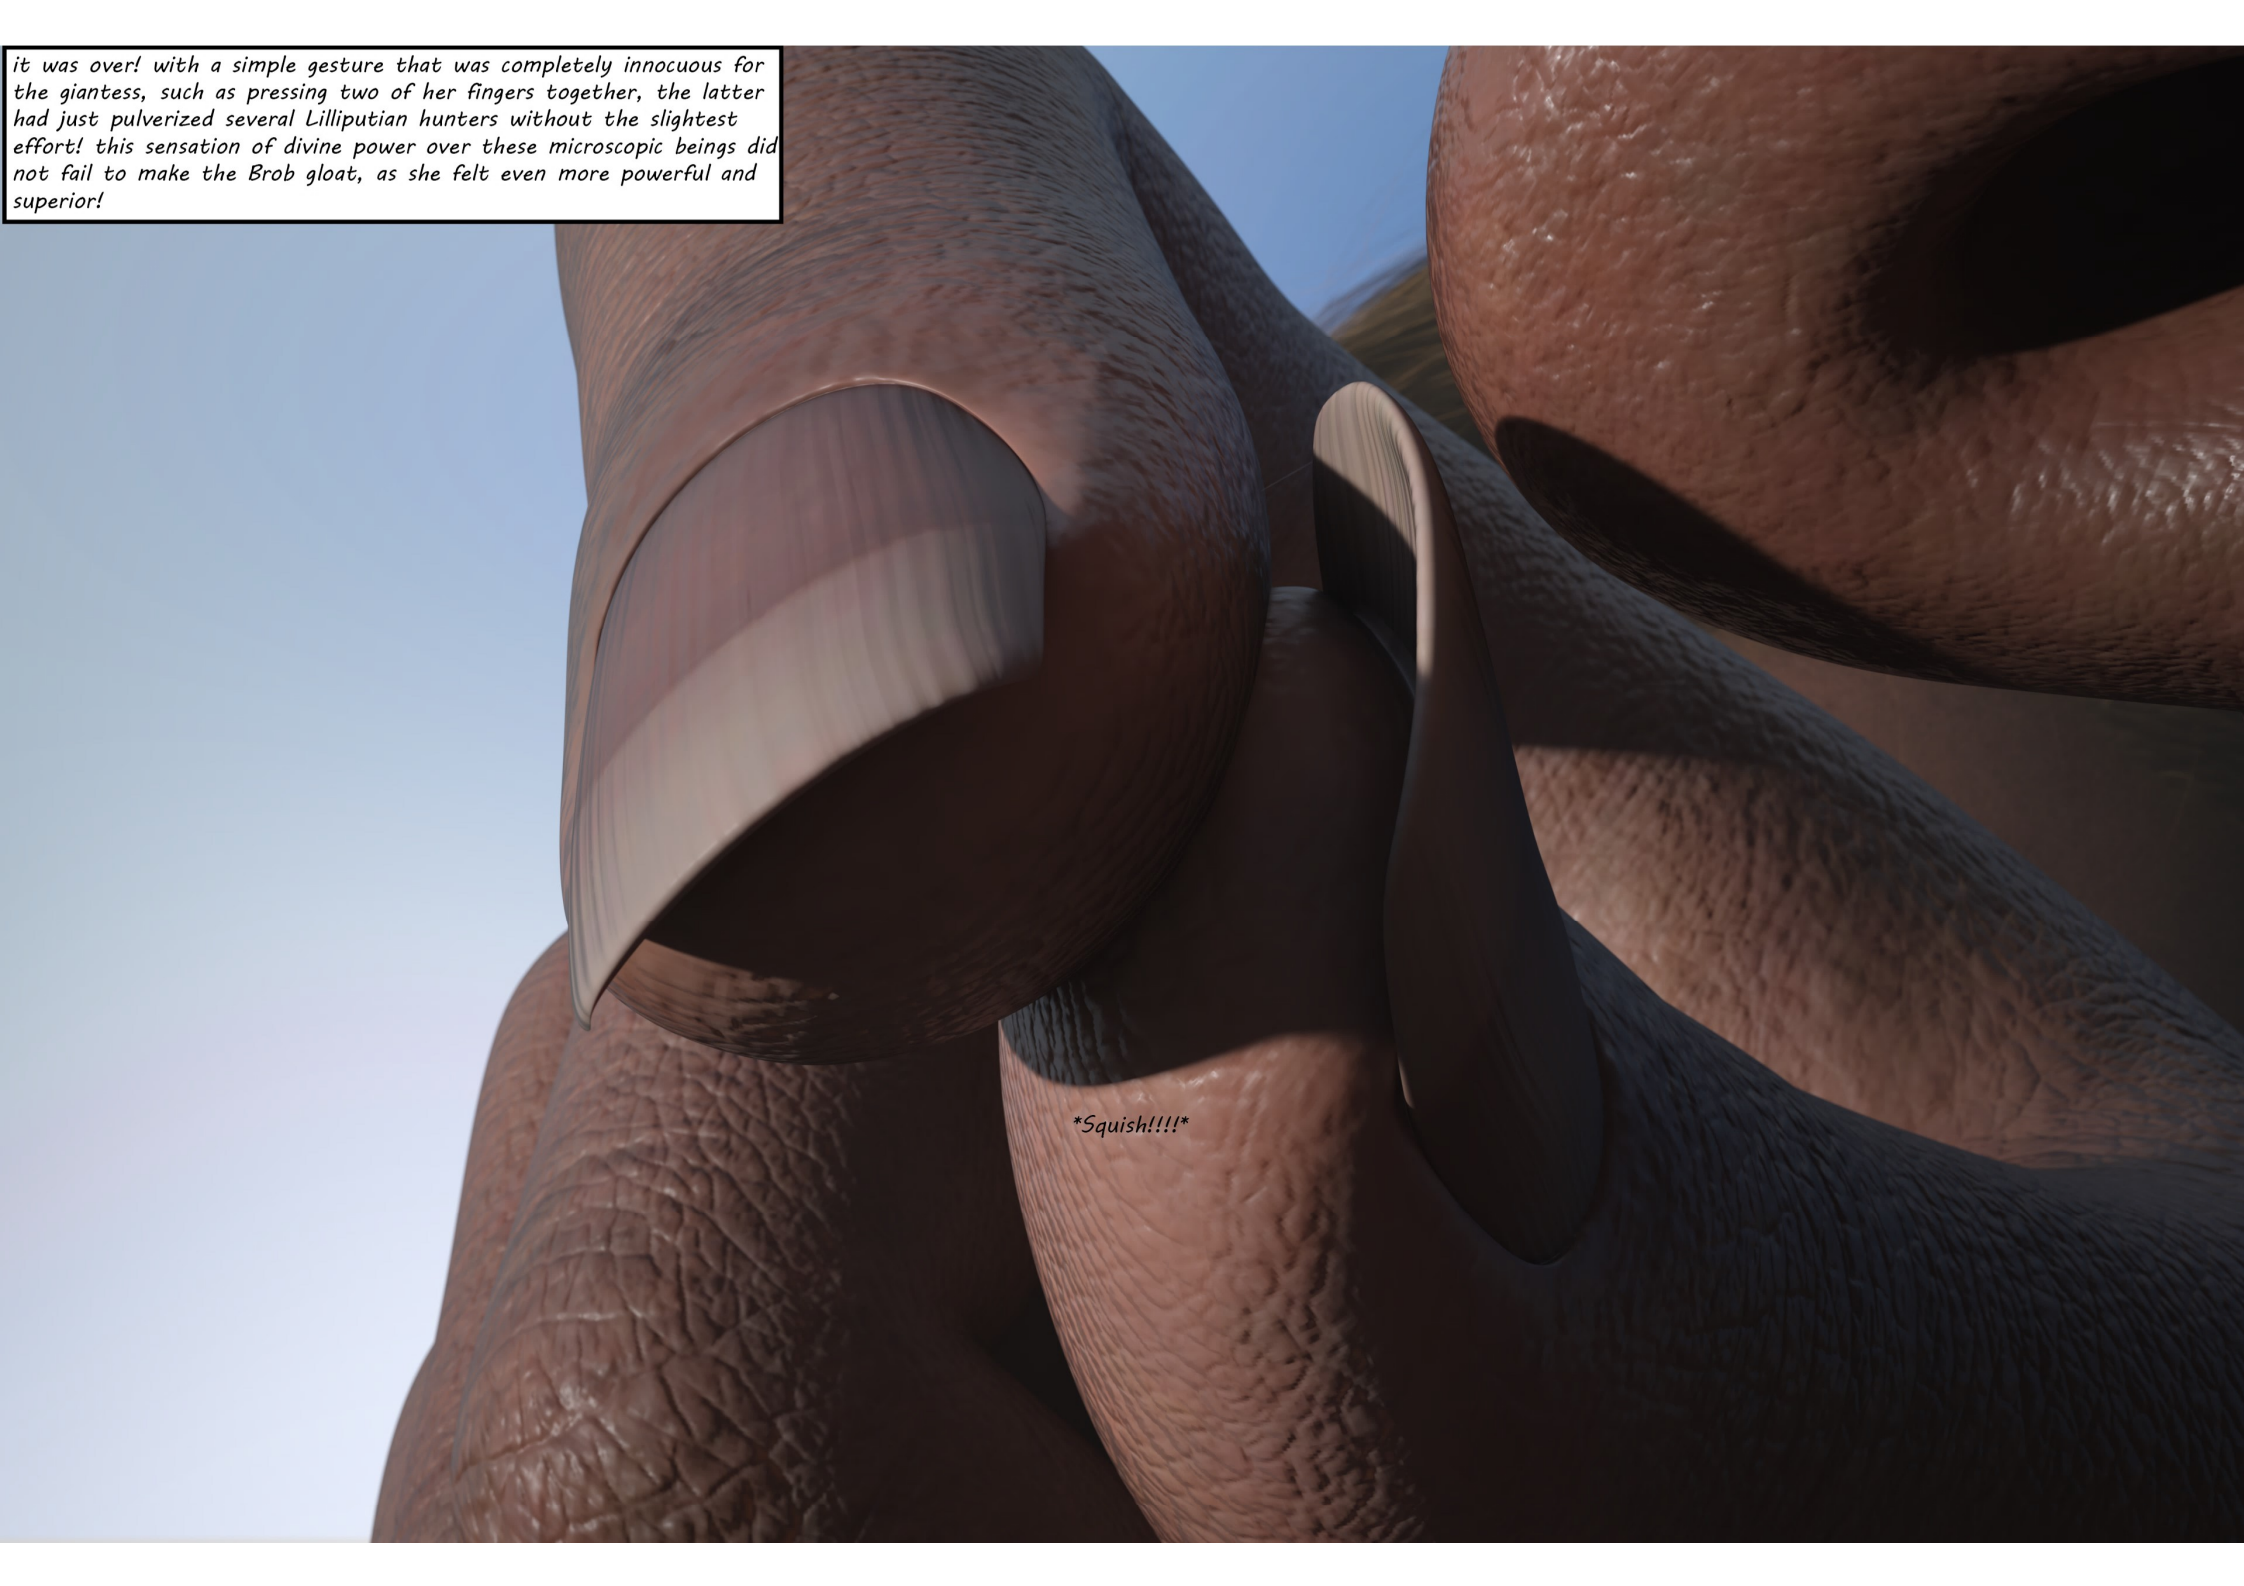

we're doomed

nooooo!!!

it was over! with a simple gesture that was completely innocuous for the giantess, such as pressing two of her fingers together, the latter had just pulverized several Lilliputian hunters without the slightest effort! this sensation of divine power over these microscopic beings did not fail to make the Brob gloat, as she felt even more powerful and superior!

Squish!!!!

A cinematic scene of two women lying on their stomachs on a sandy beach at night. The woman on the left has dark, curly hair and is looking towards the woman on the right. The woman on the right has long, straight blonde hair and is pointing her finger at the sand. In the background, there are large, dark green leaves and a small fire burning on the sand. The sky is dark blue.

*Is
something wrong, Sis?*

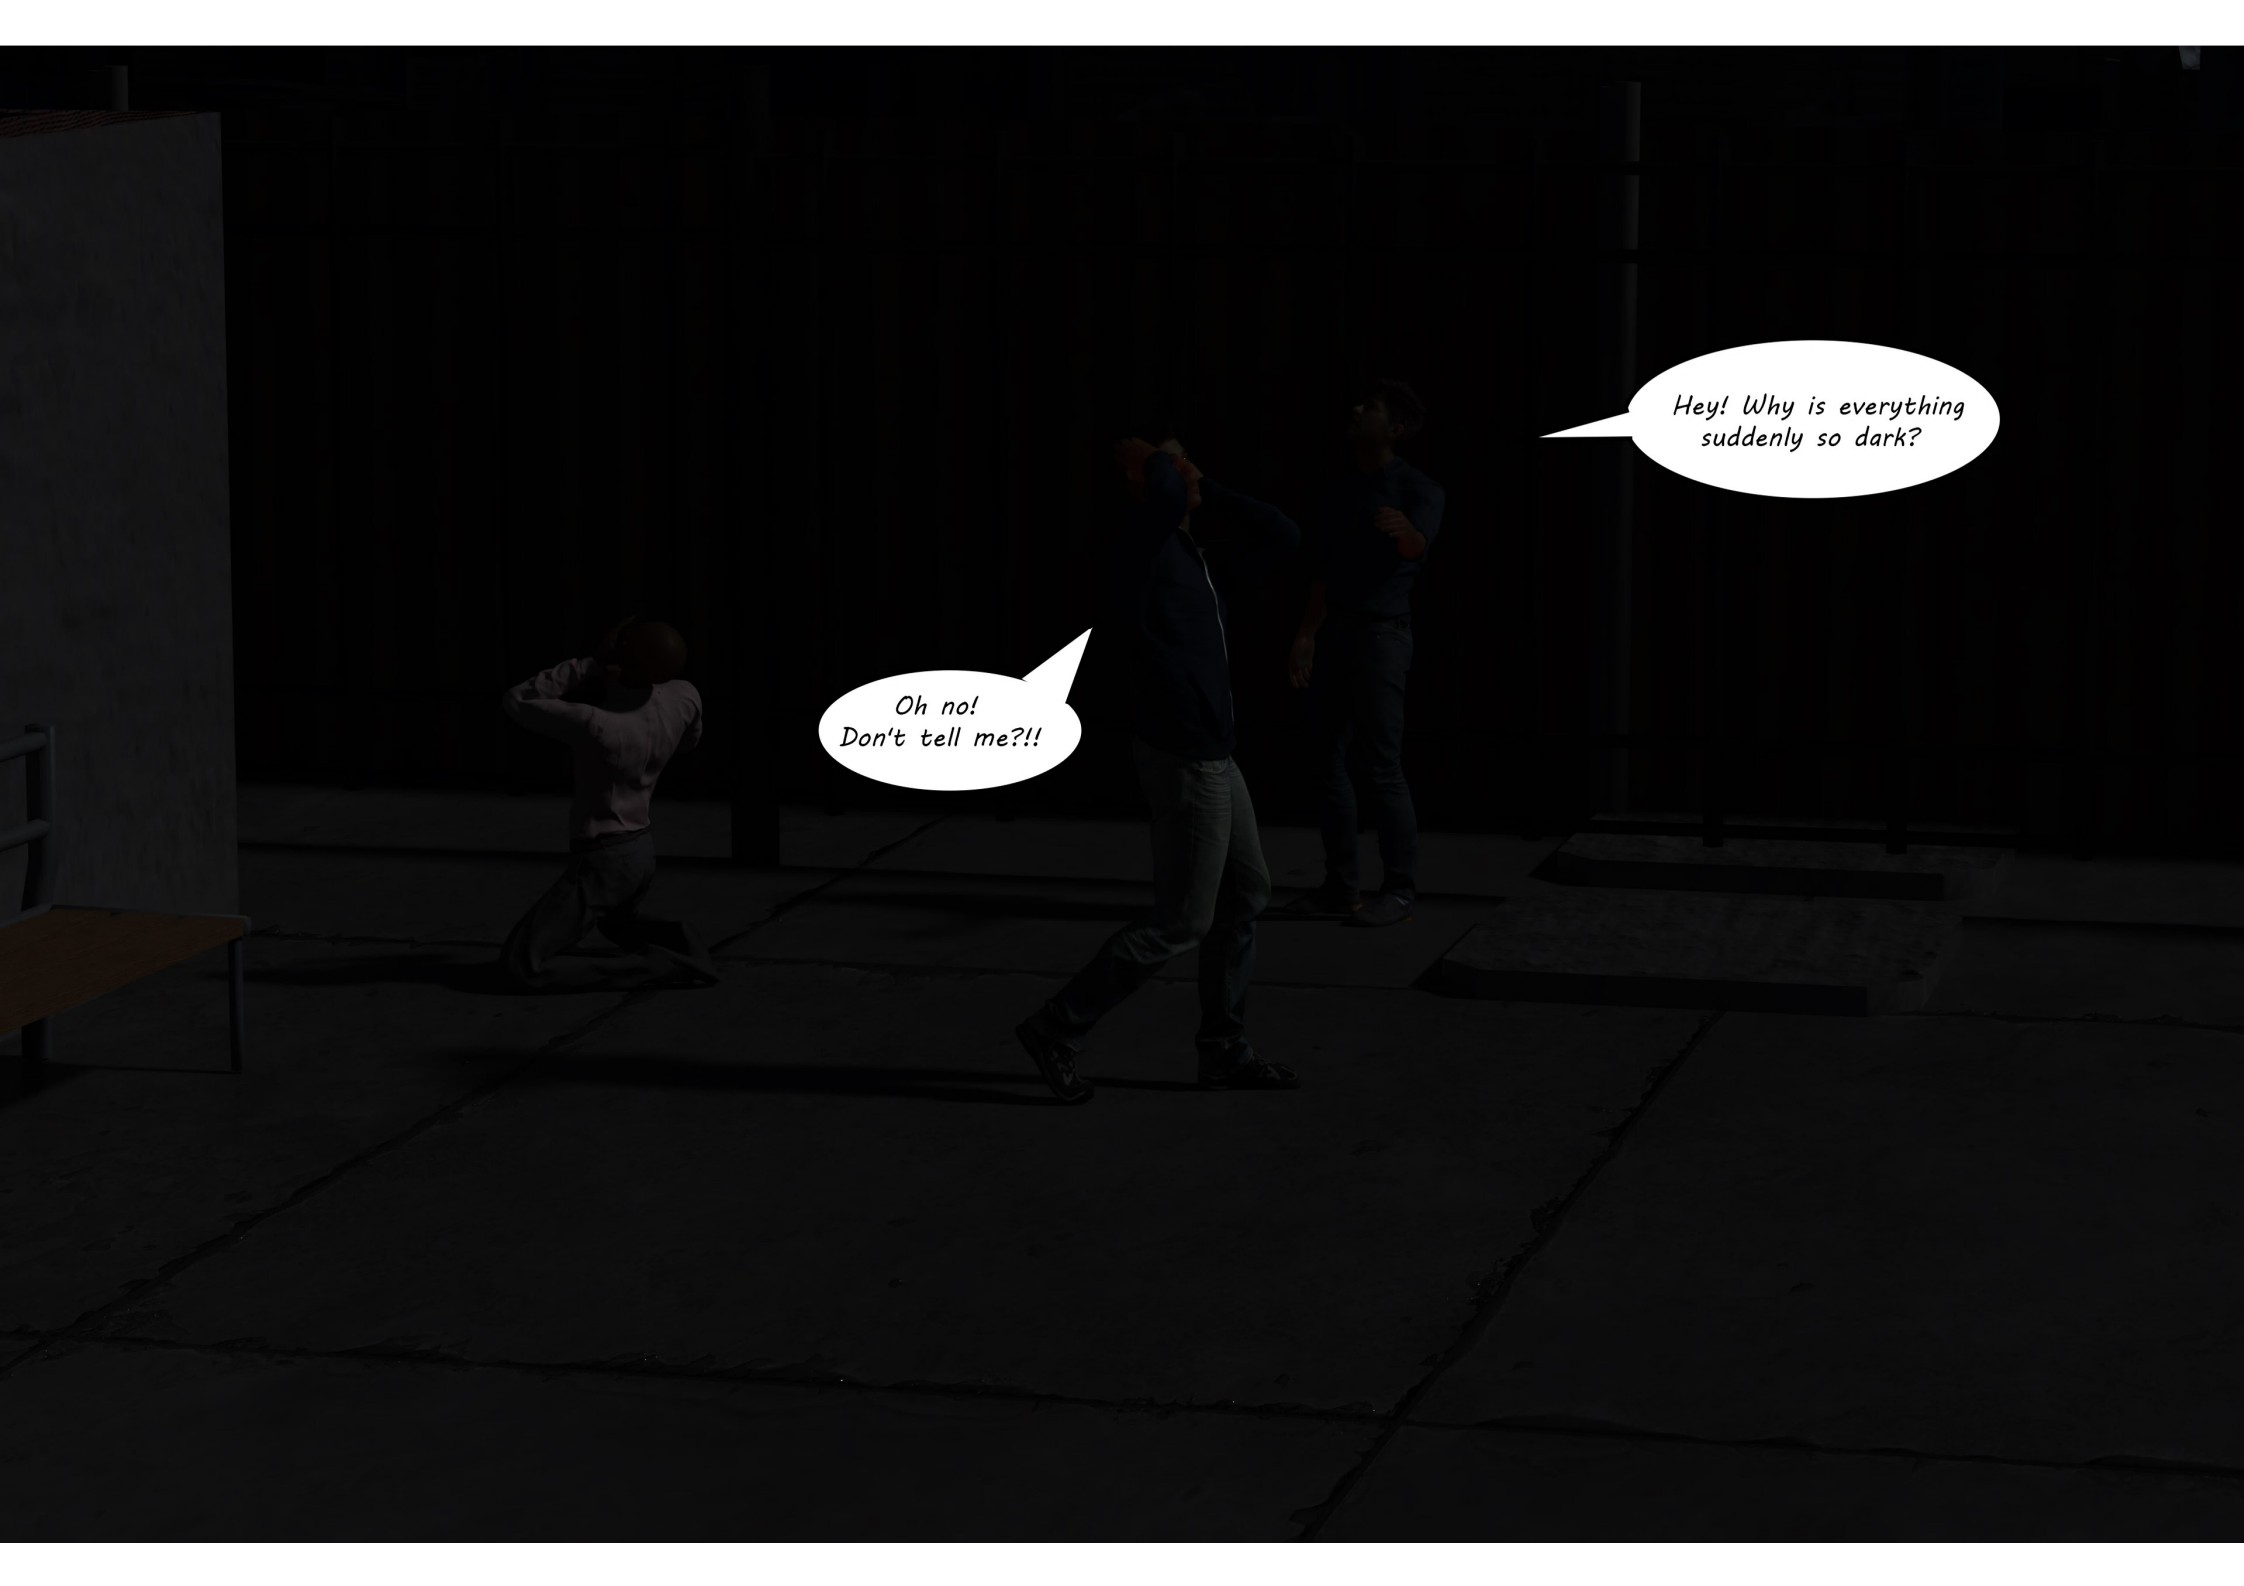

*No,
it's nothing, just some mosquitoes bothering me, but it's sorted! We can continue!*

I can't see how our situation could be any worse!

They're completely crazy, they'll destroy the whole city at this rate!

What
are they doing here? No one is supposed to cross the border without authorization!

*Oh no!
Don't tell me?!!*

Hey! Why is everything suddenly so dark?

When the three Lilliputians looked up, they could see that the sky had been replaced by a gigantic, moving shape! At first completely disoriented, they soon realized what this mass of divine proportions belonged to.

Fuck! There's another one coming!!

My goodness, she's even bigger than the two others!

Do you think she was sent to save us from the other two?

Oh no no no! Shit! She hasn't noticed us!

*it's too late,
we're doomed!*

As the giant's foot descended on the city, the thousands of Lilliputians trapped in its shadow desperately tried to flee and save their lives, but to no avail. Their movement at their microscopic size was not even perceptible on the Brob scale, and once again, before the end, the harsh reality of their world was forced upon them. They were nothing to the Brobs, less than insects or at most mere specks of dust that would disappear under the sole of a huge woman unaware of their existence!

When the shoe came into contact with the ground, the impact was such that everything underneath was instantly reduced to dust and the resulting shockwave generated a hurricane-like wind that swept across an even larger area. The homes in the area could not withstand this blast and tens of thousands more Lilliputians lost their lives because of a single step!

Booommm!!!!

Finally,
you're both here! You could say you made me run to find you!

Shit, Anna?! What are you doing here?

I told you we'd get into trouble Sis!

I'm here to take you back to your mother! And let me tell you that you're in a hell of a mess, ladies

You idiots! If someone else had responded, it would have been a one-way ticket to prison for you and the juvenile detention center for your little sister!

For goodness sake! You can consider yourself lucky that it was me who responded to the call from the Lilliputian authorities about two Brobs going on a rampage in their territory. When they gave me your description, I knew it was you.

Do you realize that the responsibility for everything that has happened will fall directly on your mother? and that she could even be fired if this whole affair gets out!

I'm...

Shut up! You will explain yourself to her once you return to her office!

while Anna scolded the two girls, the latter no longer even paid attention to the city below and the destruction they were causing with their foot! trampling entire districts without paying the slightest attention!

The Lilliputians, not having finished squashing under the feet of the two giantesses, could only flee, while contemplating the monolithic toes that dominated the horizon like mountains of flesh in motion.

Ok!

if everything is clear, go back to the border post immediately, we will deal with your case there! and avoid as much as possible crushing other cities on the way!

Well, I'll have to manage this whole mess
now! What a pain!

In different times, we would have simply cleaned the area! But anyway, times change!

I guess I'll have to get closer! I'm far too big for them to be able to understand me from where they are! I guess it might be chaos down there!

don't wanna die!!!

the giantess began to descend towards the city, it placed its two hands in the very heart of the city in areas that were still intact, pulverizing everything underneath as well as several hundred meters around!

*ok,
let's take a closer look!*

Booomm!!

Booomm!!

there is nothing to do! you are definitely too microscopic for me to be able to see you! your houses are barely visible, but you are barely even specks of dust for me!

too huge!!!

she's coming!!

the simple fact of breathing so close to the city caused terribly violent winds for you! as for the voice of the giantess who wished to communicate with them, the sound wave generated caused the tiny bodies of the Lilliputians closest to her to implode and also caused a hurricane in the streets of the city, causing thousands of Lilliputians to fly helplessly for several hundred meters!

Oops, sorry! It seems that my voice is too loud for you at this distance!

A woman with dark hair and glasses, wearing a white collared shirt and a blue tie, is holding a tiny gold bar between her fingers. She is smiling and looking at the camera. The background is a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. A speech bubble is positioned to the right of her head.

As I was saying, I apologize for this minor inconvenience. To avoid any misunderstanding with our great nation, I am generously offering you this tiny gold bar. I am certain that, despite its ridiculous size for us, it should more than cover your losses, rebuild your tiny buildings, and even compensate the... um, tiny victims. In exchange, I simply expect your absolute silence about this small and insignificant incident.

I hope you appreciate the gesture!

Falling!!!!

Booomm!!!

It's
SO high that I can't see the top!

Oh my goodness, it really is gold! Have you seen the size of it? It's more than all the country's reserves put together!

It's the first time I've been glad that we're so different in size!

Wooosh!!!!

oh my god the bar of gold is starting to tip over towards us!

we're going to get crushed underneath it, run!

crack!!!

Kaboomm!!!

nooo!!

Booomm!!!!

Oops, sorry... I sometimes forget how fragile and insignificant you are. Consider this a friendly reminder: if any of you are tempted to blab despite our little arrangement, I won't hesitate to come back. And believe me, this ingot would be just a tiny foretaste of what I would be capable of if I came back with a less... diplomatic intention. Think about it carefully, little beings.

Meanwhile, entire districts were crushed under her indifferent footsteps as Anna's colossal silhouette slowly receded towards the horizon, causing the deaths of thousands more Lilliputians. No attention was paid to this unintended destruction, which was considered insignificant from her dizzying height. At the same time, the gigantic gold ingot was quickly surrounded by the Lilliputian military forces, who had rushed to secure the object and take control of it. The soldiers were ordered to protect this massive treasure that had fallen from the sky at all costs.
