

Hello party people!

If you're reading this, that's because you are a patron! It's your support that allows me to keep the channel going and produce the videos that you're passionate about (and get access to that sweet, sweet bonus content). Thank you for doing that, it's really nice! Every month I put out a newsletter like this one, updating you all on the state of the channel, patreon, and the copaganda series.

December is going to be a little confusing scheduling-wise because I'll be travelling home for the holiday. I'm hoping to get a video up for you all before I leave but rest assured, there is some juicy content ahead for you good patrons.

Like copaganda before it, my research is quickly ballooning this Jon Stewart video. Right now it's looking like there might be another series in here about satirical news, although I don't want to get too ahead of myself. There will be a Jon Stewart video coming soon, and it is going to be thorough—I might even be snagging some interviews with experts in the field so that's exciting!

Because the research for that project is getting pretty big already, I'm going to be attaching a bibliography for that in addition to the copaganda one you know and love.

To tide us over until then, I am hoping to publish Why You Should Watch: Euphoria since its second season is coming out in January. That video would be more of a return to old-school Skip Intro, breaking down the tone of the show and how it elevates the show.

When we return to copaganda, it will either be for Paw Patrol or Twin Peaks, True Detective, and the Satanic Panic. Which one? Well that all depends on if we hit some Patreon related goals! Tell your friends and family. Hell, give them a patreon account as a holiday present, idk!

CJ and I have recorded the Rewatch Podcast for season 5 of The Americans, I just have to finish editing it, which will be this week

This Sunday (12/5) will be the live Q&A, I'll post a thread where you can post your questions separately.

I hope you all have been enjoying the Succession recaps! To my knowledge, HBO has severely restricted access to screeners for the final two episodes, so my recaps for those might be a day or two late but I hope you still read them and like them. And if not? Fuck off.

Lastly, there will be no monthly TV roundup this month, because we are in the final month of the year, which means it's time for year-end lists! If you're new around here, I like to do three different year-end projects, and I guarantee those will all be ready before vacation.
