Your partner wound your hair around their hand, and tugged. The trigger activated, you couldn't stop yourself from saying the words. "I'm just a silly toy. Please play with me."

They laughed. "I know you are, my sweet plaything, what else is new?"

They tugged on your hair again, once again, you couldn't stop yourself from speaking. "I don't need to think. I just need to obey." Your tone was so cheerful. More cheerful than you wanted it to be. But you couldn't change that. And that made it... Better in a way.

With a third hair pull, you tried to put your hand over your mouth, but found your arm unresponsive. "Obedient toys are such good playthings. I'm an obedient toy!" Your voice said. Your hypnotist was laughing, still holding your hair. You pouted at them.

"I'm glad you find me amu-" They cut you off with a pull of your hair. "I'm just a silly toy. Please play with me."

They fell back in more laughter, letting go of your hair. "That's so good. This might be my favourite trigger yet. Slightly brainwashing, very funny. It's perfect."

They reached up and gave your hair a few tugs in succession. "I'm- I- Obe- I- Obe- I'm- Obedient toys are such good playthings. I'm an obedient toy!" The restarting made your brain feel hazy, in a blissful way. You blinked slowly as the fog cleared. "I... You can do more, if you want."

That had clearly gotten your hypnotist's interest. They sat up, still smiling. "I know. And I do. I just... I want you to realise how much more of a toy this makes you. These fun little repeatable lines. I'm looking forward to them getting stuck in your head without the trigger."
