Chapter 9

I watched in a horny gaze in Sam's comforting hand as Regina, Daisy and Valerie started to grow, they all stopped arguing, realising their changing predicament. They all at once turned their gaze to me, in Sam's hand and gave an evil smirk. Their ascension filled me with dread.

"Sam... They're coming." I said timidly and turned to Sam.

"I know." Her smile turned to one with sinister undertones.

Turning my gaze back down to the growing girls, I could see that their exaggerated features were also now expanding, Regina's belly was bulging forward with each second, like a pulsating type of growth, it knocked Daisy backwards, she fell onto her huge ass, which too was growing and spreading across the floor beneath her. There was a huge crash as her stomach breached the building wall behind her, the rapid growth was too much for the structural integrity of the bricks and soon the building was compromised, and it collapsed.

Regina laughed and her stomach shook with such force it made her fall too. In trying to correct her balance, she stumbled to her side and immediately crushed a building outright. The huge fat mass was still growing along with her height. Both women were immobilised by their growing assets, the only woman still on her feet was Valerie, and she was gaining on Sam's height rather quickly.

I thought Sam might move but she chose not to, I turned and gave her a concerned look and realised that she had no intentions of moving, her smirk gave herself away. Valerie's huge head was passing Sam's breasts, Sam couldn't resist dropping me between her cleavage and grabbing Valerie's head and pressing it into her cleavage with me. The gigantic motorboat must've looked incredible from the outside view but from my point of view it was even hotter.

My whole body was consumed by Sam's breasts and Valerie's huge face was being smothered by the massive tits too, Valerie saw it as an opportunity, however. Her mouth opened and her face buried deeper into her cleavage to reach my body. Her tongue was first to make contact with my body, licking me up and down like I was a lollipop, her hot breath on my body was incredible. My rigid cock being licked by a tongue nearing the size of my body was drawing me closer to cum, despite the fact she was trying to eat me.

As Valerie was licking at me and being smothered between Sam's breasts, she was moaning and they were getting louder, her body shuddering. I could feel Sam's heart rate increase, the loud thuds surrounding me as her breasts visibly pulsed against my body, their enormous size made the sensation even more incredible. It was like I was consumed by a warm jiggling waterbed. Valerie managed to get her face between Sam's breasts enough to get my feet in her mouth, her moans were stopping her from eating me outright, but slowly she was working my feet between her lips, her moans vibrating my whole body. With a sudden surge, her lips were wrapped around my waist. My hard cock was now in her mouth, she was sucking my legs trying to draw me in, but she kept moaning for air as clearly, she was enjoying this so much.

The pleasure outweighed any negative emotion I had, right now I was between two giantesses enjoying their company and I was seemingly a sex toy being used for their pleasure. It was heaven. I couldn't restrain myself any longer and I erupted in Valerie's mouth. A massive wad of cum for me was obviously very little to her but she felt my body spasm and she immediately followed with her own orgasm. She let out a big gasp and released the pressure on my lower half and I quickly found my legs had slipped out of her mouth. Nestled safely between Sam's breasts, I watched as Valerie's face started to withdraw from Sam's cleavage for some reason. Being smothered myself in them meant I was unable to get all the details about what was happening outside of this warm chasm, I just relaxed and watched as she left. I tried to lift myself out from between my boob prison, but I was surprised to see that the short distance to the light was becoming a lot further away.

Sam was growing again.

Her moans boomed from her chest which was now expanding, and I could feel the surge of growth.

Each breast must be a size too big to describe at this point.

I felt her body start to shudder as she came to her own orgasm, her heart rate was booming around me, I felt a massive shift in my centre of gravity but still unable to see, I couldn't tell what was going on. I waited patiently, still reeling from my orgasm, thankfully there was enough of a gap in her breasts that I was able to get some air. After a few minutes, I felt a momentum change that made me feel motion sick, then I saw two giant fingers reaching from the gap between Sam's breasts. These fingers were significantly bigger than Sam's were the last time I saw them.

They squeezed at my sides, and I was lifted from her breasts. I saw the floor was much further than last time, she had done some serious growing again, I couldn't even estimate the size at this point, I didn't dare look over the side, the height we were now was disorientating enough. I looked at Sam and saw her smiling face staring back at me.

"Hey... So that was fun... I kinda..." She turned me down towards her tits. "Grew..."

Grew was an understatement, her boobs were huge proportionally on her body before, now, even larger somehow. If she were to let them, they could be used as beanbags for her body, the massive grey breasts had such a projection from her body, it was unreal.

"What happened to Valerie?" I asked.

"She couldn't keep up." Sam winked.

I felt a chill run down my spine, Sam felt somehow different.

"And the others?"

"Why do you care? You are here with me now, there is only me, you don't need anyone or anything else." She said with a stern reply.

I knew better than to answer back.

"In fact, I think you could make me grow more." She looked down at my cock, already recovering from my recent explosion. "You certainly look ready..."

Sam brought me closer to her face and started to lick my body, her tongue was bigger than my body at this point, it felt. She licked and teased my body, savouring each lick and moaning as if I was a tasty morsel of food.

Standing at full attention, my cock throbbed as it quickly approached another orgasm. I was powerless to resist, not that I would've.

"I think you should get to enjoy what you gave me Braden." She was about to lower me to her tits before we both heard numerous rumbles from below.

I tried to look to her side but that angered Sam.

“Hey. My tits are down here, you don’t need anything other than me.” Her fingertip pressed against my body and pinned me to her palm.

I was winded, the power of her finger alone was so insurmountable.

“P-ple-ase” I wheezed. Sam reluctantly let up.

“Fine.”

She lifted me up and turned her chest to her side, she looked down past her shoulder with me dangling in the air. We both then saw what was happening below.

There’s more.
