

The Witches World

Chapter 23

“So it feels really good?” Ginny asked once again. Hermione rolled her eyes and nodded.

“Yes. It feels incredible,” she responded with the same answer for what must have been the tenth time. She could see that the young redhead was very excited, even though she tried not to act like it.

“And how big is he?” she wondered. Hermione put down her quill and held her hands apart, indicating just how big Harry truly was. She smirked as Ginny’s eyes began to bulge.

“And you’re able to take the entire thing?!” she gasped, looking at her friend in wonder. Even though she was a bit embarrassed by the question, she was still proud that she was able to properly please her friend Harry.

“Yes ... though it is a very tight fit,” she replied with slightly pink cheeks.

“The entire thing ...” Ginny muttered quietly to herself before looking back up. “Do you think that I’ll be able to?” she asked, clearly nervous about the prospect of fitting that monster inside of her.

“I’m sure that you will. It might hurt at first,” Hermione warned. Harry’s cock was thick enough that he stretched her out every time that they had sex. Hermione had gotten used to the sensation and had even grown to enjoy it. She could see that Ginny’s chest was rising and falling as her nervousness grew. “Relax. You’ll love it. I promise,” Hermione placated her, reaching out and rubbing Ginny’s soft hand.

“My mum said that now that I’m old enough, I need to do my duty and offer myself to him,” Ginny blushed as she confessed. Hermione nodded.

“The professors said the same thing to me last year,” Hermione responded.

“I want to be the first in my year to give themselves to him!” she said plainly and proudly.

Hermione smirked and tried not to laugh. “I hate to tell you this, but I saw Romilda Vane scampering after him when he went to his room. I’d bet anything that she jumped in his bed at the first opportunity.”

“That fucking bitch!” Ginny yelled. Hermione was glad that they were in her dorm room and away from the prying ears of the Common Room. “She knew damn well that I wanted to be first!”

"Looks like she didn't care about your plans," Hermione giggled as she got back to doing prep work for her first day of classes.

"Ohhhh ... I'm going to slap the shit out of her!" Ginny declared hotly, getting to her feet and pacing around the room.

"Do it in front of Harry. It might turn him on," Hermione teased and giggled once again. It seemed like she wasn't even listening to her.

"I should have known that something was up with her. Did you see the whorish makeup that she was wearing?!" Ginny continued to rant.

"I thought that she looked pretty good ..." Hermione chanted as she wrote in her notebook.

"Her tits aren't even that big! Mine are way better!"

Hermione just shook her head and tried her best to tune her out. That was impossible when Ginny suddenly pulled her to her feet. "Let's go to Harry's room!"

"What? Why?" Hermione asked as Ginny was already pulling her toward the door.

"I want to see if they really are doing it, or if she's full of crap like always," Ginny told her. "Wait ... Do you think that Harry will be mad if we walk in on him?" she asked. She didn't want to ruin her chance with him in the future.

"I'm sure that he wouldn't mind," Hermione sighed and resolved herself to get this over with. Hermione led her to Harry's room and quietly opened the door. Immediately, she knew that he was in there with someone. She could hear sucking sounds before he moaned. They went further in and stood next to one another as they watched what was going on.

Harry was flat on his back with his legs open while a completely nude Romilda Vane squeezed his muscled thighs with her hands while she rapidly bobbed her head. Hermione was surprised that the young girl was already so talented with her mouth. Ginny's mouth was agape as she watched her rival suck off what had to be the biggest cock in the whole world. Not only that, but it looked like she was doing a good job! Harry threaded his fingers through Romilda's raven-colored locks and brushed the hair from her face. Ginny could see that her cheeks were pink from the effort. Just then, she saw Romilda's eyes turn her way, and a smug look crossed her face as she pulled off of his cock and stroked him vigorously. She rested the tip of his cock against her cheek as her hand stroked the length of his shaft. Her eyes never left Ginny's before she smirked and turned her head. She began laying soft kisses all over his veiny shaft while one had worked his cock and the other gently massaged his balls.

Ginny clenched her hands into fists as she tried to push down her anger. 'That skank is really going to get it later!' Ginny promised herself as she continued to watch her worship his cock.

Even though she didn't want to admit it, Romilda looked quite sexy as she sucked him off. Her young body looked incredibly smooth and fit as she sat there on her hands and knees with her shapely ass up in the air. Ginny could see wetness clinging to the soft petals that rested between her plump cheeks. Her pussy was completely hairless, and Ginny could see the smallest of flaps sticking out from between them. They too were covered in arousal as her ass wiggled from side to side. She could smell just how much Romilda was aroused. The entire room stank of her wet pussy. The sound of sucking drew her attention from Romilda's sexy body. Looking at her face, she was back to taking his cock down her throat like a true pro. Ginny wondered how she had gotten so good. 'The bitch was probably sucking off a cucumber all summer,' Ginny nastily thought to herself. Her eyes widened when she realized that she was probably right. Romilda probably did practice at getting better at sex while her dumb ass was busy practicing Quidditch maneuvers! Ginny wanted to kick herself!

"Are you ready for my pussy, Harry?" Romilda moaned as she peppered his inner thighs with kisses. "It's really wet," she confessed as she reached back and ran a finger between her lips. Holding it up and showing Harry how wet that it was must have worked, because a second later she was pulled onto his lap where she straddled him. As she wiggled her hips around, Harry looked over at the pair.

"Ladies," he greeted them and then moaned as Romilda trapped his cock against her wet slit and his belly and ground her tight, little pussy on the underside of his shaft.

"Why don't you both take off your clothes and come up here? Each of you take a side," Harry told them. Ginny and Hermione looked at each other and blushed. Hermione, who was already used to his level of depravity, immediately began disrobing. Ginny's heart pounded in her chest as she removed her clothes with shaky hands. Since her tits were large A-cups, she didn't wear a bra, but Harry did watch as she bent over and slid her cotton panties down her smooth legs until she was able to step out of them. Hermione crawled onto the bed and sat on her heels on one side of him near Romilda, while Ginny did the same on the opposite side.

Ginny shuddered as Harry looked down to the area between her legs. She turned her body to give him a better view. "Freshly shaved?" he asked as his hand cupped her rapidly dampening twat. Ginny gasped and arched her back as his finger began sliding back and forth between her small, wet flaps. Harry could feel the wonderful heat radiating from between her virgin lips.

"Y-yes!" Ginny gasped when his finger tickled her swollen clit. "My mum said that you would like it," she said with a moan.

"Your mum was right," he said before groaning loudly. Romilda had just dropped down on his cock. Harry arched his back and thrust upward to meet Romilda's burning hot groin. Wanting some action as well, Hermione blushed and grabbed his free hand. She moved it until it was underneath her, and she sat down on it. She moaned as two fingers entered her. Like Romilda, Hermione rolled her hips and gently bounced up and down, fucking herself on his hand.

Romilda's body began trembling and she collapsed on top of him. Harry could feel her pussy contracting and pulsating around him. "D-Does it feel good, Harry?" Romilda stuttered through her orgasm, and she continued to try and pleasure him. Her hips were moving around as her pussy tried to milk his cock. Harry was too experienced to give it up that quickly though. He kissed her deeply before saying, "It feels wonderful, Romilda."

Romilda was filled with confidence, and with great effort, she pressed her hands against his chest and lifted herself back up. She smirked at Ginny before closing her eyes and moaning deeply. She moved her hips to the front then back faster and faster, trying to get Harry to cum inside of her. Seeing this, Harry decided to give her a treat. "Arch your back, Romilda," he commanded. Romilda bowed her back and presented her small A-cup breasts to them.

"Suck on her nipples, girls," Harry ordered his two other occupants. Hermione almost instantly latched onto Romilda's perfect, little nipple. Ginny took a few more seconds to come to grips with his command. Seeing her pink, crinkled nipple in front of her face, Ginny blushed before leaning in and licking the hard nub. Romilda, being the bitch that she was, grabbed the back of her head and pulled her face right up against her small breast. Ginny had no choice but to suck and lick on her nipple. In fact, Ginny could fit nearly her entire breast into her mouth. It wasn't long before Romilda cried out in orgasmic bliss once again. This time Harry rolled her over and spread her legs wide. He thrust all the way in and groaned. Ginny knew that he was seeding the little bitch, but was surprised when he pulled out before finishing and spurted cum all over Romilda's perfectly smooth mound.

"Go on and clean her up, Gin," Harry said, breathing heavily. Filled with nervousness, Ginny got on her hands and knees and lowered her head between Romilda's parted legs. She scooped up a glob of his cum onto her tongue and drank it down. Before she could lap up some more, she felt a warm tongue licking her virgin pussy. Squeaking in surprise, she looked over her shoulder and saw Harry with his face buried between her cheeks. The pleasure of his tongue massaging her pussy and asshole made her eyes flutter before going back to work. She continued to lick and suck at her wet pussy until it was glistening with her saliva. Taking her mouth away, she could see that it was sparkling clean.

"All done, Harry!" Ginny moaned as Harry stuck his tongue inside of her asshole. He pulled his mouth away from her body.

"Romilda, slide your face underneath Ginny and suck on her clit. She deserves a reward as well."

This time it was Ginny that was smirking. She opened her legs a bit more just to show how eager that she was for revenge. Romilda glared but did what he said. She got on her back and slid her head underneath Ginny's body. Seeing Ginny's hard, throbbing clit come down to her, she opened her mouth and began sucking on the swollen nub.

Ginny moaned loudly as her clit was being stimulated by a talented mouth. "Hermione, turn around and stick your ass up. Let Ginny lick your pussy and asshole."

Ginny blushed madly as her friend turned away from her and stuck her ass up in the air. Ginny got a front-row seat as Hermione exposed her lovely-looking pussy. Already too horny to care, Ginny dove in and began working her body to the best of her ability. She couldn't help but moan into Hermione's pussy as Harry lapped at her tightest hole. Hermione's pussy was literally dripping into her mouth when she finally came. Ginny reared back as Hermione slightly squirted on her face. It wasn't long before she too was cumming hard on Harry and Romilda's tongues. She was held down as her body bucked and spasmed out of control. They continued to lick and suck her juices down until she squirmed away from them, too sensitive to continue.

"That was brilliant ladies!" Harry said happily as he stood up. "Ginny, I'll schedule you in for tomorrow night. Now if you'll excuse me, I need to shower and get ready for bed." They knew that they had been dismissed. Three nude and disheveled girls gathered their clothes and did the walk of triumph back to their dorms where they would sleep soundly until morning.
